JUDICIAL CONTEMPT FOR THE PEOPLE

FOR the past ten or fifteen years at least the supreme court of Ohio has been trying to acquire a reputation equal to that of the supreme court of Pennsylvania as a faithful servant of monopolistic corporations. When Attorney-General Monnett started a number of suits against the Standard Oil company and similar monopolies, he Clark & Henery Will Be Kept Busy Toggery Bill To Bid Old Stand Ar found that the merits of his case cut very little figure with that court. Later, when Tom L. Johnson started his fight for three cent fares and for equal taxation of railroad and street railway property, he found that the judges of the Ohio supreme court could not have been more partial to these corporations if they had been openly retained as attorneys for them. In order to protect monopolistic interests, they even rendered a decision overturning the government of every city in the state. It is not surprising then tract in Medford will be completed. to hear of the latest manner in which it has distinguished

In other words, the court holds that the states formed out of the old northwest territory have not been admitted to the union on equal terms with other states. Other states may amend their constitutions to suit themselves, but these states must first obtain the consent of congress, if these by attendants and died on the operany other addresses they are still side remarks of Ohio's supreme judges have been properly understood. Can fidelity to predatory interests go any further? Taft's conduct in regard to Arizona seemed highhanded enough, but Arizona was still a territory under the control of congress. But a state admitted to the union is supposed to be sovereign in all things that do not conflict with the federal constitution. Ohio needs not only a new constitution, but a new lot of supreme judges as well.

MR. FARMER, CAN YOU AFFORD IT?

CAN you afford to continue to haul your loads over the present roads when it will cost you not one cent more than you are now paying to enjoy the use of a good hardsurfaced road, free from ruts and mud at all season of the vear?

Good roads will enable you to bring in wood at a time when fuel is most needed and prices the highest, and when you have no other work pressing on the farm.

Good roads will enable you to bring in hay, potatoes and other products when you have leisure to market them, and prices are right.

Good roads will bring rural free delivery to every farm! in the county.

Build good roads and enjoy them now, and thousands of people yet to come will help to pay for them.
