Medford, Ore., Aug. 2, 1911.—This is to certify that about November my daughter was taken with a severe attack of rheumatism when rendered her left arm useless, in fact it was so near paralysis that she was not able to move her fingers, but knowing of some of Dr. Crow Young's marvelous cures of long standing cases of rheumatism, we decided to consult him, in which I am pleased to say none no mistake, as his remedies acted as he claimed they would and after the third treatment the rheumatic pain entirely left her and she has not had any symptoms of rheumatism since; besides her general health is much improved and I do not hesitate in saying I believe those afflicted with rheumatism or paralysis will do well to consult Dr. Crow Young, whose home is corner of Tenth and Front streets, Medford, Oregon.
