

PREMIER PIANIST TO BE HEARD HERE

Mrs. Beatrice Dierke, Whom Critics State Is Leading Pianist of the State, Will Be Heard in Medford Next Tuesday Evening.

The Oregonian has the following to say of Mrs. Beatrice Dierke, who will be heard here in classical recital next Tuesday evening:

"Wearing a gown that was like an artist's dream of beauty, and also a Paris lace cap with streamers, Mrs. Beatrice Dierke, Oregon's premier pianist, gave the first recital in which she has taken part for four years, in Christensen's hall, yesterday afternoon, and won a genuine artistic triumph. The audience was a large and highly appreciative one, representing many of Portland's professional musicians.

"Mrs. Dierke's musical offering yesterday was one of unusual significance and value. When she ceased her recent public recitals, Mrs. Dierke left among Portland concert-goers a fine memory of well built up musical ideals. After an interval of rest and foreign travel and study she emerges equipped in every way to resume her proper place on the concert platform. Her art has broadened, her sympathies deepened, and her technique is more commanding than ever.

"Mrs. Dierke's program made vast demands on the pianist's powers of interpretation and visualization, but she met every demand on her skill. The Von Weber sonata, op. 39, in A flat major, is very exciting and took 22 minutes to render, and Mrs. Dierke gave it a most satisfactory presentation. 'Invitation to the Dance' was a number of sparkling beauty, and the excerpt from 'Eugene Onegin' was a special favorite. 'Dances de la Mer' (Arensky) was a delightful contrast to the majesty and fire of the two last Wagner numbers. Mrs. Dierke was given several recalls, but she only accepted one, her extra offering being 'Liebestraube' from 'Tristan and Isolde.'

"New pianists may come and go, and Portland is friendly to all of them, but it is pleasant to know that Mrs. Dierke retains her place as an artist among the most cherished musical remembrances."

JEFF'S CAR KICKS HIM; PAINFUL BRUISE

J. D. Heard met with quite a severe and painful accident Monday night while cranking his car. He had neglected to connect the battery and after making one turn of the crank discovered that he had overlooked this necessary aid to car propulsion, and it so happened that Mrs. Heard, sitting in the car, had also made the discovery and connected the battery before Mr. Heard had gotten his hand and arm out of reach of the loose crank, and as a result he was struck a glancing blow on the right wrist. No bones were broken, but the bruise was a severe one and today Mr. Heard is suffering even more pain from it than he would had the bones been broken.

CASE AFTER CASE

Plenty More Like This in Medford. Scores of Medford people can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can he had than such endorsement?

T. J. Williams, 617 Oakdale avenue, Medford, Or., says: "In 1907 after Doan's Kidney Pills benefited me so greatly, I publicly recommended them. At this time I am pleased to again speak in their praise and give permission for the continued publication of my testimonial. I suffered for years from kidney and bladder trouble, the symptoms being slight at first, but becoming more pronounced as time passed. The pains in my back became so acute that I could hardly endure them and as the result of restless nights I arose in the morning all worn out. Often I was so lame and stiff that I could not stoop, and headaches and dizzy spells were common. I tried so many remedies without being helped that I became discouraged, but when Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me I decided to try them. I procured a supply at Haskins' drug store and after using two boxes I could see that a great improvement had been made. I grew better from that time on and was soon free from kidney complaint. Doan's Kidney Pills cannot be praised too highly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

SON GREETS DAD AFTER LONG YEARS

James Kershaw Meets Father on Street but Recognizes Him in Spite of Years That Have Passed Since They Parted.

"Hello, dad." "Hello, Jim."

Such was the unconventional greeting of James Kershaw, of Antelope and his father, Robert Kershaw of San Bernardino, Cal., in this city Tuesday, after an absence of nearly a score of years. The two men shook hands, then.

"You're looking well, dad, for a man of past eighty?" "Yes, and you haven't changed much. Let's start for home."

When James Kershaw reached Medford Tuesday on his regular weekly trip he little guessed that his father, whom he had not seen in years was here. Going down the street he saw and recognized him instantly.

Mrs. John Clemans, a sister of Mr. Kershaw, is also here on a visit with her brother.
