

SOCIETY

Promptly at the appointed hour guests began to arrive on the beautiful lawn at the residence of Mrs. Osborne on South Oakdale avenue, Wednesday, and during the afternoon 60 or more gathered to enjoy the pleasures of a garden party. The lawn and vine-covered veranda were soon filled, and some resorted indoors, drawn thereto by the bewitching strains of the high school mandolin club, led by Professor Root, who entertained with their sweet music during the afternoon. There were also several readings of a high order, vocal numbers and piano duet, which afforded variety and entertainment for all. Delicious refreshments of oranges and pineapple sherbet, accompanied by various kinds of cake, served on the lawn, added to the comfort and enjoyment of the guests, and when the time of departure arrived each one was reluctant to leave and expressed themselves as extremely grateful to the hostess for so charmingly entertaining the Ladies' Aid and friends, and the occasion will not soon be forgotten by any who were present.

Mrs. E. M. Andrews was hostess last Sunday, entertaining the members of the Lee branch of the Andrews family, who are residents of the valley, and summer guests. Mrs. Wise, Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. Root's sister, who leaves for her home in Minnesota over the Canadian Pacific on Monday, has been the honor guest at many formal and informal gatherings during her stay here, and has made many friends. Tomorrow Mrs. J. M. Root gives a farewell dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Wise at her handsome residence on King's Highway.

A pupils' piano recital was given Wednesday afternoon at the residence studio of Mrs. Gore and Miss Gray, 144 Central avenue, South, which was participated in by the members of the summer class. Miss Mary Stevenson played "By Moonlight" (Bondei); Miss Mabel Gould a mazurka by Goldsmith and Miss Browning a waltz by Kinkue. Others present and taking part were: Earl York, Harold Fuller, Jeannette Patterson, Wilma Harrison, Mabel Edmeades, Mary Alice Foster, Margaret Holmes, Florence Johns, Beatrice Floyd, Charlotte Hay, Margaret Hoy, Marie Meyers, Fay Garnett and Ruth Smith.

The home of Mrs. O. E. Osborne, 512 Oakdale avenue, South, was thrown open Wednesday afternoon to the ladies of the M. E. church and their friends, who gave a most delightful garden party. About 60 ladies were present. Misses Eva Osborne, Marie Seely and Bernice Halcorn assisted in serving ices and cake and a pleasing musical program was rendered by Mrs. Van Scoyoc. Mrs. Bilton, Mrs. Philbrook, Mrs. Sites, Mrs. Walker and the mandolin club. Miss Carder and Miss Seely also gave recitations and a most delightful afternoon was enjoyed by all.

"The Havoc," the opening bill at the Medford theater, last night drew a good sized house and gave general satisfaction to local theatergoers. Because of the crowded condition of the social calendar and many having not returned as yet from the seaside and mountains, the seat sale was not so large as it would have been had the opening been delayed two weeks.

Mrs. E. N. Warner entertained the second time this week on Friday, inviting 16 ladies to spend the afternoon. A dainty two-course luncheon, consisting of fruit salad, wafers, ices, cake and sherbet, was served at small tables, the color scheme being pink. Miss Gray gave a program of piano selections and Misses Frances York and Ruth Warner assisted in serving the guests.

Mrs. B. M. Collins of Jacksonville entertained informally with a watermelon party last Tuesday evening in honor of her house guests, Misses Laura and Eva Couch, who arrived from Illinois recently. The participants were Mr. and Mrs. H. Luy, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ulrich, Misses Clara Elmer, Isabelle and Nellie Collins, Mrs. Claire Perrin of San Francisco, Clyde Shaw, E. Wilson, Donald Cameron, J. P. Wells, George H. Merritt and T. W. Dalton of Portland.

Mrs. Helen Gale is visiting friends at Coos Bay and is expected to arrive in Medford in the near future for an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. Colvig.

Professor S. B. Hall, who has been head of the science department of the local high school for the past two years, has been elected to a position in the agricultural department of the Los Angeles schools and has gone to that city to assume the duties of his new position. Mr. Hall has made many warm friends during his stay in Medford and his departure is noted with regret. While here he took an active interest in athletics and each year he turned out a champion football team.

That Mr. Adolph Knauer, a pianist who concertized two years ago with the Edith Adams Concert company and gave a delightful concert before Medford music lovers, will soon make Medford his home is a most interesting bit of news. Mr. Knauer has bought an orchard tract in the valley, but will open a music studio and devote himself to his musical professional work.

Mrs. E. N. Warner was hostess Tuesday afternoon to about 20 ladies, who brought sewing and spent the hours with social converse. Several impromptu musical selections were rendered and delicious ices and cakes served. The decorations were pink and white roses and sweet peas.

Miss Laura Page gave a slumber party Monday evening for a number of her young friends, which was greatly enjoyed. The guests were: Misses Frances and Lucile York, Annette Wakeman, Hazel Antle, Ruth Nye, Ruth and Esther Warren and Jean Budge.

Miss Bess Kentner gave a breakfast Friday morning for 16 young lady friends of the bride-elect, Miss Elizabeth Folger, which was followed by playing bridge and a linen shower. The dining room flowers were sava and those in the living room were roses.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wallace of Chicago arrived Friday evening for a visit with Mrs. Wallace's sister, Mrs. M. Purdin. They are on their way to southern California and are accompanied by Miss Edna Watross, a niece of both Mrs. Purdin and Mrs. Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Andrews gave a delightful dinner party Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wise of Minnesota. Covers were laid for eight. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Wise, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Andrews, Mrs. Lee and Mrs. J. M. Root.

Mrs. A. M. Carey has returned from a four months' trip east and is now at home to her many friends at her home on King's Highway. While away Mrs. Carey visited in Cleveland, O., and New York. Miss Evelyn Carey has also returned from a most enjoyable camping trip.

Miss Loraine Bilton very pleasantly entertained the Question club at her home Thursday evening. An outing to the Corlies ranch near the Bybee bridge was planned for Monday evening, when a watermelon "feed" and dancing will form the evening's entertainment.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Russell Folger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Folger, and Mr. Ira J. Dodge, Tuesday, September 12, at the residence of the bride's parents on Ross court.

Rev. A. A. Holmes, who has been in Portland during the illness of his wife, has returned. Mrs. Holmes, who was operated upon for appendicitis, will not be able to leave the hospital for a week or more, but is considered convalescent.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor E. Beno and son, Kenneth, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Thompson of Gold Hill on Sunday last. The occasion was the anniversary of Mr. Thompson's birth.

Mrs. T. E. Daniels gave a very pretty luncheon at her home on Siskiyou Heights Tuesday in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Monahan, who is paying her a visit. Covers were laid for nine.

DON'T BE UNREASONABLE.

If You Neglect the Care of the Scalp You Should Not Expect Beautiful Hair.

The hair is more exposed and hence more liable to accumulate dust and dirt than any other portion of the body.

In spite of this the hair receives, as a rule, the least attention and no real effort is made to keep it healthy.

If the dandruff germ is allowed to work unopposed and the scalp becomes crusted with dirt accumulations, one may expect the hair to die and fall out. There is no cause for surprise in this phenomenon; it is natural and happens in every instance where the care of the hair and scalp is overlooked.

The one sure remedy which prevents the loss of hair and permits a healthy, luxuriant growth is found in Newbro's Herpicide.

The dandruff germ cannot live on a head to which Herpicide is regularly applied. The germ dies. The hair ceases to fall. The terrible itching stops almost instantly.

That is what Newbro's Herpicide does.

One dollar size bottles are sold and guaranteed by all druggists.
