Our Correspondents

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

(By A. C. Howlett.)
C. E. Carpenter, wife and sister, came in a few days ago and are the guests of Mr. Chandler, the men who bought a part of the Green Matthews place. They are from Laramie, Wyo.

Austin Green, a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Fryer, living on Long Branch, has been visiting his grand parents in Eagle Point.
Thomas Maines and G. W. Slater, contractors of Medford, were guests among us last week, looking over the prospect for business. They were on their way to Butte Falls in company of C. W. Perry of Syracuse, N. Y., and George W. Albert of Butte Falls in the latter's auto.

Last Saturday Mr. Lumsden, wife and mother and C. K. Buckman of Carter, Wyoming, were callers for dinner. Mr. Buckman is an old scout of Indian fame and was a young man, a member of the Lumsden family.

Wm. Stanley and his daughter, Mrs. Rachel Rader, were pleasant callers Saturday for dinner.
T. E. Conway, of the firm of The Conway company of Ashland, and wife, came in from Crater Lake with C. A. Gaird also of Ashland in his auto last Saturday night, remaining until after dinner Sunday when they proceeded on their way to their homes in Ashland. They went to see the world's greatest wonder from Ashland via Klamath Falls, coming by Rogue river south. They report the dust is simply beyond description.

W. L. Childreth, our leading blacksmith, went to Ashland last Saturday to attend the blacksmiths' picnic.
I learned after I had written the last time that Hon. Frank Neil and wife had been guests at the Sunny side last Friday and consequently did not have the pleasure of interviewing them.
The carpenters commenced in earnest Monday to build S. B. Holmes' home. They had to wait 'til the concrete hardened.
The plasterers among whom are S. E. and G. S. Vance and A. S. Brown of Ashland, are busy now plastering Von der Hellen's store and getting it ready for business. And the masons are rushing the work on Brown's store as fast as possible.

There is a constant squabble here over the saloon question. There seems to be a part of the council that are determined to have a saloon at all hazards and a part that are opposed to this move and one of them remarked that there was apparently considerable crookedness going on and for his part he was going to try to keep it straight. There is talk of using the referendum and letting the people say what they want.
There was a party phoned to one of the hotels for supper at 6:30 p. m. Sunday and when they came in their auto I was busy and did not have the pleasure of meeting them but one of them left a list of names on a paper napkin, and as I am known as a genuine pencil pusher I suppose it was intended for my benefit, but they gave no place of residence. The following is the list of names: Stella B. Fox, Mandy Watson, Ethel Writons and Henry Earston.

Red Faced Men smoking BIG CIGARS talking "HOT AIR" don't always live on air, hence our remarks on charges.
The clap-trap about private sale does not prove remunerative, except for some curios of a small nature. All sellers by private sale have to wait until auctions are over so as to know what to ask, and in the case of large supplies they often get left.

LIVED ON RAW EGGS
Mr. Richard's Experience With Different Diets. Peaches and Buttermilk for Three Years.

Cecil, Md.—Mr. George Richards, of this place, during the past 12 years, has probably tried more different diets than the average person would ever use in a lifetime.
What he has to say about his experiments, must therefore be highly interesting to anyone suffering from indigestion or stomach troubles of any kind.
He says: "For more than 12 years, I suffered with stomach troubles, and paid hundreds of dollars for doctor bills and medicines. I was also operated on for piles.
I lived on dried peaches and buttermilk for nearly three years. The only thing that would not give me pain was raw eggs. I was a physical wreck. I could not sleep, and was as near crazy as a man could well be.
I must say that after taking two 25-cent packages of Thedford's Black-Draught, it did me more good than all I ever spent for other medicines.
I have been working daily on the farm ever since, and I am as hard as iron." This purely vegetable remedy has been in successful use for more than 70 years. Try it. But be sure that it's "Thedford's."
