GREEK BUNCOES GREEK: FLEES

Chris Kall, erstwhile King of the Local Colony, Takes $700 and Disappears—Warrant Out for His Arrest.

There is a wailing and gnashing of teeth in local Greek town today following the disappearance of Chris Kall, erstwhile "king" of the local colony, with $700 of perfectly good Greek coin. Kall was the proprietor of the Louvre cafe and he is said to have skipped the country with a large sum of money. A warrant for his arrest has been issued and local Greeks are contributing generously to the fund with which to overtake him, bring him back and mete out justice.

Kall recently purchased the Louvre cafe and started in business. He borrowed considerable money with which to carry on the business. Friday he said he was going on a short trip and since then he has not been seen. His partner in the business says that $700 is missing.

Touched Live Wire; Argue. SACRAMENTO, Cal., Aug. 26.—Charles Coger, a carpenter working at the state fair grounds, touched a live wire today and was instantly killed.
