Central Labor Council and Socialist Party Pledge Support to Bond Issue at the Polls Saturday—Are Boosting for Cause.

The Central Labor Council and the Socialist party of Jackson county on Thursday issued a statement to the public pledging their support to the good roads bond issue. This means added strength to the forces favoring the bond issue, as the two organizations have a voting strength of from 800 to 1000 votes in the county. The statement issued Thursday was as follows:

To the Public: We, the undersigned, as a committee representing the Central Labor Council of Medford, and the socialist party of Jackson county, after due consideration and deliberation have decided to heartily endorse and support the good roads bond issue at the coming election. (Signed.)

- O. O. PARKER, Teamsters.
- G. B. HUGHES, Carpenters.
- D. C. SIMPSON, Plumbers.
- G. H. MILLAR, Socialist party of Medford, Ore.

WAR IS DECLARED

war which may mean the massacre of thousands of the Christian residents of the Turkish provinces.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—News that Italy has occupied Tripoli is heartily expected here. The Turkish troops there will not resist, believing that it would be useless to combat the overwhelming Italian force that has concentrated for the adventure.

The Italian ultimatum Italy delivered to Turkey expired at noon today but the landing of troops at Tripoli has been deferred until the usual notifications have been sent to the foreign consulates. The whole coast of Tripoli is blockaded.

War, as yet has not been actually declared. Italy's diplomats here will not formally act but as it is Turkey must eventually order the Italian forces out of Tripolitan territory, thus severing diplomatic relations.

Already mutterings of a holy war are heard throughout Turkey and it is feared that Italy's grab will result in promiscuous massacres of Europeans, thus reopening the entire Turkish question, and possibly causing a general European conflict.

Dispatches from Tripoli received here today say that the foreign consulates there are besieged with hundreds of Europeans asking for protection. Turkish troops are massed on the outskirts of the city, prepared to retreat into the desert when the Italian forces land. The streets of Tripoli are deserted, most of the merchants having sent their valuables away and all business is at a standstill.

The Italian expeditionary force is 30,000 strong, in two divisions of two brigades each. General Caneva commands with General Rinaldi and Giardina D'Amico as his aides. Both the land and sea forces are under the direct command of Admiral Aubry. Two thousand Carabinieri are with the force. They are destined to act as police in the city of Tripoli after the occupation.

Italy Not of One Mind.

ROME, via Modane, France, Sept. 29.—That Italy is far from being unanimous in desiring war with Turkey over the Tripoli dispute, is evidenced in many ways throughout the kingdom today. In all the large cities the socialists are rioting and giving drastic demonstrations of their opposition to the attitude of the government.

The general strike planned by the socialists failed only because the government prevented it by sheer force of arms. The unions have also become involved in the anti-war crusade and a number of their most prominent and radical members have been arrested.

The jails in several cities are jammed with protesting workers, arrested for voicing their sentiments against the war too freely, or making more active objection. The order calling out the reserves is bitterly resented, especially by the married men, who are being torn from their families by the government orders. In many cases the reserves have been forcibly driven to the Italian standard.

General indications are that in the event of war Turkey will be faced by a disgruntled Italy, weakened and torn by internal dissension.

PROMINENT BUSINESS MEN FINANCE GREAT RELIGIOUS CRUSADE

J. PIERPONT MORGAN

FRED B. SMITH

JAMES G. CANNON

REV. CHARLES STEHLE

CLEVELAND H. DODGE

LEADERS IN MOVEMENT TO EVANGELIZE A CONTINENT

Financed by business men of national prominence whose combined wealth runs into the hundreds of millions and who will conduct it as they would a private business affair, the United States and Canada are on the eve of a common sense religious crusade such as is not recorded in the previous history of the human race since the reformation, and which, its promoters proclaim, will be further reaching in its effect than the crusades of history.

The plan, originating in New York, includes a visit to more than ninety cities by evangelistic workers who will reach the people in every walk of life. Among the prominent men in New York who are associated with the work and who have given generous financial aid to it are the following:—Cleveland H. Dodge, J. Pierpont Morgan, James H. Post, Frederick Billings, James G. Cannon, R. Fulton Cutting, Dr. D. H. McAlpin, Alfred E. Marling, Charles A. Peabody, L. H. Severance, William Sloane, Robert Brewster, James R. Coumbs, Frank A. Ferris and James D. Husted.

MILLER EXPLAINS HIS POSITION

Concerning the article in this morning's Sun stating the position of the Socialists on the bond issue for good roads, I wish to state as an individual that I was appointed by Medford Local of Socialist Party to act in conjunction with the labor unions as to the position we should take upon this bond issue for good roads. The Socialist party is always in favor of shorter hours, better conditions and higher wages, in all lines of work, especially in public work. Now that these principles are the cardinal principles of trade unionism, I, representing the Socialists on this committee work, assumed that every Socialist would be in favor of these provisions, and therefore thought I could take liberty to voice the sentiment of Medford Local of the Socialist party; and I further believe that I have voiced the sentiment of the Socialists of Jackson county. The good roads proposition however, is not especially a Socialist issue, and are only using it to endeavor to better the conditions of the working class, as we do on all private or public work.

TO WALK OUT SATURDAY

today to become effective at 10 a. m. tomorrow," said William Atkinson, vice president of the boilermakers' union.

A strike of the men here means a monthly loss on the face of the payroll of more than $250,000. Should the trainmen become involved either directly or indirectly, through the tying up of the system, the loss in wages will be doubled.

Upon the request of Southern Pacific officials 38 men have been sworn as special police. These men are stationed at the gates of a high board fence leading to the shops.

Portland Men Ready.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 29.—Shop employes of the Harriman lines in Portland, who are members of the system federation, are prepared to walk out the moment the strike order, expected tomorrow, is received. Fifteen hundred men are employed in the local shops.

Railroad officials assert that many of the older employes will not join in the strike for fear of losing their credits and prospects for a pension, which is granted after 25 years continuous service.

Federation employes, however, take the opposite view and declare the overwhelming majority will remain loyal to the union.

SAN JOSE, Cal.—Arranged on a charge of drunkenness Ernest Rudolph, who says he is the son of a Seattle business man, told such a convincing story to the court here today that he was let off with a suspension of sentence. Rudolph claims that instead of being drunk, he fell from a moving train and was dazed.

MISS BROWN WILL GIVE CONCERT TONIGHT

Medford society is showing unusual interest in "An Evening of Song" in which Grace Josephine Brown's beautiful contralto voice is to be heard this evening. Society has already pronounced the affair a great success. The patronesses who have given their support to Miss Brown's very artistic undertaking, are Mesdames Walter A. Folger, George H. Daggett, John M. Root, Evan Reames, Edgar Hafer, William J. Vawter, E. Barton Pickett, Herbert C. Kentner, Martin C. Barber, William M. Colvig, Edward E. Gore and Edward M. Andrews.

"THE QUIZ" IS NAME OF NEW SMOKE HOUSE

For several days the proprietors of the smoke club on north Front street, have been advertising for an appropriate name for their place of business. The present proprietors are A. C. Burgess, R. O. Burgess and W. F. Quisenberry. They offered as a prize a ten dollar pipe to the person who would suggest a name which might be selected as the most appropriate. A great number of names were handed in but the one selected was "The Quiz," presented by A. W. Mackie.

THOUSAND FLEES FROM SEAT OF WAR

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 29.—Fearful of reprisals in dire terror of worse consequences of the Italian war declaration, thousands of foreigners are fleeing northward today in an effort to find refuge beyond the boundaries of the Ottoman empire. The exodus has become general, and the trains and boats bound northward are all jammed with refugees.

The government has decided to enforce a state of siege, fearing an uprising of the Turks throughout the empire against the Christians. The Turkish fleet stationed at Beirut is leaving the port for Constantinople.

We notice that some merchants in other cities are using considerable space advertising "Made in Oregon" goods. That is as it should be. The merchant must know that his individual prosperity is to a great extent dependent upon the prosperity of the state at large, and if Oregon manufacturers are patronized, that it will mean greater pay rolls, and greater pay rolls mean a larger degree of prosperity for every man, woman and child in Oregon.

SEATTLE, Wa.—The threat of the independent telephone company to raise the rates will be resisted by the city, according to an announcement made today. The company says it can't operate at a profit unless subscribers pay more.

Support the manufacturers of your home city first, last and all the time, and you will help yourself to prosperity. But if your local factories cannot supply your wants, insist that the merchant carries "Made in Oregon" goods from other Oregon sources to supply your needs.

THE BEAUTIFUL HAIR OF ENGLISH WOMEN

(Annie Bly in N. Y. Graphic) The long, abundant and glossy tresses of English women are not due to hair tonics and heroic shampooing. There is a general belief over there that the less water put on the hair, the better it is; they say wetting "takes the life out" and leaves the hair dull, brittle and colorless.

English women with hair rich in color, clean and wholesome—and plenty of it—have told me they attribute it to dry shampooing two or three times a week; they mix four ounces of therox with four ounces of orris root and sprinkle a tablespoonful of this mixture on the head; then brush the powder thoroughly through the hair. They thus also avoid the danger of catching cold and the discomfort that accompanies washing, rinsing and drying the hair.

This treatment keeps the hair light, fluffy and lustrous, and is the only thing I know that will actually produce the growth of hair.

THEROX FOR SALE HASKINS' DRUG STORE

The mail order houses of the East would not be so prosperous if the people of this community would insist on having "Made in Oregon" goods from the local merchants. The business of this community would be better conserved if the buying public and the merchants would help along the "Made in Oregon" idea.

TOGGERY BILL MOVES LOCATION

The Toggery last night moved into its new quarters next to the Medford National Bank building. The new store is much larger than the old one and has been fitted out with entirely new fixtures, making it one of the most modern in Oregon. The show cases are of plate glass and marble and the cabinets and shelving of finely finished wood. The Toggery started out in Medford nine years ago with a mere handful of stock and has grown to be one of the largest business concerns in the city.
