

PIONEERS HAVE SPLENDID MEET

Over 250 Members of Pioneer Families Meet at Ashland in Annual Reunion—Nothing Was Lacking to Make Meeting a Great Success.

Nothing was lacking to make the annual reunion of the southern Oregon pioneers and native sons and daughters which was recently held at Ashland a success, says the Tidings. About 250 gathered in this city, where they met a war reception. Addresses in the morning, followed by a delicious dinner that taxed the appetites even of the old settlers, and reminiscences in the afternoon made the day complete.

G. W. Dunn presided at the exercises in the morning and Rev. H. J. Van Fossen pronounced the invocation. This was followed by an instrumental solo by Miss Norma Minkler. Miss Minkler was peculiarly qualified for this office, not only because of her musical ability but because she enjoys the distinction of being great-granddaughter of William Hoffman, one of the earliest pioneers. She is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Vining and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Minkler.

Rev. Mr. Van Fossen read "Benedict Arnold," a masterpiece which was particularly adapted to the occasion, and was followed by Rev. Robert McLean of Grants Pass, the orator of the day. In addition to being one of the oldest active ministers in Southern Oregon, Mr. McLean is an able orator, as he demonstrated Tuesday. He gave a fascinating address, which was greatly enjoyed and highly complimented.

The chairman then read some interesting Indian War reminiscences by A. G. Rockfellow. The latter occupied a place on the platform during the reading of these reminiscences, sitting in an historic old chair that was a century old. Miss Nellie Gilbert gave a vocal solo accompanied by Miss Lottie Crews. After this all adjourned from the Tabernacle to the G. A. R. Hall, where a sumptuous dinner was served. The ladies who contributed the dishes were the kind that "know how" and everything was done to a turn. The dinner included chicken pies with all the trimmings and side dishes, topped off with a variety of fruits, watermelons, mineral waters, cake and ice cream.

The hall was beautifully decorated. The sides of the room were banked with flowers and wheat and corn were twined about the pillars.

A feature of the afternoon session was the reading of memorials by F. D. Wagner. Those who have passed away during the past year are as follows:

Sarah Ann Chapman, who died June 25, 1911, aged 65.

Charles K. Klum, who died April 25, 1911.

John P. Walker, who died February 16, 1911.

Jacob Thompson, who died February 5, 1911.

America E. Thompson, who died November 26, 1910.

E. E. Gore, who died November 21, 1910, aged 86 years.

Daniel P. Brittain, who died March 11, 1910.

The afternoon session was held in G. A. R. hall. Following the reading of the memorials, W. J. Dean of Talent read Mr. Rockfellow's poem entitled "The Trail." The remainder of the afternoon was then devoted to reminiscencing led by E. K. Anderson.

EFFORT TO FIND JEFFRIES IN ALASKA A FAILURE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 12.—With his mother far from being out of danger, all efforts to locate Jas. J. Jeffries, former champion heavyweight pugilist who with his brother is hunting somewhere in the Kenaim mountains in Alaska, have failed. Advice received from Seward today state that Fred Laubner, the scout sent out to notify the Jeffries brothers of their mother's illness, has abandoned the search. It is feared that the failure to find her sons may have a bad effect on Mrs. Jeffries.

Newspaper Tells Of His Arrival There—New York Police Are Notified and Absconding King of Local Greeks May Be Apprehended

Through a newspaper received by a local Greek from New York it is believed that Chris Kall, erstwhile "king" of the Greeks in Medford who skipped out recently with a goodly amount of Greek coin, has been located in Gotham. The newspaper mentions Kall as a recent arrival from the West.

Local authorities have communicated with the New York police department and it may be that Kall will be found and held. It is said that the man is wanted in a number of Western cities for alleged sharp practice and petty swindling.

HIS TONY NAME WAS NO GOOD

R. W. Swelyn Tait in spite of his name, is indurance vile. He was judged Monday afternoon charged with giving checks which are no good. Doc Ryan is the party who was stung.

Mr. R. W.—etc.—Tait is second cook in a local restaurant. On August 4 he is said to have passed two checks which were returned as valueless. One was for $5 and the other for $3. Doc Ryan soon discovered that the paper was worthless and he called on Tait to make good. Tait has since failed to do so and yesterday grew sarcastic over it. So he was locked up.

The case will be heard this afternoon in the Justice court.

NOISELESS GREETINGS FOR PRESIDENT TAFT

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 12.—President Taft's welcome to Portland will be "hearty, but duly decorous," according to members of the committee having his entertainment in charge here.

There will be no "rahs-rahs, with tigers" nor shrieking sirens, and 4th of July racket, such as greeted Col. Roosevelt, announced the committee. Taft will arrive here October 11, and it is by telegraphic request that the muffler is to be put on all noise-making devices.

About the only break in the proposed quietude, apparently, will be the president's speech at the armory.

DIVIDE ALASKA IN TERRITORIES

Congressman Sulzer Would Give Country Home Rule—Denounces Conservation and Government Leasing of Coal Lands.

SEATTLE, Wn., Sept. 12.—Congressman William Sulzer, chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, who has just returned from Alaska, at a banquet at the Arctic Club spoke in favor of home rule for Alaska and a government owned railroad there. He declared against the leasing system in the following language.

"I do not want to see government ownership for coal lands, but I would a hundred times rather have government ownership than have the leasing system fastened on us."

Sulzer's plans for home government, undertakes a division of Alaska into three territories, south eastern, south western and northern Alaska, each of which, owing to geographical conditions, has nothing in common with the others. He predicted that in the next 50 years, the beef supply for the United States, Canada and Mexico would come from south western Alaska.

Speaking for the majority in the house Sulzer promised to give Alaska fair treatment. He denounced the Controller Bay episode as "the most dastardly attack ever made on a president." He rebuked Gifford Pinchot and other conservationists who "started a rumpus" about a purported monopoly by 11,100 locators who sought to secure 30,000 acres. Sulzer claims that even if they got this, it would be but a drop in the bucket, as "there are 21,000,000 acres of coal bearing area in the Bering River and Mantanuska districts."
