PEOPLE OF WEST SHOULD DEAL WITH CONSERVATION

SEATTLE, Wn., Oct. 4.—Louis W. Hill, president of the Great Northern railway, was the guest at a banquet tendered by business men last night in speaking of the development of the resources of the west, he said: "It is for the people of the west to deal with this question of conservation, not the theorists of the east, and it was the tying up of our public lands that started the movement for the widespread organization of development leagues, now under way as far east as the Mississippi valley."

NORTHWEST GAINS BY CO-OPERATION OF FIFTEEN RAILROADS

Scientific farming has been given marked impetus in the United States during the past seven months through the generous co-operation of fifteen great railway systems which joined with the Great Northern road in transporting exhibition cars carrying the marvelous products of Oregon, Washington, Montana and Minnesota. Lecturers accompanying these educational "expositions on wheels" have explained modern agricultural methods to thousands of farmers in the middle western and eastern states, in the hundreds of towns where stops were made. The railways that hauled these exhibition cars over their lines, thus furthering the movement to help advance the knowledge of the farmers in their sections of the country, were—Michigan Central, Monon Route, Pennsylvania R. These tubers are both sound but shriveled, both tubers have produced young potatoes, one has eleven, the other twenty-one, new potatoes on them. Yet they have not been in the earth, or in other words, have not been planted. They will be placed in the exhibit building in Medford. A party from Lebanon, Missouri, arrived in Phoenix last week. ern, Seattle, Rogue River valley, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Salt Lake, and return to Lebanon. They have fallen in love with this valley. Medford Ore., Aug. 9, 1911.—This is to certify that about November my daughter was taken with a severe attack of rheumatism which rendered her left arm useless, in fact it was so severe paralyzed that she was not able to move her fingers, but knowing of some of Dr. Chow Young's marvelous cures of long standing cases of rheumatism, we decided to consult him, in which I am pleased to say made no mistake, as his remedies acted as he claimed they would and after the third treatment the rheumatic pain entirely left her and she has not had any symptoms of rheumatism since; besides her general health is much improved and I do not hesitate in saying I believe those afflicted with rheumatism or paralysis will do well to consult Dr. Chow Young, whose home is corner of Tenth and Front streets, Medford, Oregon.
