

MISS BROWN'S CONCERT FRIDAY

Enjoyable Evening of Music is Promised and Local Music Lovers are Taking Much Interest—Friday Evening at Opera House.

In his "Childs Garden of Verses", Robert Louis Stevenson has accomplished what very few other authors have done in attempting to write for children, viz: writing for them, and not of them. The secret of his charm in these compositions is due to the fact that although Stevenson never outgrew his boyish heart. For instance, could a more perfect mind image be given of a child's fanciful awe and wonder at the night noises and sounds than in "Windy Nights?"

"Whenever the moon and stars are set,
Whenever the wind is high,
All night long in the dark and wet,
A man goes riding by.
Late in the night when the fires are out,
Why does he gallop and gallop about?

"Whenever the trees are crying aloud
And ships are tossed at sea,
By on the highway, low and loud,
By at the gallop goes he.
By at the gallop he goes, and then
By he comes back at the gallop again."

And again, can the imagination of even the most prosaic of "grown-ups" withstand such alluring beckoning as in the little poem "My Bed is A Boat," and not find itself instantly back in the land of make-believe, where the spirit of "Let's play it is" becomes a "fairy godmother," transforming all things at will?

"My bed is like a little boat;
Nurse helps me when I embark;
She girds me in my sailor's coat
And starts me in the dark."

Grace Josephine Brown will sing these and others of Stevenson's "Child-Verses" Friday evening.

WILL DARROW ASK CHANGE OF VENUE?

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 27. The absorbing question in legal circles here today is whether the defense in the McNamara case will carry out its threat and ask for a change of judges on the ground that Superior Judge Walter Bordwell is prejudiced against the defendants. That the defense is seriously considering the matter was shown when Clarence Darrow, said today that the matter had progressed from a possibility to a probability.

CARNEGIE'S "HONEST MAN" HAS PASSED AWAY

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—James I. Hever, whom Andrew Carnegie considered an honest man, is dead. Hever, once a well known horse trainer, was loved by the daughter of Carnegie's favorite niece, Mrs. Lucy Coleman Carnegie. He told her that he was a widower with three children, but she took him anyway and there was a secret marriage. Upon discovery of the marriage Carnegie gave Hever $20,000 for being an honest man instead of a dissolute duke.

STEEL TRUST WILL ISSUE STATEMENT ON ATTITUDE

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—A statement of the attitude taken by the directors of the United States Steel corporation, including that of J. Pierpont Morgan, is being prepared today by Chairman Gary, following a meeting of the board, in which the raid on steel stocks was discussed. The trust is booking no orders for future delivery, customers only buying such steel products as are absolutely needed for immediate use. According to Gary the volume of business is larger than usual.

CHICAGO—Harry Laski and Samuel Goldstein are held here today under double charges of murder and arson as a result of a tenement house fire early today. They are the owners of the building and are charged with having set fire to the place in order to collect insurance. Those who lost their lives in the conflagration are Harry Egzilech and wife and daughter Bessie, aged 2, and Messrs. Samuels and Apbert, boarders.

"CHARLEY" FAUST, A UNIQUE FIGURE, BREAKS INTO BASEBALL

"CHARLEY" FAUST OF MARION KANSAS LEADING BAND

Herein is shown a picture of "Charley" Faust, probably the most noted figure who has broken into baseball in many a day. The big Kansan is a whole show in himself. Apexing himself to the New York Giants without any formalities, he imagines himself an important member of that hustling aggregation. Faust spends his time amusing spectators and players alike. Knowing absolutely nothing about playing the game, he hangs around waiting anxiously for McGraw to start him in an important game. One of his pleasant performances is the running of bases. This he does during the warming up practice, and invariably he steals all his way from first to home without the slightest interference. The accompanying picture shows the good natured, harmless boy leading a band of youthful musicians during a New York game, while the spectators enjoyed it immensely.

COLLEGE MEN ALL DRINK TOO MUCH

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 27.—Up-holding the recent utterances of R. T. Crane of Chicago that the use of intoxicants is almost general among American college men, Chancellor Samuel Avery, of the University of Nebraska is out with an explanation of their alleged intemperance. "Student life, everywhere, is characterized by some undesirable features and always will be," said Avery. "This is because education cannot be well deferred until the student has come to be as staid as his parents. Young blood is hot."

TELEGRAPHIC TABLOIDS.

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—Nat C. Goodwin, much married comedian, has troubles other than those of a matrimonial nature. A C. Carrington brought suit for $10,300 against the actor, alleging that while in his automobile Goodwin's car struck him with such force that he was rendered sick, sore and disabled.

RENO, Nev.—Reports of a rich strike at Tonopah are exciting mining men here today. The "fat rock" has been found in what is known as the east end. The striking of quartz where dacite was supposed to have led to the discoveries in two widely removed localities, one on the 700 level of the McNamara and the other on the 600 level of the Tonopah extension.

CHICAGO—Defrauded by a counterfeiter and a woman accomplice who presented themselves for marriage and paid the $10 fee with worthless $20 bills, a score of Chicago ministers are condoling the loss of good money, and are on a still hunt for the much married couple.

WEAVERVILLE, Cal.—Mrs. Francesco Clifford "not right sure how old she is, but mor'n a hundred," is en route to San Francisco. She has lived for 69 years in Weaverlyville.

SAN FRANCISCO—Traffic on Market street was stopped for 10 minutes while 15 policemen dispersed a crowd and allowed 18 street cars to proceed. A mouse had attempted to cross the street.

SEATTLE, WASH.—A. J. Rose, president of the Pacific Coast Fuel and Ice company, of this city, was today fined $20 in the police court for selling and delivering coal without first weighing it. A driver working for the firm had delivered a load of coal to two different parties giving each about half a load, and receiving payment for one ton at each place.

SEATTLE, Wn.—In the superior court yesterday Judge Prater refused to allow a bill for $50 for "masses" sung for the repose of the soul of Michael Windle. The bill was presented against Windle's estate, but the court said that he couldn't allow such a claim.

SEATTLE, Wn.—The city council may abolish all private employment agencies here. The council this morning discussed the question. Many complaints of workmen being lured away have caused the committee to act. Action may be taken next Monday.

ENGLISH PAPERS ARE PLEASED WITH RESULT

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Editorials of a distinctly anti-American nature are appearing in the conservative newspapers, which today are rejoicing over the defeat of Canadian reciprocity. All see in Canada the loyal province, whose turning down of reciprocity indicates that she will not allow the solidity of the British empire to be jeopardized by American politics.

The papers speak of the reciprocity movements as a "wicked political plot" and in fervid editorials denounce the "treasonable covenant" between Taft and Laurier's "dishonest grafting" government. "The menace of Canada's independence has received a quietus," says the Globe, one of the leading conservative publications.

PROMINENT CLUBMAN SHOOT'S CHAUFFEUR

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 27.—Gus B. Berling, clubman and official of the United States Fidelity and Guarantee company, shot and probably fatally wounded William Kent, a chauffeur with whom he had an altercation in the lobby of the Union Square hotel here early today.

The quarrel was over a dispute about the payment due the chauffeur for driving Berling about for three hours last night. It terminated in the hotel lobby when Berling began to use a revolver. Two shots were fired, the first missing and the second lodging in Kent's abdomen. Berling was arrested.

NO BIG FIGHT IN ENGLAND

Wells-Johnson Championship Battle is Finally and Definitely Blocked—Judge Issues Order Restraining Fighters.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The Wells-Johnson fight, so far as London is concerned, is finally and definitely blocked. Judge Bush today enjoined both the promoters and the fighters of the proposed world's heavyweight championship battle. The court held that the fight would endanger the license of Earls Court, the largest amusement auditorium in London, where it had been planned to stage the contest. Judge Bush acted upon the application of the proprietor of the resort.

PORT ORCHARD, Wn.—An amended information against Mrs. Lida B. Hazzard, the fast cure specialist, has been filed in the courts here, charging the woman with the murder of Miss Claire Williamson, a wealthy young Englishwoman, who is alleged to have died under the starvation cure practiced by Mrs. Hazzard's sanitarium here.

HER FRIEND'S GOOD ADVICE

The Results Made This Newburg Lady Glad She Followed Suggestion.

Newburg, Ala.—"For more than a year," writes Myrtle Cothrum, of this place, "I suffered with terrible pains in my back and head. I had a sallow complexion, and my face was covered with pimples. Our family doctor only gave me temporary relief. A friend of mine advised me to try Cardui, so I began taking it, at once, and with the best results, for I was cured after taking two bottles. My mother and my aunt have also used Cardui and were greatly benefited. I shall always praise Cardui to sick and suffering women." Cardui is a purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, tonic remedy for women, and will benefit young and old. Its ingredients are mild herbs, having a gentle, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution. Cardui has helped a million women back to health and strength. Have you tried it? If not, please do. It may be just what you need.
