

ENCAMPMENT OF STATE TROOPS

Oregon National Guard to Gather at Columbia Beach Next Week for Annual Encampment—Staff Officers Named.

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 5.—The annual encampment of the Oregon National Guard begins at Columbia Beach, Oregon, next Monday, August 7, and Adjutant-General W. E. Finzer has issued orders for the 10 days' meet of the citizen-soldiers, and the following staff is announced by the Adjutant-General to be effective on his assuming command of the camp, which will be officially known as "Camp Summers," next Monday morning:

Chief of Staff, Major Clarence E. Dentler, Twenty-third U. S. Infantry; Adjutant-General, Major Lawrence H. Knapp, Quartermaster, Chief Quartermaster, Inspector-General, Colonel James Jackson, Inspector-General, Chief Commissary, Major Curtis B. Winn, Commissary, Chief Commissary; Chief Surgeon, Colonel Mathew H. Ellis, Surgeon-General.

The uniform of the camp will be the olive drab or khaki service uniform, viz: service hat (worn creased and not in the Montana peak), hat cord, olive drab shirt, khaki or olive drab breeches, leggings and russett shoes. No shirt except the olive drab flannel shirt will be permitted and this shirt must be worn buttoned at the neck and at the wrists. Officers will wear the insignia of their rank on the point of the collar of their olive drab shirt, and non-commissioned officers will wear their chevrons attached to the sleeve of the shirt. Any officer or enlisted man who is not provided with an olive drab flannel shirt must wear the khaki or olive drab coat buttoned throughout.

NEW TEACHERS ENGAGED BY CONSERVATORY

The success of the Medford Conservatory of Music and Languages is best attested by the fact that two new teachers have been secured by Mr. Taillandier for the next year. Miss Carrie Louise Aiton who is to take charge of the violin department, who was born in St. Paul, began the study of violin when eight years old; she finished in Boston, graduating with high honors from the New England Conservatory. Medford ought to feel proud of having an artist of Miss Aiton's calibre as a permanent resident, for we understand that her parents may decide to leave St. Paul and make their home with her in our city. Miss Aiton has won noted success as a soloist in many eastern cities. Mr. Phillip Hale, the famous Boston critic speaks of her as "a violinist of unusual self-command both as regards technical equipment and interpretative style."

Miss Aiton has a charming personality and will be a decided addition to our social circles. Mr. Taillandier's enterprise in bringing such an artist to Medford is to be heartily commended.

The second addition to the Conservatory faculty will be a teacher of English literature, elocution and dramatic art. The final arrangements have not yet been wholly concluded, but in all probability the teacher selected will be a gentleman holding a professorship at a university in the east.

GLAVIS OFFERED JOB BY CALIFORNIA BOARD

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 5.—Louis R. Glavis, the conservation expert who, while in the employ of the interior department offered testimony which ultimately resulted in Secretary Richard A. Ballinger's retirement from the cabinet, has been offered the position of joint secretary of the conservation commission of California and the conservation board of control.

Glavis will arrive here tomorrow and undoubtedly will accept, according to former Governor George C. Pardee, who is a member of the commission.

WANT SPORTSMEN TO ORGANIZE GAME CLUBS

PORTLAND, Or., Aug. 5.—Believing that sportsmen throughout the state can do more to encourage the protection and propagation of fish and game, than all the laws extant, State Game Warden Finley today sent letters to deputy wardens urging them to get the sportsmen of various districts together and organize sporting clubs.

ASK LOVETT TO GRANT INCREASE

Southern Pacific Shopmen Appeal From Calvin's Decision Refusing 8 Hour Day and 7 Per Cent Raise in Wages to Head of System.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 5.—Refused shorter hours and increased pay by General Manager Calvin of the Harriman railroad system, the Shop Employees Federation is today planning to take their grievances straight to Robert S. Lovett, chairman of the board of directors of the Harriman lines.

An executive meeting of the San Francisco branch of the federation held last night decided to take the matter at once before the highest officials of the company. Members of the federation said today that if the demand is refused by the board of directors the next step will be of a more warlike nature.

H. J. Small, general superintendent of motive power of the Pacific system of the Southern Pacific said today that the demands of the federation would mean an expenditure of nearly $2,000,000 a year.

More than 8,000 men concerned in the federation are employed throughout California and Arizona. They include the carbuilders, blacksmiths, helpers, boilermakers, tin-smiths and copper-smiths.

The demand made by the shop employees federation is for an eight hour day and an increase of 7 per cent. The federation also insists that a 90 day option must be given the men prior to any reduction in wages of employees by the Harriman lines. When re-employed it is demanded that they be taken back in the same order as they were laid off. When ordered away from home pay must begin from the time notified to leave. Specializations are also made respecting holidays and overtime.
