TO CALL PRIMARY ELECTION IN ARIZONA. PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 2.—Governor Sloan has announced that on September 20 he would issue a proclamation designating October 24 as the date for the primary election of all candidates to be voted for at the state election December 12. This definitely settled the much discussed as to whether the first state election would be held under a direct primary or in the old fashioned convention.

Famous Singers to Appear at Natatorium Sunday September 10

Madame Bernard Begue.

Bernard Begue, Baritone.

Medford is to have another rare musical treat. Ferullo's band will appear at the Natatorium in the afternoon of Sept. 10th.

This band of fifty artists, as famous as the Sousa band, assisted by two singers, will give in Medford a program which will appeal alike to the musician and the music-loving, but untrained listener, containing as it does a rare combination of operatic, popular and classic selections which forever have and forever will be favorites with the musical public.

This is to be the program: 1.—Trio for piano, violin and 'cello—Music from Midsummer Night's dream, (Mendelssohn) G. Taillander Mrs. A. A. Eames, Wm. A. Eames.

2a.—Guitar Solo—"Silver Threads Among the Gold", (Banks) Wm. A. Eames.

b.—Duet for Violin and Guitar, "Serenade", (Metra) Mrs. and Mr. Eames.

3.—Soprano Solo, Shadow Song from "Dinora," (Meyerbeer) Mrs. Ed. Andrews.

4.—Violin Solo, "Air de Ballet," (De Beriot) Mrs. A. A. Eames.

5.—Piano Solo, "Saltarello," (Mills) Gerard Taillander.

6.—Cello Solo, (a) "Berceuse," (Gardard) (b) "Gavotte," Wm. A. Eames.

7.—Soprano Solo with Violin and 'Cello obligato, "Angels Serenade" (Braga) Mrs. Ed Andrews.

stands for thorough, serious work in musical art. It desires the attendance of students who are in earnest and desire high attainments. The courses are outlined not only for students who wish to fit themselves for music teaching, but for such who desire music as a part of their general education as well. For this reason beginners are welcome and are sure to be taught correctly, a fact which is too often overlooked in choosing a FIRST teacher. In short, the Medford Conservatory is established on the same basis as the best music schools of Europe and America, whose aim it is to make thoroughly educated, really competent and high minded musicians. Full and systematic courses in Piano, Voice, Violin, Viola, 'Cello. Supplementary courses in Harmony, Musical History, Instrumentation and other theoretical subjects. Also Band Instruments, Guitar, Mandolin.

Class and private instruction in FRENCH, GERMAN, SPANISH.

Prices as low as is consistent with first-class work and vary according to subject chosen and grade of advancement.
