TABLE-ROCK ITEMS.

The new Table Rock correspondent of the Mail Tribune makes his bow into the Mail Tribune family with "charity for all and malice toward none," firmly believing that Jackson county and particularly Table Rock, is the center of the world and the hub of the universe. But because Table Rock is the "hub" does not mean that this part of the world is not moving.

WILSON NEULON

Wilson Neulon are baling hay for Emmett Neulon on the Ray ranch, Mr. Demmer, who has been employed on the Dickey ranch, will soon leave for California where he has purchased a home.

Stanley Lydiard departed for Minneapolis, Minn., this morning where he will renew his studies at the agricultural college of that state.

Miss Mae Nealon and Miss Francis Aiken departed this morning for Corvallis to attend the state normal during the winter.

E. T. May and Miss Lillie Dugan, so report says, went to Medford today and were made husband and wife. We wish you success Earl.

Jack Frost has been nibbling our tomato and melon vines for the last few nights.

There is many fish in Rogue river and even amateur anglers are having good success catching them.

We hear that the work on the big dyke being built by the Palmer Investment Co. is going ahead in good shape.

The melon crop at Table Rock is beginning to wane. Verily we have had our share of them.

Mrs. Winnie Davis of Coos Bay, Lee Vincent of Table Rock, John Rankin and family, of Applegate, are the guests of W. R. Byron.

BOY TIPPED OFF THE SIGNALS OF UNCLE HAPPY

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 21—“Uncle Happy is peevish because the Ducks trun the Tigers out of first place in Ducktown, and he thinks I've been tipping off his signs to some of the fans.”

This was the explanation today of Little “Toughy”, who for several seasons past has acted as the bat boy for the cYrnon team and who yesterday was ejected from the grounds by Manager Hogan.

“Toughy” may have some other name, but nobody seems to know it. When asked about Toughy's banishment the Vernon leader merely smiled and refused to give any information.

Other members say that the signals have been leaking for some time and declare that Hogan “has the goods” on “Toughy.”

EUREKA, Cal.—As a result of the preliminary hearing, Rev. Harry Adams, pastor of the Acata Episcopal church, charged with burglary is at liberty today under bonds of $1000 to appear before the superior court. During the hearing the clergyman was silent and at the close of the inquisition he hurried to his home, refusing to discuss his predicament.
