

SOCIETY

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Russell Folger and Mr. Ira J. Dodge, which is to be solemnized Tuesday evening, September 12, at the home of the bride-elect's parents on Ross Court promises to be the social event of the coming week. Both young people are very popular in a wide circle of friends and the wedding, while marked by a quiet simplicity will be perfectly appointed in every detail. The invitational list is a long one and includes many friends of the two interested families from the east and middle west.

A dinner party at the Nash grill last evening given by the bride-elect's sister, Miss Folger for the bridal party was one of the pleasant affairs of the week. A color-scheme of green and yellow was carried out by the use of fern and gorgeous yellow wild sunflowers. Covers were laid for ten, the guests being Mrs. Denny, of Pennsylvania, sister of Mr. Dodge, Miss Folger, Miss Johnston, Miss Elizabeth Folger, Miss Joy Folger, Miss Ida Lee Kentner, Mr. Howard Dudley, Mr. Lee Root, Mr. Lloyd Houston, Mr. Harry Houston and Mr. Ira Dodge.

Grace Josephine Brown. The program, consisting solely of American and English songs, will include a group of Indian songs to be given in costume.

The C. W. B. M. of the Christian church met in the church on Wednesday afternoon. The principal business enacted was the election of officers for the ensuing year. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Quilley; vice-president, Mrs. Burgess; secretary, Mrs. Seely, re-elected; treasurer, Mrs. Denman, re-elected. The secretary and treasurer have served in their respective capacities for the past year. A vote of thanks was tendered to the retiring president, Mrs. Hinman, who leaves soon for her former home in Cedar Rapids, Ia., an also to Miss Smaulpaesen, a worthy member, who goes to Ontario, Cal. The next meeting of the society will be held at the church.

Mayor and Mrs. W. H. Canon have returned from their summer outing and are at home to their friends on Genesee street.

Mrs. C. L. Corwin of Astoria has arrived for a visit with her sons, Homer and Sterling Rothermel.

Charles Rogers of Spokane, who has been visiting Medford friends, returned to his home Tuesday.

Mrs. J. F. Hutchason has gone to Portland for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Fred Coter.

Mrs. Porter Neff and Mrs. Bracknord left Sunday for San Francisco.

The recently organized Order of Moose entertained the ladies Thursday evening in their new hall on West Main street. The colors of the order, red and white, and quantities of brilliantly colored chrysanthemums, were used in decorations. A banquet was served in the dining hall and a program by local talent, followed by dancing, with music by the Eames trio. The order is arranging for a monster minstrel show to be put on in the near future.

Misses Jeannette Osgood and Phoebe Hance, two of Medford's most popular young ladies, were the charming hostesses Tuesday afternoon to about 25 of their friends at the home of the former on West Eleventh street. The hours were spent playing bridge and Mrs. Wentz, having the highest score, was presented with a beautiful copy of Gene Stratton-Porter's recent novel, "The Harvester." Dainty refreshments were served.

The Ladies' Missionary society of the Presbyterian church held a pleasant session Tuesday afternoon at the country home of Mrs. Walter Frazer Brown, making the trip by automobile. Papers were read by Mrs. Tee, Mrs. English, Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. Watt.

Among the young people leaving for college are Miss Mildred Gerig, who goes to Belmont college, Nashville, Tenn., and her brother, Frank, who will enter the University of Arkansas. They left Thursday evening for the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoy informally entertained with an evening of music Wednesday at their home on Rose avenue. Mr. I. I. Petty a recent addition to Medford musical circles, sang in finished style the baritone arias from "Elijah" and "Messiah."

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Morley of Aberdeen, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Morley and two children of Saginaw, Mich., and Mr. Paul Morley of Saginaw, Mich., arrived Sunday morning for a visit at the home of Mrs. C. H. Glaise.

Miss Flora Gray, who has returned from several months' study with Charles Dyerke, of Portland, formerly of Berlin, Germany, has opened a piano studio in the St. Mark's building.

The Pythian Sisters of Talisman Temple, No. 40, will open their hall for the season's work on September 20. A full attendance of officers and members is desired.

Mrs. Mary Peter a popular primary teacher, and a sister of Attorney Gus Newbury, with her two daughters, Mary and Ruth, have moved from Jacksonville to Medford.

A reception was held last evening at the Catholic church in honor of Father O'Farrell, who has been appointed the successor of Father Van Clarenbeck.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Keene, who are making an extended stay at Coronado, are enjoying the delightful climate, and Mrs. Keene is rapidly regaining her health.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Beveridge are home from a summer spent in Portland.

MISS NOBODY FROM STARLAND

Great Musical Comedy Coming to the Medford Theater on Sept. 15—Olive Vail Stars in Title Roll—Many Pretty Show Girls.

Mort H. Singer announces himself as merely the producer of "Miss Nobody from Starland," the stupendous musical comedy production that appears at Medford opera house on Tuesday, September 15th. But it appears that the idea of the title character and some of the more important incidents of the plot are the result of his suggestions to the authors. The "Miss Nobody" of the chorus, who is portrayed in the play, it seems formerly adorned the swaying front row at the Princess theatre, Chicago, where her social and financial exploits caused no end of excitement. Mr. Singer met the young woman en route to New York, not long after she had left his employ and her recital of her affluence and happiness brought to her distinction of being selected as the model that was followed in the composition of "Miss Nobody from Starland."

"Miss Nobody from Starland" is the joint work of Adams, Hough and Howard and Mitchell who are responsible for nearly all of Mr. Mort H. Singer's successes. The book and lyrics are particularly bright and crisp while the musical selections are said to be gems of melody.

Olive Vail's title role in Mort H. Singer's big musical comedy production "Miss Nobody from Starland" will be that of "Miss Nobody" of the chorus who makes people believe she really is somebody when she is off the stage and away from the footlights. She is a shy little enchantress who has all sorts of cunning schemes on foot for her own aggrandizement. She has beauty and a manner that makes all the men fall in love with her to such an extent that she uses them as unwitting agents to aid her in carrying out her little plots. One of these is an undertaking with her brother to smuggle a few diamonds across the ocean into the United States. The brings the diamonds across the Atlantic on the liner Lusitania and so cleverly does she entrance those around her that she even has as allies, detectives of the customs department who have been put on trail of diamond smugglers. Everybody wants to marry her and on the Atlantic voyage she annexes several 'papas' and 'brothers' who do not discover the entanglements into which they have been put, until the last curtain falls on a stage door scene at the Medford theater where "Miss Nobody from Starland" will be seen on Friday, September 15th. Seats on sale at Haskins' Monday morning.
