LUTHER GETS RILED.

Luther Burbank, the "plant wizard," in an interview given at his home, in Santa Rosa, Cal., denounced the department of agriculture at Washington for throwing cold water on his recent achievements in the transformation of plant life. He calls the government's experts "low browed, narrow gauged and pin-headed."

legislation and warned the conservatives against the danger of "pandering to the passions of the mob." It adjured the reactionaries to defy the ministry, the liberals, Balfour and Lansdowne—the king himself, and it dared his majesty to create enough new peers to give the liberals a majority in the house of lords.

"Walled-Off Astor."

But the rebels were unable to gather a sufficient number of peers to their banner to defeat the veto bill in the upper house, the bill went through the lords as well as the commons and Astor lost his fight.

William Waldorf Astor was naturalized in England in 1899 and has for years tried desperately to break into upper English circles. He has spent millions on millions to do it. Thus far, however, he has failed to win even a knighthood, and is significantly spoken of in aristocratic circles as "Walled-off Astor."

BOY HELD FOR MURDER OF AGED BROKER.

PAUL GEIDEL PATRICK MCGRANE

Paul Geidel, the 17-year-old bell boy, is now held, following his alleged confession of the murder of the aged broker, William H. Jackson, at the Hotel Ingot, in New York city. Young Geidel was indicted by the grand jury a few hours following his arrest and a speedy trial is in prospect. His friend, Patrick McGrane, has been held as an accessory to the fact. McGrane pawned a watch stolen by Geidel from the dead man, Jackson.

with marked success, 700,000 were held until the middle of July. At this time, the water becoming very warm in the hatchery 300,000 were liberated into the river. The balance will be fed and liberated about the first of September. These fish have reached an age and size that they will be quite well equipped to meet their numerous enemies in the open river and stand a good chance of surviving, coming to maturity and furnishing great sport to the rod and line men as well as food for the many tables. The balance of the three million were liberated early.

Rainbow Trout Fry. From the newly established trout station at Fish Lake, located in Douglas county, 110,000 rainbow trout eggs were shipped and are being hatched and fed and will be liberated into the Rogue, as well as 50,000 cutthroat that were collected. I firmly believe if we can continue to liberate large numbers of fingerlings in this river every year it will only be a short time until fly fishing in the river and its tributaries will be such that its good reputation will be sustained and held without question and even made better than in former years. This planting of fingerlings has been diligently pursued and good results have followed in the thickly settled states and we can secure the same results on Rogue river.

Plan for Future. During the coming year our work on this river will be carried on along the same general plan as the past year, with this exception, we will operate on the lower river for salmon eggs this fall, but in order not to in any way interfere with the sportsman's steelhead fishing, we will have our pickets on the salmon rack two and three-quarters inches apart, and a trap in the rack so that steelheads which will not pass through the rack will enter the trap and be turned loose above the rack to continue their journey up the river to furnish sport for the rod man, and if not captured later in the winter, to furnish eggs for our hatchery on Elk creek.

WANTS WOMEN TO DAMN RATHER THAN FUDGE THINGS

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 15.—Miss Emma Hall, founder and promoter of the Suffrage Retreat, a guaranteed man-proof farm near Whittier, Cal., announced today that she will urge women to say "damnn" when things are not running smoothly.

"Only women," Miss Hall said, "will be allowed on the place. Talk about 'weak women' is all rot. I am going to suggest that they cultivate the use of the word 'damnn.' I believe that some expetive is doing heavy work is as necessary as a safety valve and I don't propose to have the atmosphere ruined by such terms as 'fudge' and 'oh, sugar.'"

RECOMMENDS $7500 MORE BE PAID DETECTIVE BURNS

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 15.—Mayor George Alexander this afternoon sent a message to the city council recommending that Detective William J. Burns be paid $7750 additional to the $13,000 already paid him by the city for his work in the Los Angeles Times alleged dynamiting case.
