are being enacted in every street of the dock business districts, and clashes between the police and the strikers have been constant since day-break. Mail wagons escorted by the police have so far been the storm centers, and many bitter battles have been fought.

Indication of the extent to which London is pressed for food came to light today with the revealing of a novel scheme resorted to by a leading hotel. While a great crowd of strikers lined the street, a hearse with two closed carriages drove up the main entrance of the hotel. Black plumes and mourning signs got the right of way, the strikers, many of them with their hats off, standing aside to let it pass. When the carriages and the hearse drove up at the door, police immediately surrounded them, the doors were opened, a cargo of meat they contained was hurriedly rushed into the hotel and the vehicles drove hurriedly away amidst the groans, jeers and catcalls of the defeated mob.

MAY PASS BILL OVER TAFT VETO

Statehood Advocates Believe That They Will Be Successful in Getting Bills Enacted as Law in Spite of President.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 10.—The house today agreed, without division, to accept the senate amendments to the Arizona and New Mexico statehood measurements. The bills now go to the president.

It is believed, generally that the measure will be vetoed, but its advocates express themselves as hopeful of passing the bill over president's veto. Representative Flood, author of the resolution, declares he has votes enough in both house and senate. Republican leaders admit the possibility of the required number in the house, but believe the senate is doubtful.

ASTORIA'S GREAT SHOW IS OPENED

ASTORIA, Or., Aug. 10.—Astoria's centennial pageant to commemorate the first white settlement of the Pacific northwest was officially opened by Governor Oswald West of Oregon today attended by Adjutant General Finzer of the Oregon National Guard and official staff. President Taft was represented by John Barrett, director general of the bureau of Pan-American republics. The celebration will last 30 days.

As the governor and his official family stepped from a special train at noon the big guns at Fort Stevens, 10 miles below at the mouth of the Columbia river, boomed out the governor's salute. Sixteen naval vessels in the harbor replied to the thunderous token rendered while the officials were hurried into automobiles and driven to the Weinhard-Astoria hotel for an informal luncheon.

At 2 o'clock a parade headed by state and federal representatives and centennial officials made its way from the court house to Coxcomb hill, where the exposition grounds are located. As soon as the head of the line reached the gates of Fort Astoria, Governor West turned the key, swung back the gates and led the parade to the monster stadium.

His entrance was the signal for a song—the national anthem which was sung by 1500 persons. At its conclusion Archbishop Alexander Christie asked a blessing and the celebration was officially opened by the governor who delivered an oration—"Hundred Years of Astoria and Oregon."

Among the cities represented in the parade were Seattle, Vancouver, B. C.; Portland, Spokane, Tacoma and San Francisco.

The pageant has been in the course of preparation for six months and every building and exhibit was completed long before the big gates leading to the grounds were opened.

Out in the harbor there are an even dozen of United States naval vessels and Lupine and Sheerwater of the British fleet and a French and Japanese cruiser are expected before the end of the week. A big water parade and carnival will take place tonight.

Camped on the Centennial grounds are the United States regular coast artillerymen and detachments of sailors and marines from the ships of war in the harbor. The O. N. G. is encamped nearby.

The celebration is being held to commemorate the settlement of the Pacific northwest in 1812 when John Jacob Astor, who founded the Astor fortunes, established a trading post at Astoria.

During the celebration eight national conventions including the convention of the Oregon Development league, will deliberate here.

ELOPERS PARENTS ANGRY AT PAIR

Chauffeur's Mother Indignant to Think Boy Ran Away With Society Heiress and Her Relatives Aghast With Horror.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 10.—"I don't see why my good, clean, honest boy married that society girl. He had no bad habits and was always a good son and a hard worker."

With these words, Mrs. John Geraghty, wife of the village liveryman, expressed today her distaste for the marriage which her son, "Handsome Jack" Geraghty who eloped with Miss Julia French, heiress and member of the "400" had contracted.

The bride's wealthy relatives, aghast with horror at such a union, are no more angered than are the humble liveryman and his wife. Not too proud to drive his own hacks on occasions, the groom's father, who is considered a Newport character, is in thorough sympathy with the mother's sentiments on the marriage.

CROP REPORT HITS NEW YORK MARKET

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Prices at the opening of today's stock market showed a sharp decline. Rock Island preferred lost 2, General Electric and Wisconsin Central 1 1/2 and Reading, St. Paul, Canadian Pacific and Wash preferred a point each.

Partial recoveries were made but this improvement failed to hold, and by the end of the first hour virtually all quotations were lower. The unfavorable crop report was one of the reasons given in explanation of the market's weakness.

Union Pacific, St. Paul, Atchafalaya, Reading and Canadian Pacific made one point gains at noon but the tone of the market was not reassuring and it closed feverish.

Bonds were heavy.

PRESERVES NATURAL COLOR OF THE HAIR

(From Woman's National Magazine.) "Any woman can postpone for years the time when her hair becomes thin and gray. It is a mistake to shampoo frequently with soap and water, as that tends to make the scalp sealy and hard and the hair dull and faded. "The hair will respond quickly to the proper home treatment. Put in a fruit jar four ounces of orris root and four ounces of therox. Shake until well mixed. Once or twice a week sprinkle a little of this powder on the head and brush it thoroughly through the hair. "This dry shampoo removes dirt, dust and dandruff from the scalp and leaves the hair fresh, sweet and clean. The therox helps to grow beautiful hair and preserves its natural color."
