HEAVY SUPPLY:

port to thetrade:

The past week has seen the pear market go to the very bottom. There Whitney for $875. have been continued heavy offerings of California Bartletts and other deciduous fruits in all of the large eastern markets, in addition to which Colorado and New Mexico fruits commenced to arrive in Chicago, St. Louis and other middle western markets, were supplied to the limit all over? and the volume was restricted from day to day in the markets by withpresent season and were freely quoted at 51.25 f.o.b., and in some in- Rioting at Ebbw Vale today wast stances as low as $1.00. The tonpage, however, has reached its maximum volume, and the shipments will show up in less quantities in the markets from now on.

Below are quoted the low, high and average selling prices of California Colorado and New Mexico; fruits in the principal auction markets of the United States under dates of August 16, 17 and 18. The total number of cars disposed of in pital ship Angara, which was sunk each of these markets on the days by the Russians at Port Arthur is indicated are also shown.
