The theatre has never offered a more sensationally successful play than "The Girl In The Taxi" which is scheduled for an engagement of one night at the Medford theatre to night.

"The Girl In The Taxi" was written with the sole purpose of making people laugh. This it has done beyond the greatest expectations. In Paris it created a sensation and ran for 1,000 nights. In Berlin it scored an unqualified success and broke records with its popularity. In New York in the Astor theatre it repeated its foreign triumphs. In Chicago at the Cort theatre it packed a theatre for 250 performances and carried off all honors for phenomenal attendance and box-office business. In Boston it captivated public and press and played to overflowing audiences at the Tremont theatre for three months. No play of recent years has achieved so great a triumph and it will be many years before this triumph is equalled, if ever.

"The Girl In The Taxi" boasts of no tears, but if you wish to enjoy the hearty laugh of your life, this is the play to evoke it.
