HEAVY STEEL BRIDGE

Creek in the public road between without a struggle. Grants Pass and Crescent City. An order was let yesterday by the county court for the material, which will arrive within the next few days.

Slate Creek has always had a bad reputation among auto drivers. It is wide and rocky, and frequently the uninitiated driver, spurting to get engine in mid stream, where he in 1889 was perpetual makes it reacross, would get caught with "dead" would have to remain until some farmer came along and helped him and his machine out, the company and the company an heavy steel bridge will span Slate est and that it will not withdraw

On the other hand the city is confident that if it comes to a fight in the courts the council's right to revoke the local company's franchise and oust it from the city will be sustained. Legal expert advice has been obtained on this subject and it is declared that the fact that the franchise granted to the A. E. P. & L. Co.

in 1889 was perpetual makes it revocable at any time.

That the electric company will not withdraw without a fight however, is admitted by all.

Hopes that the Sisklyou company would withdraw from the Rogue River Valley were raised by the fact that the threatened competition in Klamath Falls has not materialized. The Rays have withdrawn, for the present at least, from the Klamath country.
