WOODVILLE ITEMS.

Mrs. H. C. Kentner of Medford, was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Streets last week. Miss Marie Hillis returned last Monday from a week's visit at Grants Pass and a tour of the Rogue River valley. Charles Hatch and family returned to Woodville last week after a ten month's visit in California. A big delegation of Woodville people have gone to the haywards for a few weeks. Among those who left Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. John Owens, Mrs. Cohrell, Mrs. Hew and children, Mrs. Hershey and family and Mrs. Wulf. Mr. Owens returned on Friday and states that pickers are very plentiful as well as the hops and the work will not last as long this year. J. W. Jacobs was in Medford on business last Thursday. School opened in Woodville last Tuesday with Mr. Ralph Main as principal, Miss Molnes has 5th and 6th grades, Miss Nash 3rd and 4th grades and Miss Williams 1st and 2nd grades. The school house is now in good order and all the rooms are finished, so that we have as fine a school building as any town of our size in the state and we feel sure that the school will be well conducted this year. Sam Mathias was a Grants Pass visitor last Friday. A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Rosser, Mr. and Mrs. George Land and son Ralph, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jacobs and sons, camped up May's creek on the Streets and Bagley ranch a few days last week. They report a fine time. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hair spent Sunday in Grants Pass returning to Woodville on Monday. Mrs. Charles Seaman spent a few days last week in Medford visiting her daughters, Mrs. Lauce and Mrs. Duffield. The G. A. R. encampment is in session in the park this week. A pleasant feature of Tuesday's program was the presentation of the flag to the school by the old soldiers and ladies. C. Hall of Bronsboro, is visiting his son, Webb Hall, this week. Miss Bernice Smith and her friend Miss Botwright, left for Portland last Saturday. The young ladies will both attend high school. Mrs. Kneeland was given a little "surprise" by the members of the Ladies' Aid on last Thursday. It was regular "Aid" day and as the meeting was to be at the home of Mrs. Kneeland the ladies took along rich ice cream and cakes and had a pleasant afternoon in "Grandma's" honor. Mrs. H. C. Kentner and Mrs. F. W. Streets of Medford, were among the invited guests. Mrs. Dennis McCoy passed away on Monday morning at the hotel at Woodville, after several months of suffering. Mr. McCoy had been in the confectionary store here for about one year but his health had been poor most of that time and several weeks ago he was hit by a S. P. train at the depot here and has failed rapidly since that accident. The body was taken to Gold Hill for burial.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Sanderson, who have been visiting their brother, C. S. Sanderson of this city, left for their home in New York Wednesday evening, going by way of Portland and Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. D. Purkeyville, who have been at Cottage Grove for some time, have returned to Central Point to spend the winter. E. N. Weisenberger and family of Spring Valley, Ills., have come to Central Point to make their home. Mr. Weisenberger will be the foreman in the Trovillo lumber yards here. Mr. and Mrs. Bell, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Shields, have returned to their home in California. J. W. Myers, Jack Alken, Prof. O'Gara left Thursday morning for Prosser on a business trip. Mr. Jensen of the Jacobson-Bade Co., left for Portland Thursday evening to visit his family. Mrs. Steelhauser spent Thursday with relatives and friends in Grants Pass. Miss Irene Wilson made a business trip to Gold Hill and Ashland Thursday. Mrs. W. J. Harry and son, Leslie, left Thursday for their new home in Chico, California. The Harry family leave many friends in Central Point who regret the departure, but wish them success in their new home. The Ladies Aid of the M. E. church spent a very delightful afternoon with Mrs. Nathanay at her home Wednesday afternoon. The ladies who entertained with Mrs. Nathanay were Mesdames Smith, Neal, Pankoy, Slendil refreshments were served to a large number present, consisting of sandwiches, pressed chicken, salads, several kinds of cake and cocoa. J. S. Barnett, M. Elwood, N. Jerry, Mr. Sturtevant spent Thursday morning in Medford. T. M. Jones went to Ashland Thursday afternoon to attend the Ashland council of the Knights and Ladies of Security which met Thursday night. The grand officers of the council were entertained by the Ashland council, that body having extended an invitation to the Central Point council to meet with them and the grand officers.

ORDINANCE NO. 573.

An ordinance prohibiting the discharge or firing of fireworks and other pyrotechnic displays, and to limit their sale and storage. The City of Medford doth ordain as follows: Section 1. The discharge, firing or use of all fireworks, rockets, torpedoes, Roman candles, or other fireworks of substance designed and intended for pyrotechnic display, and of all pistols, cane cannons, or other devices using blank cartridges or caps containing horats of potash mixture, is hereby prohibited. Provided, That the mayor or the council may order the public display of fireworks by property qualified individuals under the direct supervision of experts in the handling of fireworks. Provided also that such display or displays shall be of such character and no discharge or firing as in the opinion of the chief of the fire department, shall not be hazardous to surrounding property or endanger any person or persons. Section 2. The sale of fireworks at retail is prohibited. Section 3. The storage or sale of fireworks at wholesale is prohibited, except by permit from the mayor, issued for a period of one year. Application for permit must be filed with the chief of the fire department at least thirty days previous to the issuing of the permit, and must give detailed description of the proposed storage and storage place, and of the structural conditions and occupancies of the building. Section 4. Permits may be issued only after an inspection of the premises by the chief of the fire department or his authorized agent, who shall file with the mayor and fire department a certificate of approval and reasons therefor. Section 5. Any person or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Fifty Dollars ($50.00) at the discretion of the mayor, or have the fireworks or other combustibles exposed for sale or held in stock in violation of this ordinance. Section 6. The chief of the fire department shall direct such fire appliances as in his judgment may be necessary for the protection, and he shall see that two or more persons are instructed in their use, and as to the best means of getting fire alarms to the fire department.

RESOLUTION.

Be it resolved by the city council of the City of Medford, Oregon: That it is the intention of the council to cause the alley running through block 44 from 6th street to Grape street in said city to be improved by paving the same for a width of twenty feet with asphalt pavement. The council will meet at the council chamber in the city hall in said city on the 3rd day of October, 1911, at 7:30 p. m., at which time all protests against the making of said improvement and the assessing of the cost thereof, as aforesaid, will be heard.
