

SHOOT PROVES GREAT SUCCESS

With Many Visitors Here Splendid Scores are Made on First Day of Big Shoot—Reihl Gets 101 Out of Possible 105.

The seventh annual meet of the Medford Rod and Gun club in proving a great success. With a large number of professionals present and with amateurs who are breaking many birds, the first day of the shoot was greatly enjoyed. Today, perfect in point of weather, the guns are popping merrily, and the day will see several large scores.

Dr. M. M. Bull of Eugene made the highest score for amateurs on the opening day by breaking 93 out of a possible 105. Frank Reihl of Tacoma, a professional, made the high score of the day, breaking 101 out of a possible 105.

The scores for the first day's shoot were:

The Scars of Victory.
"How do you like the brother, Johnny?"
"Sick ahead. He hurt himself."
"Oh, that's too bad. How did he do it?"
"We were playing who could lean the farthest out of the street car window, and he won."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Fruitless Struggle.
"I understood that after waiting twenty years she married a struggling man?"
"Yes, poor chap. He struggled the best he knew how, but she landed him."—Brooklyn Life.

Maybe Cheese.
Little Willie—I want to ask a question, teacher.
Teacher—What is it, Willie?
Little Willie—Are the Swedish Islands ham or beef?—Philadelphia Bulletin.

A Terrible Thought.
"Nature knew what she was doing when she deprived fishes of a voice."
"How do you make that out?"
"What if a fish had to chuckle over every egg it laid?"—Toledo Blade.

Without Exception.
Tom—They say that every woman is beautiful in some one's eyes. Do you believe it?
Jack—Certainly, if you include her own.—Boston Transcript.

WIFE OF PROMINENT RAILROAD MAN SUES FOR DIVORCE.

Mrs. Lilly Middleton, wife of John A. Middleton, vice president of the Lehigh Valley railroad, vice president and a director of the Delaware, Lehigh and Schuylkill railroad and a member of a number of railroad directorates, filed suit against her husband in the Supreme court, New York, on September 10.

Mrs. Middleton sues for a separation on the ground of cruelty and inhuman treatment.

"FIRST TO HAZELTON" CAR MAKES PROGRESS

HAZELTON, B. C., Sept. 29.—P. E. Sands and party of four Seattleites in the "Earliest North, first to Hazelton," Flanders automobile, passed Burns Lake this morning and have now traversed most of the difficult stage of the trip between Fraser and Burns lake. Success is now assured and barring accidents the party should reach Hazelton within a week. The new government road was recently completed as far south as Burns lake, and they should have little trouble in making the lap of the long journey in record time. The weather is rainy but the roads are in fairly good condition.

Navigation on the Skeena river is drawing to a close, the water being now the lowest this season. All boats are tied up awaiting the last raise, which it is expected the present rain will bring before the final close-up.

How It Was Done.
"And you made a small fortune out of poultry?"
"I did."
"Where do you keep your chickens?"
"I haven't any. I publish books on how to raise 'em."—Washington Star.

Honeycomb Over.
Mrs. Neweld (pouting)—You are not like Kate's husband. He won't let his wife do a bit of heavy lifting.
Neweld—But I can't always be at home when you take your bread out of the oven.—Boston Transcript.

Wife?
"And where," demanded his wife, with flashing eyes, "would you be now only for me?"
The man glanced at the clock. It was verging on midnight. He sighed and was silent.—Puck.

Lesson.
"Son, the early bird catches the worm."
"Yes, God—and brings it home to his children. Why don't you get out and hustle?"—Toledo Blade.

The Usual Way.
"I wonder how those hunters managed to thread their way through that tangled section."
"I guess they had needle guns."—Baltimore American.

The Wrong Cue.
"How did you get the black eye?"
"It happened in a billiard parlor. I forgot I wasn't on the bleachers and criticised a man's poor play."—Washington Herald.

Lofty Idea.
He—I wish I had enough money to buy an aeroplane.
She—Why, what do you want with an aeroplane?
He—I don't. I merely expressed a wish for the money.—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

FANS SEE FAST WORK AT NAT

Four Bouts are Staged by Frankie Edwards—Only One Went the Full Length—Sport Was Clean and Well Liked.

Boxing fans saw four bouts at the Natorium Athletic club last evening, which were well worth attending despite the fact that only one of them went four rounds.

Jimmie Smith and Walter Kane went four rounds to a draw. It was a good exhibition, each boy landing well.

Joe Biff got Earl Balston in the second. Balston was in no condition at all and was unable to stand the pace. Fans would like to see a return match with Earl in condition.

Mistah Chic Bowlin brought home the pork chops, laying the much touted John Turner low in the first round.

Joe Parker was the light for Roy Smith, the latter winning in less than two minutes.

The sport was clean and well enjoyed.

The Lottery in Prague.
"What is right depends on where one lives," writes an American from Prague, Bohemia. "This advertisement appeared in the papers recently: 'Tomorrow evening the drawings for the twenty-eighth state lottery for the military charity fund will take place. There will be 21,125 prizes, amounting to 620,000 kronen. The chief prize will be 200,000 kronen, and there will be one prize each of 50,000 and 30,000. All prizes will be paid in cash. Chances of four kronen may still be obtained at all tobacco shops, exchange offices, postoffices and customs offices.' These places are all under government management, and it is clear that the lottery is a government institution."

Height of His Ambition.
Edward Sundell, for many years one of Chauncey M. Depew's confidential clerks, has compiled a book containing "glosses, aphorisms and nuggets" from the speeches of the ex-senator.

One of the Fourth of July quotations reads: "I had looked for years with awe at the orator as he rode in the open barouche in the procession. I had listened to him with reverent attention. The day came when I sat in the back seat, on the right hand side of the carriage as the orator of the day, and when I stood upon the platform and spoke the old familiar truths I thought ambition had culminated and nothing more in life was left to be attained."

Such is Fame.
Fame may be a fine thing for the person who has acquired it, but he is ever so great if it never comes. An incident in the supreme court a few days ago might be quoted in proof.

Joseph H. Choate, leader of the New York bar, appeared in court for the first time in several years. "I see Joseph H. Choate is here," said a reporter to a court clerk. "Who?" asked the latter official. "Choate," replied the clerk. "Who is he?" again queried the reporter. "You know, Mr. Choate," said the reporter. The clerk replied nonchalantly and in all seriousness, "Seems to me I have heard of him."—New York Tribune.

DYNAMITE IS FOUND ON TRACK

Striking Union Clerks Declare that Railroad Detectives Place Cap Under Switch in Order to Discredit the Strike.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 29.—United States Marshal Sam Johnson today found here a box containing 100 dynamite caps under the joints of the switch rails of the Illinois Central railroad tracks just east of the junction near South Memphis.

Striking union clerks declare that the railroad detectives placed the caps there with a view to getting evidence to help the railroads to obtain a permanent injunction against the walkout on Monday.

Marshal Johnson will swear in 100 special deputies to assist in handling the situation.

STOP THAT DANDRUFF

before it kills your hair. You know dandruff is a germ disease and it leads slowly and surely to baldness, and there is only one way to cure dandruff, and that is to kill the germ that causes the trouble.

Greasy salves will never do this. ZEMO and ZEMO SOAP kills the germ and are guaranteed to cure dandruff, itching scalp and all other germ diseases of the skin and scalp.

ZEMO and ZEMO SOAP are the true scientific remedies for these afflictions. To show our faith in ZEMO and ZEMO SOAP we have instructed the druggist selling them to refund your money if you are not satisfied with the results from the very first bottle and the first cake of soap.

We can afford to make this offer because one bottle of Zemo and one cake of soap are sufficient to show their healing qualities and if used according to directions, they will effect a permanent cure.

Sold by druggists everywhere and in Medford by Haskins' drug store.
