GERMANS LIKE CANADA.

BARON EDWIN CAMPE.

BARON OTTO STOCKHAUSEN.

Baron Otto Stockhausen and Baron Edwin Campe, two German noblemen are convinced that the easiest way to make money is to go to Canada.

During the last eight months they were in British Columbia, with Vancouver as their headquarters. Both the young Germans are jubilant over their prospects in Canada, where they are interested in mining and forest project with H. von Albersleben, who, they say, has made more than $3,000,000 in three years. They are now on their way to Berlin.

GIANTS WIN.

Davis played but little this year and has shown scarcely any of his old time dash.

The pitchers were not announced officially until just before the game, but it was believed early in the day that the opposing hurlers would be Mathewson and Bender.

The line-ups were announced as follows: Athletics—Lord, lf; Oldring, cf; Collins, 2b; Baker, 3b; Murphy, rf; Davis, lb; Barry, ss; Thomas, c; Bender, p.

Giants—Devore, lf; Doyle, 2b; Snodgrass, cf; Murray, rf; Merkle, 3b; Herzog, 1b; Fletcher, ss; Meyers, c; Mathewson, p.

Philadelphia—Baker singled to center; Murphy flied to Snodgrass; Baker out stealing, Meyers to Doyle; Davis out, Herzog to Merkle. No runs.

New York—Meyers out, Collins to Davis; Maty singled; Devore fanned; Doyle out, Collins to Davis. No runs.

Sixth Inning. Philadelphia—Baker singled to center; Murphy flied to Snodgrass; Baker out stealing, Meyers to Doyle; Davis out, Herzog to Merkle. No runs.

New York—Snodgrass hit by pitched ball; Murray sacrificed, Baker to Davis; Snodgrass stole third; Merkle fanned; Herzog walked; Snodgrass out attempted double steal, Thomas to Collins to Thomas. No runs.

When Snodgrass stole third Baker dropped Thomas' throw. Snodgrass struck Baker feet first, latter receiving a bad cut on left leg. Game stopped.

Seventh Inning. Philadelphia—Baker fanned; Thomas flied, Snodgrass; Bender out, Fletcher to Merkle. No runs.

New York—Fletcher out, Davis unassisted; Meyers doubled to left; Mathewson fanned; Devore doubled, scoring Meyers; Doyle walked; Snodgrass fanned. One run.

Eighth Inning. Philadelphia—Lord fanned; Oldring flied to Devore; Collins out, Maty to Merkle. No runs.

New York—Murray flied to Lord; Merkle bunted safely; Herzog fanned; Fletcher flied. No runs.

Ninth Inning. Philadelphia—Baker out, Merkle unassisted; Murphy popped to Meyers, Davis out at first, Fletcher to Merkle. No runs.

Summary: Solten bases, Doyle, Snodgrass; two base hits, Oldring; two sacrifice hits, Murphy Murray; base on balls, Mathewson 1, Bender 3; struck out, by Mathewson 5; by Bender, 11; hit by pitcher, Snodgrass; passed ball, Meyers. Umpires—Klem, Dineen, Conolly and Breanan.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—With John McGraw and Connie Mack each expressing the utmost confidence in the outcome of the battle; with the players nervous and eager for the cry of "play ball" and with thousands of fans besieging the gates at the ball park long before they were opened, the day for the first game of the world's championship series between the Giants and the Athletics dawned cool and cloudless, with every promise for ideal baseball weather this afternoon.

New signals will be used by both teams, the men having spent the past few weeks in studying them out, especially for this series. Indications are that there will be less betting on the game today than in years unless betting should break at the last minute. The bleacher fans formed in lines early at the grounds and thousands were waiting for admission when the gates opened. A flood of counterfeit tickets caused some trouble and delayed matters considerably at the gates.

Athletics Weakened. The American league champions will enter the contest considerably weakened. "Stuffy" Melmes will not only be unable to play in the opening contest but will probably be out of the series. He has a severely strained wrist and is said to be unable to throw a ball from first to the pitcher's box.

It is doubtful if he will be of any use, even as a pinch hitter.

Harry Davis, the veteran first baseman, who has been with Mack since 1901, will replace Melmes.

HAWLEY HERE BUILDING FENCE

Congressman of This District Spends Day in Medford Interviewing Local People—Predicts Republican Success Next Year.

Looking after his political fences, Congressman Hawley is spending the day in Medford, interviewing local people.

Mr. Hawley predicts republican success for next year. He says that Taft will carry Oregon.

Mr. Hawley conferred today with local fruit growers regarding the possible re-introduction of the La Fean bill in congress.

NEW YORK.—Because the jury sympathized with him in his objection to the extra low cut worn worn by Miss Dorothy Jardon in the "dancer dance" in "Madame Sherry" Ignacio Martinetti is today $6,500 richer.

Martinetti was a dancer in the troop with Miss Jardon. He lost his job in Chicago when he objected to her gown which he maintained was cut "shockingly low." He sued for damage sustained through the loss of his employment.

Davis has played but little this year and has shown scarcely any of his old time dash.
