Notice to Bathers. The Nat management wish to announce that owing to the condition of the weather and the great expense of heating the water, which is too cold for bathing until heated, the plunge will be open for business every Saturday and Sunday until further notice. Fresh water will be put the plunge every Friday night and heated for these two days.

MOW MANY WOMEN DESTROY THEIR HAIR (From the London aSturday Review.) One of the best known hairdressers in London—much patronized by royalty—has the following to say: "Frequent washing of the head with soap and water or prepared shampoos make the hair brittle and causes it to lose its color and split at the ends.

Any person desiring abundant lustrous hair should use a dry shampoo frequently. Mix four ounces of orris root with four ounces of therox. Sprinkle a tablespoonful of this mixture evenly upon the head; then brush the powder thoroughly through the hair.

"Therox and orris root keep the hair light and fluffy, and beautifully lustrous—it heightens, but does not change the natural color of the hair. Therox is the only thing I know that will produce a growth of hair."

PROTECT LAND AGAINST FIRE

Make a Contract With State Game Warden, Making Your Property Game Preserve and All Hunters Will Be Barred.

There is a law in the State of Oregon which may be made to serve a wonderfully valuable purpose. If its provisions were more widely known. The recent agitation requesting the governor to suspend the hunting season, to the end that the damage from forest fires might be minimized, calls attention to the above mentioned provision. It is one of the privileges of the State Game Warden to make private reservations. When once this is done, it is unlawful for any one to hunt game birds and game animals on the land so set aside.

An impression has prevailed that private owners would suffer some inconvenience, were they to take advantage of this act. On the contrary, there is no expense involved, on the part of the owner, nor is the land withdrawn from any useful purpose. It is merely contracted between the owner and the State Game Warden that the land described shall be regarded as a private reserve, upon which no hunting, either by outsiders or the owners himself, shall be lawful. The hunting and killing of varmints however, can be carried on by special permit from the warden in charge. The owner merely agrees to act in the capacity of Deputy Game Warden for that particular piece of property, submitting such evidence as he bathed to the proper authorities.

There are millions of acres of timber land in the state that could be withdrawn under contract with the State Game Warden, as well as hundreds and perhaps thousands of other large tracts. Under this law, the danger from forest fire could be almost entirely eliminated, so far as its origin is due to careless hunters. This law is not only a protection against forest fire, but can be made to serve the farmer a useful purpose by making it unlawful for hunters to trespass on their land, damaging their grain and killing their stock besides making the game protection laws of the state of some consequence.

HER HAIR GREW

That's Why a Thankful Woman Recommends Parisian Sage.

Charles Strang will sell you a fifty cent bottle of PARISIAN SAGE and guarantee it to banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp, or money back. It's a delightful hair dressing that makes hair lustrous and fascinating.

"In the spring I was recovering from a severe case of erysipelas, which left me virtually bald on the front of my head and next to my ears. The hair kept coming out rapidly and anything I used stopped my getting entirely bald, until I used two bottles of PARISIAN SAGE. This tonic made my hair start to grow in and, in fact, grew me a good fair amount of hair, and it has entirely stopped my hair falling out.

It is with pleasure that I give a public recommendation to PARISIAN SAGE, which I know is a wonder." Mrs. Ella Gilchrist, W. Pitt St., Bedford, Pa.
