

DISCRIMINATION AGAINST UNIONS

Letter From J. P. O'Brien of Harriman System To Kruttschnitt Shows Non-Unionists Get Increased Pay.

PORTLAND, Sept. 14.—Backed by a letter which their claim was written by J. P. O'Brien, head of the Harriman system in the Northwest, to Julius Kruttschnitt, general manager of the Harriman lines, leaders of organized labor today came out with the flat-footed charge that the Harriman system does discriminate against its union employees, and has been discriminating for months. The letter was dated April 8, 1911, and was written partly in code. As translated it read as follows: "Messrs. Mohler and Bancroft are agreeable for advances for operators, who do not belong to labor organizations and have arranged same on O. W. R. & N. as of March first. Will advise further in regard to Southern Pacific lines in Oregon." Copies of the letter were sent to W. H. Bancroft at Salt Lake and to A. L. Mohler at Omaha.

THE HAGUE.—World-wide warfare on Intemperance is the object of the 14th international congress on alcoholism, opened here today. President Taft named 12 delegates from the United States.

CINCINNATI.—An accident fund and pension system for brewery workers will be advanced by the joint executive committee of the International Brewery Workers, meeting here today.

KANSAS CITY.—To fight the formation of a national bread trust, employing non-union labor, the International Bakers' Union, in convention here, today called for co-operation of all unionists.

CALGARY, Alberta.—Reciprocity, immigration laws, the eight hour bill, the Gompers contempt case and the McNamara defense are among the important matters today before the traces and labor congress.

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK.—National Park superintendent's, government officials and railroad men opened a season here today which is expected to extend the usefulness of Uncle Sam's playground.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Bathers and fish alike took to the shore at Moss Beach when a school of 100 whales came along. Picnickers gathered all the fish they could carry without hook and line.

NEW YORK.—A policeman ran for a doctor to attend Charles Cobb, who broke his leg by falling from a street car. When the doctor arrived the leg was mended with nails and glue. It was wood.

HENDERSONVILLE, N. C.—The mutilated body of Myrtle Hawkins 17, was found today in Lake Oseola. An autopsy showed that the girl had been killed before the body was thrown into the lake.

RICHMOND, Ind.—The Wayne County Medical Society has adopted a resolution asking the public to abstain from handshaking as much as possible, declaring that means of salutation conveys germs.

HEMPSTEAD, R. I.—Planning to take up the dangerous sport which brought death to her husband, Mrs. Ralph Johnstone, widow of the daring birdman who held the record for altitude in an aeroplane, has begun taking lessons and will soon appear as a professional aviator.

JOLIET, Ill.—Olaf Eekstrom was the first victim of the state law prohibiting the drinking from a "life saver" on trains. He passed a bottle to a friend and was arrested.

NEW ORLEANS.—Miss Elbe Pons, 17, paid $20 to a strange man for marrying her several weeks ago in order that she might not be sent to an asylum. Learning of her marriage, the girl's father attempted suicide. It was through his act that the wedding became known.

VANCOUVER, Wn.—When Rev. C. R. G. Poole was introduced to a "Mrs. Smith," he chatted with her for half an hour not knowing that she was in reality his sister, Mrs. Ernest Rice, of New Westminster, B. C. They had not seen each other for 25 years.

HERE TO INSPECT POWER PROPERTIES

Officials of Company Which Purchased Ray Power Properties To Tour Valley—Will Visit New Plant At Prospect.

For the purpose of making a complete tour of the valley and visit all of the properties now owned by their company, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Churchhill, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Walthers and Alex J. Roseborough have arrived in Medford. The men are all officials of the Siskiyou Electric Power & Light Co., which recently took over the Ray power properties in this valley. The officials accompanied by their wives will visit the new plant at Prospect and will also tour the entire Rogue River valley country. While they are making an inspection tour they will in all probability look into the matter of entering their lines and decide upon future development work. Mr. and Mrs. Walthers will remain permanently in Medford. Mr. Walthers succeeds Dr. C. R. Ray as general manager of the local company.

NEW YORK.—Because he insisted on praying for the "wicked rich" in front of the brownstone Fifth Avenue palaces, John Palastok is under arrest here today.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—J. C. C. Russell, who was the prohibitionist candidate for mayor in 1902, was fined here for drunkenness. Russell said he was "out of politics now."

SAN FRANCISCO.—"What's in a name?" is only a mythical question, according to Edward Fullalove. He says his wife, Bessie, was just the opposite of what the name implies. Today he has a divorce decree.

SAN FRANCISCO.—A whale saved the German steamer Salatais from a wreck off Pigeon Point. Slowing down the engines upon hitting the whale allowed the steamer Lansing to cross in the fog just a few feet ahead of her.

THE TRUE SECRET OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR

(Amy Lester in World Magazine.) A famous French actress—well known in America—recently stated in an interview: "Nearly every woman knows the excellent results that follow dry shampooing, but too many depend upon orris root alone to keep the hair and scalp in good condition. Orris root will not grow hair. "The best dry shampoo I know is made by mixing four ounces of powdered orris root and four ounces of therox. Sprinkle a little of this mixture upon the head and brush it thoroughly through the hair. The true secret of a successful dry shampoo is to distribute the orris root and therox through the hair evenly; use a sifter top can if you have it. Then don't spare the brush. "This treatment keeps the hair light, fluffy and lustrous, while too much moisture on the hair and the alkali in most soaps tend to make the hair dull in color."

GOLD HILL HAS A BUILDING BOOM

Gold Hill is experiencing a mild residence-building boom, says the News. Having but recently completed one cottage in the Dekum addition Dr. Kelsey has a second five-room structure well along toward completion. These houses are the first of a number which he proposes to erect for rent purposes. F. W. Dodge began laying the foundation this week for a neat home-ness on his lots in the same part of town. C. D. Steinhoff has ground cleared and material ready for a model modern bungalow on his lots adjoining the Trux residence on the north side. Lynn W. Smith has the foundation and floor and floor laid for a cottage in the bungalow style on lots in Chavener Park, overlooking the river at the east end of Main street. C. A. Peterson recently completed one of the prettiest residences in the city on the north side, and Grant Harrison has added a neat cottage to the row of attractive homes at the east end of south Main street. Others are contemplating the building of homes.

LOST BARCLAY LODGE FOUND IN NEVADA

RENO, Nevada, Sept. 12.—Advice today from Franktown tell of great excitement there over the discovery of the long lost Barclay lode, which possesses almost pure gold and silver. For many years the location of the hidden treasure has been kept secret by the Barclay heirs, but prospectors in the employ of C. O. W. S. Proakey of Reno, John B. Cassehey of San Francisco and Richard Welling of New York, say they have found it.

OKLAHOMA CITY.—The hearing of the investigation into freight rates on livestock ordered by the Interstate commerce commission began here today.

JOLA, Kan.—Edward H. Funston, former congressman and father of General Frederick Funston, is dead here today. He was 75 years of age and for twelve years was a member of the lower house of congress.

CANNOT CAPITALIZE RELIGIOUS REVIVALS

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 13.—The state charter board today refused to grant a charter to the "Billy Sunday Corporation" of Wichita. The applicants proposed to organize with a capital of $10,000 and finance Sunday in a series of revival meetings. The incorporators were to profit from the contributions. The board held this was not a religious corporation.
