Never Try to Propose to a Girl on Her Birthday — By H. B. Martin

$6000 A YEAR FOR MRS. BORDEN

Wife of Condensed Milk King Given House and Furniture, Automobile and Ample Allowance During Separation From Husband.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 31.—Gail Borden, the condensed milk king, must pay his wife, Helen M. Borden, $6000 a year and give her possession of the furniture and mansion at Alhambra and an automobile pending an appeal to the supreme court of their divorce suit, according to the ruling of Superior Judge Houser. Their daughter, Ramona, 17, of her own choice, will remain with her father.

Judge Houser recently denied Mrs. Borden a divorce from her husband on the ground that a separation already had been agreed upon by the couple. When the case was brought into court and Gail Borden was asked why he left his home in 1909 he refused to answer, asserting that he did not wish to cast any shadows on his domestic affairs for the sake of his daughter.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that R. D. Hoke of Central Point, Oregon, has been duly appointed administrator of the estate of Eugene B. Hoke of Los Angeles county, California, and it is hereby requested that any creditors having claims against said estate shall present the same, with proper vouchers, to R. H. Lincoln, at No. 461 Garnett-Corey building, Medford, Oregon, within six months from the date of this notice, which date is August 17, 1911.

Medford, Ore., Aug. 9, 1911.—This is to certify that about November my daughter was taken with a severe attack of rheumatism which rendered her left arm useless, in fact it was so near paralyzed that she was not able to move her fingers, but knowing of some of Dr. Chow Young's marvelous cures of long standing cases of rheumatism, we decided to consult him, in which I am pleased to say made no mistake, as his remedies acted as he claimed they would and after the third treatment the rheumatic pain entirely left her and she has not had any symptoms of rheumatism since; besides her general health is much improved and I do not hesitate in saying I believe those afflicted with rheumatism or paralysis will do well to consult Dr. Chow Young, whose house is corner of Tenth and Front street, Medford, Oregon.
