EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

(By A. C. Howlett.)

The last time I wrote for the Mail Tribune I promised to give an account of what I saw and heard on my trip to and from Prospect. I started Monday at seven o'clock a. m. on the Prospect stage, Roy Willets manipulating the lines, and as we started Royal Brown enquired if he was going to go at that rate all the way, for he started the horses as though he was going to fight fire and was in a hurry to get there. Well there was nothing of especial interest happened on the road until after we had passed Trail, where we stopped for about forty minutes. There we found that Mrs. Middlebush, proprietress of the Trail hotel, had gone on a visit to Seattle, Wash., but her two grown daughters, Mrs. Strang and Miss Lee, were managing the Postoffice, store and hotel. They seemed to have about all the business they could attend to, and Mr. and Mrs. Charley Bless, stationed at the old Allen hotel, reported that they were full most of the time. Going on up the Rogue at the mouth of Elk creek at the hatchery they had the traps, etc., all arranged to catch the fall run of steelheads, silversides, etc. Going on up Elk creek we found several men at work on the county road, and strange to say, the driver bragged on the condition of the road, and it indeed was fine. The supervisor, George Lynch, deserves credit for the manner in which he has fixed the road. The sawmill owned by Mr. McCollough and son, was shut down for the time being, although they seemed to have quite a lot of lumber on hand. The next thing of note was the fine alfalfa that is growing all along the road, not only on Elk creek, but all along the banks of the Rogue and its tributaries. Passing along we came to the Pense school house, where was a lot of men putting it in shape for the winter school. They were looking at that time for Miss Mae Howe, their old teacher, to come and commence the fall school. I noticed along the route that there was but very little improvement in the way of building or fencing and the farms as a rule did not show as much thrift and energy as might be desirable, and the alfalfa on some of the farms is going to the bad, although where it is properly cultivated it looks fine. After we had gone on for a few miles we left the county road and started up the hill to Persist Valley, which is situated on the head waters of Elk creek, it being a kind of a cove in the mountains containing several hundred acres. Mr. Willets Sr. and his sons have opened a new road up the hill to the valley and Roy informs me that when they got it done it will be on a five per cent grade. They have opened it up so that they can run the stage over it winter and summer. We arrived at the Persist post office about two p. m., having traveled 33 miles since seven a. m., and made several stops on the way. We brought with us good appetites, but they were soon satisfied, as Miss Hostess Mrs. Willets had a good warm dinner in readiness for us.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

The Misses Nealon of Table Rock left on No. 20 Wednesday morning for Corvallis, where they will attend college for the winter.

Mr. Barnett of the Willamette valley, who has been visiting his brother J. S. Barnett, for a few days, has returned to his home.

Chairman A. J. Dunlap and the street committee have had two new bridges constructed over Griffin creek on Main street and the same are now ready for traffic which adds greatly to the convenience of the traveler.

The Jacobson & Bade big ditching machine successfully completed its work here Thursday and started immediately for Medford.

Central Point visitors to Medford Wednesday were Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Shields, Mrs. Lamphins, Mr. and Mrs. Barnett, Miss Hubbard, N. Gerry Mrs. G. E. Fox and George Hessegrave.

Mr. and Mrs. McCaffrey who have resided here for the past several months, left recently for Grants Pass to make their home.

KANES CREEK ITEMS.

Mr. Foley had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse one day recently by jolting.

Mrs. Chas. Stineburg and Mrs. John Mardon were guests of Anna Hignbotham on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis motored to Medford Tuesday, where Mrs. Lewis is having some dental work done.

Born—On Saturday, Sept. 17th 1911, to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rhoten, a girl. Mother and child doing nicely, and think the father will recover. Mr. and Mrs. Marden were transacting business in Central Point one day recently.

Thomas Danzey and wife, of Gall-creek, were visiting friends at the "Braden mine" over Sunday.

Grandpa Russell left on Tuesday's train for Roseburg and the soldiers' home.

Mr. Norris has returned home from Prospect at which place he has been employed for some time.

SPOKANE, Wn.—Carelessness in the use of kerosene to start a fire in a stove today cost Mrs. Michael Kasanovic, 26, her life, resulted in the narrow escape of her husband and three children from death in a fire which destroyed their home.

The land well drained. The house is situated on a hill where one can overlook the most entire place, and where he has a fine stream of water brought in by troughs, emptying right at the kitchen door. If I was more of a florist I would undertake to give a description of the yard, but suffice it to say that Mrs. Willets and her daughter Miss Ines, have flowers all around the house and of several different varieties. Mr. Willets turns his attention to stock, agriculture and gardening. He has several acres in potatoes and cabbage and tomatoes, and finds a ready market at Prospect. There are several families settled in the valley and Mr. Willets tells me that there is room for several more. If the U. S. government would throw out of the reserve the agricultural part of the land there would be room for a great many more. They have a fine school house and last Monday Miss Kerns arrived there to teach the fall school.

More anon.

Next my trip to Prospect over the mountains and what I saw there.

JACKSONVILLE

L. O. Van Wegen has gone over on Big Sticky with his gasoline saw outfit where he has considerable work engaged.

The many friends of John Dunnington and bride are very glad to welcome them home, after their honeymoon trip to Portland.

Ward Regar, one of our successful farmers, is buying and hauling his winter's wood from Charles Niell's ranch, seven miles from Jacksonville.

E. G. Roberts, wife and little son were the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. L. O. Van Wegen and family last Sunday.

Dr. R. C. Clancy, wife and little daughter were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Robison last Sunday.

Rev. Johnston leaves this morning (Wednesday) for Salem, where he goes to attend the Methodist conference.

Robt. Carroll has returned to his old home at Weyawang, Wis., after a year's stay in Rogue River valley.

Miss Reeta Johnston has returned from a several week's visit with friends on Elk creek. She was accompanied home by Miss Marjorie Erskine, who will spend some time visiting in Jacksonville, her former home. The trip was made by wagon from Elk creek to Derby thence on the P. & E. to Medford and lastly Miss Emma Armstrong, for many years a resident of Jacksonville, is visiting old friends here, and is also putting her horse in readiness for the occupancy of the new Presbyterian minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Heckert are making an extended visit to eastern relatives and friends.

Mrs. Mary Day has gone to Willamette valley for a few months' visit with friends.

Miss Kate Chapman the milliner, has so far recovered from her serious illness as to be able to be around again.

Our school is progressing wonderfully under the management of the able corps of teachers we now have employed.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Practically every military post north country will be visited by Secretary of War Stimson, with a view of thoroughly familiarizing himself with conditions in the United States army.

HER HAIR GREW

That's Why a Thankful Woman Recommends Parisian Sage.

Charles Strang will sell you a fifty cent bottle of PARISIAN SAGE and guarantee it to banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp, or money back. It's a delightful hair dressing that makes hair lustrous and fascinating.

"In the spring I was recovering from a severe case of erysipelas, which left me virtually bald on the front of my head and next to my ears. The hair kept coming out rapidly and anything I used stopped my getting entirely bald, until I used two bottles of PARISIAN SAGE. This tonic made my hair start to grow in and, in fact, grew me a good fair amount of hair, and it has entirely stopped my hair falling out.

It is with pleasure that I give a public recommendation to PARISIAN SAGE, which I know is a wonder." Mrs. Ella Gilchrist, W. Pitt St., Bedford, Pa.

MOOSE, MOOSE, MOOSE. Attention to all citizens of good, loyal and moral character in medford and surrounding towns, this will be the last call to join the selected herd, the charter closing Tuesday evening, September 19, 1911, at the charter of five dollars at 217 1-2 West Main street, Slewling building. After that date fees will be $25.
