

JOYRIDE; JAIL; DOUBLE WEDDING

Rapid-Fire Courtship Ends—Youths Take Girls for Ride; Are Locked Up; Then Secure License and Get Married.

A brief but rapid fire courtship in which a joy ride, city jail and police court figured terminated Thursday evening when a double wedding occurred at which Dodge Clay became the wife of Ed Massey and Lillian Benson married Bert Noah.

The marriage was the outcome of a joy ride starting from the Nataritorium Monday evening about 5 o'clock in the afternoon and ending at the city jail the next day about noon.

A third couple—Miss Martin and Charles Harden—did not wed as a result of the ride, owing to the fact that Harden gave bail and disappeared.

$30,000 ADDITION FOR HOTEL OREGON AT ASHLAND

Work on an excavation for a $30,000 addition to the Hotel Oregon will start this week, the contract having been let with the understanding that work shall start at once.

The proposed addition will occupy the lot 45x90 feet in size, at the rear of the hotel. The excavating will bring the first floor of the new wing on a level with Oak street.

In the basement of the new wing and with an entrance on Oak street as well as from the hotel lobby, will be the dining room. There will also be a cold storage plant.

The front of the wing on Oak street will be faced with white tile. The body of the building will be constructed either of brick or of reinforced concrete.

DIED.

RUMMEL.—In this city at the home of his son, September 7, 1911, William Alfred Rummel, aged 55 years, of Bright's disease. Interment September 8 in Dunkard cemetery at Talent.

Mr. Rummel leaves nine children: Loretta Cutlerell, James Rummel, Mrs. Mary Archer and Dave Rummel of Medford; William Rummel of Grants Pass, Mrs. Kate Williams of Orlando, Cal.; Mrs. Clara De Vay of Montague, Cal.; John Rummel of Chico, and Mrs. Tillie Clemens of Holland, Ore.

Mr. Rummel was born in Maryland eighty-five years ago. For thirty-six years he had been a resident of Jackson county and for twenty-six years a settler on Antelope creek where he took up a homestead. He was one of the fast-disappearing pioneers of the early mining days.

AYLWARD.—At her home at Phoenix, September 7, 1911, Mrs. Lydia U. Aylward of tuberculosis.

Mrs. Aylward, formerly Miss Lydia Sanders, was born in Utah in 1864. She married James E. Aylward and came to this city recently.

Mrs. Wright Buried.

Amy Wright, aged 76 years, and an old settler in the valley, was buried at Phoenix yesterday. Mrs. Wright died September 2. She was born in Pennsylvania. Her husband died at Phoenix some years ago.

FUNERAL OF REFEREE EDDIE SMITH HELD

OAKLAND, Cal., Sept. 8.—The funeral of Eddie Smith, well known sporting writer and referee, who died at Providence hospital here after an extended illness, was held today from the lodge rooms of the Oakland lodge of Elks. The services were conducted by William H. L. Hynes, exalted ruler of the lodge and were open to the public.

An immense throng followed the cortege to the grave. Robert M. Fitzgerald, a close friend of Smith and for many years his associate as president of the Reliance Athletic Club, delivered the funeral address.

FISHWAY WILL BE REPAIRED

Sandry Returns From Fish Lake and Will Ask Company to Make Certain Changes in the Passage Over the Dam.

Chief Deputy Fish and Game Warden Sam L. Sandry returned Thursday evening from Fish Lake and will make several recommendations to the company regarding changes to be made in the fishway over the dam.

At present the spillway over the dam empties at the foot of the fishway and prevents fish from getting over the dam. By extending the fishway a few feet further down stream and to one side, the fault will be corrected.

The Rogue River Canal company has signified its intention of making the changes at once.

MINNESOTA OUT FOR LA FOLLETTE

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 8.—Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin stands today the choice of Minnesota progressive republicans for the next president.

At a banquet here, attended by more than 300 progressives, resolutions were adopted naming LaFollette as the logical nominee of the republican party for president and declaring that the Wisconsin senator's ability, patriotism and record as a lawmaker and executive make him the leader of the progressive movement in the United States.

BANK HOLDUP A FIZZLE. LAUREL, Md., Sept. 8.—Two men attempted to hold up the National bank here today. Frustrated in their plan, they shot up the bank and fled. They got no plunder.

GOOD ROADS MEET ASHLAND TONIGHT

Many Local Business Men Will Attend Meeting in Neighboring City to Discuss Matter of Building Good Roads in County.

Some 25 or 30 business men will visit Ashland this evening for the purpose of attending the good roads meeting to be held in that city by the members of the Ashland Commercial club. Invitations have been sent throughout the county by the Ashland club and Medford has accepted hers with a vim.

It is understood that the greatest opposition to the proposed bond issue comes from those who do not understand the matter. For this purpose a broad educational campaign is to be undertaken and for this purpose the meeting was called by the Ashland club.

COLVIG APPOINTS ROAD COMMITTEE

President Colvig of the commercial club yesterday afternoon appointed the members of the road bond issue committee as follows: William M. Colvig, J. E. Reddy, Ed Andrews, John D. Howell, S. A. Nye, Fred N. Cummings and C. R. Ray. These men will have to do the expending of the $200 campaign fund voted by the club and with taking any other action that may further the movement.

JOHN BERG DEFEATS WRESTLER GEORGE LURICK

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 8.—John Berg today is acclaimed the northwest champion wrestler in the midweight division as a result of his victory over George Lurick, the husky Russian grappler. Berg took Lurick down the line for two straight falls. The first fall occurred after twenty-eight minutes of hard work and the second required fourteen minutes.

SEEKING CLEW TO MURDERER

Motive for Slaughter of Mrs. Daisy Wehrman and Son Same as That in Two Other Murders—Man With Light Hair Suspected.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 8.—With the motive for the murder of Mrs. Daisy Wehrman and her 4-year-old son Harold, near Scappoose, found to be the same as that which impelled the atrocious murder of little Barbara Holtzman, the Hill and Cobble tragedies, the sheriffs of four Oregon counties and their assistants are bending every effort to locate the murderer. Their only clue thus far is a strand of light colored hair clutched in the hand of the dead woman.

Neighbors have informed the officers that a stranger with light hair was seen in the vicinity Thursday. He wore a Prince Albert coat and carried a small bundle. Tuesday the same man inquired the way to Salem. He wore a new pair of working shoes at this time, similar to ones stolen from the Wehrman home.

Nothing of value was taken from the house with the exception of a revolver.

DRESSING YOUR HAIR FOR THE EVENING

(From Style and Fashion Magazine) "Frequently, after the day's work or pleasure, there is little time to dress the hair for the evening. For occasions like this it is well to be prepared with the ever-ready and convenient dry shampoo.

"A most excellent shampoo is made by mixing four ounces of ether with four ounces of orris root. Keep some of this in an old talcum box with sifter top, so that you can sprinkle it thinly and evenly through the hair. Brush the hair thoroughly and a clean scalp and beautiful lustrous hair can be achieved in less than twenty minutes.

"Nothing is so good as this mixture to quickly remove the day's dust. It should be remembered, too, that much water is not good for the hair and frequent washing takes out the life and color."
