

REBEL LEADER IS IN UNITED STATES

Dr. Sun Yat Sen Who for Years Has Been Real Leader of Chinese Revolutionists and on Whose Head Is Reward of $100,000 Is in U. S.

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 14.—Somewhere between Denver and San Francisco, today, is Dr. Sun Yat Sen alleged to be the real leader of the Chinese revolution and prospective president of the new anti-Manchu republic in China, who has a price of $100,000 on his head. He is endeavoring to get back to his war stricken country as quickly as possible.

During his sojourn here the doctor raised $1,000 to help the revolt. He said:

"The work which for twenty years has been carried on by myself and loyal members of the anti-Manchu party, hoping to see China released from the oppression which has bound her subjects with the unbreakable chains of unjust taxation and ill-treatment, is now bearing fruit."

PEKING, Oct. 14.—Peking today is an incipient volcano, liable at any moment to break out into flame with accompanying scenes of carnage. Ominous quiet prevails throughout the city, the sort of quiet that causes more concern than scattered out breaks for it shows that the people are acting in unison upon plans that are well organized.

All of the government troops are mutinous, their officers fear to give orders lest the silent mutiny break out into open rebellion and all the foreign residents are gathered at the various legations.

Weakening under the prolonged strain of a rebellion that has been slowly reaching from the outermost limits of the empire, right into the capitol itself, the government is showing every evidence now of receding from its past attitude toward the people. It is offering amnesty to all rebels who submit again to the imperial standard, and is openly expressing contrition for favoring the recent advances made by the United States, France, Germany and England which were so strongly opposed by the masses.

FAIR OFFICIALS LOOK FOR LAND

Several Tracts Have Been Suggested but No Choice Has as Yet Been Made—Permanent Fair Is Now Assured.

The officials of the Southern Oregon District Fair association have decided to commence negotiations for the purchase of a suitable tract of land near Medford for permanent fair grounds and speed track.

Several locations have been suggested but the officials will not decide definitely for several days, but one thing is sure, they will select a site as near the city as is possible.

The recent fair held in Medford demonstrated the fact that to be made a success, the fair must be within easy reach of some city. It is estimated that nine-tenths of the attendance at the fair last week came from Medford.

The regular study class period will be given at the beginning of the school hour and all special rally day features will come in the latter part of the school hour. Reports and inspiring talks will be given. Rev. Eldridge will give a few minutes talk, as will also Attorney Canaday. An invitation is extended to every one interested in Sunday school work to be in attendance.
