

SOCIETY

The social event of the week was the bridge luncheon Thursday afternoon given by Mrs. Edgar Hafer at her charming Sixth street home in honor of Mrs. Kent Thomas of Chicago, who is spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. Gage, at Gold Ray. The dining room was a bower of beauty, the floral decorations being masses of pink sweet peas and white veronica also carried out on the delicate hand-painted place cards. The hall and living rooms which are in rich tones of brown, were decorated with quantities of rare and early yellow chrysanthemums. After lunch three tables of bridge were played. The first prize, cut glass salt cups with silver salt spoons, was won by Mrs. Phil Hamill, the second prize, a tapestry picture frame, being won by Mrs. C. I. Hutchison, and the third, a brooch, by Mrs. Dunlop. The guest prize was a silver violet pin. The guests: Mesdames Thomas, Monrop, Piero, Rau, Hutchison, Carpenter, Stokes, Trapp, Hopkins and Dunlop.

An Ounce of Prevention Is Worth a Pound of Cure

A few dollars spent now in preventing decay of the TEETH is better than many dollars spent later in trying to save them when they begin to ache and cause you much trouble and annoyance. Now is the best time of the year to have your Dental Work done. Do not delay until winter when you will be forced to visit a dentist and also suffer with aching teeth and being forced to spend more money on them than if you have them attended to at once. Call on me for free examination and estimate. I use only the most expensive quality materials and all my work is guaranteed. Lady attendant.
