EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

(By A. C. Howlett.)

Among the incidents that have occurred recently that I have not been reporting, one is that we had a company who came out from Central Point and gave an entertainment in Spiker's opera house and those who were in attendance report that the play was well rendered, but that there were so many of them and the stage was so small that they were handicapped in that particular, but Mr. Spiker intends in the near future to build an addition to the end of the house, throw the present stage into the hall and have a large stage so as to accommodate all that will come, in fact intends to have as good an opera house in Eagle Point as there is in any of the small towns of southern Oregon, for we don't compete with Portland, Medford or San Francisco, but we are coming some.

Our accomplished saleslady in Von der Hellen's store, Miss Jackson, spent the day in Medford last Saturday.

E. C. Piper of Portland, who owns a tract of land on Eagle Heights, has been a guest at the Sunnyside for the past few days.

C. P. Reed, one of the carpenters who has been working on the new buildings here had a brother to meet him last Saturday. They both went onto Medford on the P. & E.

Mr. Nollis of Florence Rock and a friend of his son by the name of Schultz, spent the night with us Saturday on their way to the F. R. ranch. Mr. Schultz is going up to visit young Mr. Nollis.

Miss Eva Callahan, a niece of W. W. Willits, who has been teaching school in the Cave district eight miles south of Ashland, came in Sunday morning with her cousin, Roy Willits, the stage contractor, on the Eagle Point and Prospect route, and Monday took the stage for Tasart.

Mrs. Montgomery, wife of the late Jack Montgomery, is having a home built on a lot she purchased of S. B. Holmes in the Holmes addition to Eagle Point.

John Ashpole is having an addition put on the end of his home, making more room.

John W. Smith is getting the material on the ground to build on his lot on the Ulrich addition. He says that it is going to be a woodshed, but if it is it will be a large one, but we will see what kind of a structure it will be when completed.

The friends of Jake Jones and Miss Varian Stickle are tendering their congratulations since they went to Jacksonville last Monday and were united in marriage by Rev. Johnson of that place.

Sam H. Harnish has bought the lot formerly occupied by Mr. Fryrear as a site for a livery stable that was burned down a short time ago, and is planning to rebuild and open a barn there.

Mr. Vojoli, the man who built the new hotel near the depot moved his family out last Monday. Mr. Vojoli was accompanied by his niece, whose name I did not learn. Mr. Vojoli informs me that he has leased the hotel to Mr. and Mrs. Farnon. Mr. Farnon will run the barber shop and his wife will attend to the hotel department, while Mr. Vojoli will attend to serving the guests with the different kinds of beverages.

WOODVILLE ITEMS.

Mr. Beck has accepted a position in a general store at Talent and will move his family to that place tomorrow. Mr. and Mrs. Beck will be missed by the people of Woodville and the best wishes of all go with them to their new home.

The town council has purchased a small chemical cart to use in case of fire. This will be used until the waterworks are completed when it will be exchanged for a hose cart.

Mr. Trotter of Medford was in Woodville last Sunday calling on friends.

Mrs. Murray and children went to Ashland last Wednesday to spend a few days.

Rev. M. E. Coen has accepted a call in San Francisco and will leave in a short time for his new charge.

Contractor Young has built him a small house across Rogue river. Mr. Young and the children arrived from the east on Tuesday and will make their home in Woodville.

On last Sunday the Presbyterian Sunday school elected Miss Elda Stolle and Mrs. J. W. Jacobs as delegates to the Sunday school convention in Medford from October 27 to 29.

The young people of Woodville are preparing another home talent play under the management of L. A. Hammersly. Mr. Hammersly has had much experience in this line, having managed traveling companies and we feel certain that this play will be a success. The proceeds will go to the Woodville band.

Mrs. Grace Dix has gone to Galice to teach school.

Mr. and Mrs. H. U. Lumsden, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Hutchinson and Miss Fern, and Mr. and Mrs. George King of Medford passed through Woodville on their way to Bybee Springs last Wednesday.

Mrs. Wheeler, one of the state W. C. T. U. workers, was in Woodville last Thursday and gave a recital in the old school house. The house was packed and Mrs. Wheeler proved an able speaker.

The many friends of John Hillis are sorry to hear that he is quite sick at his Evans Creek ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Herr and family went to Bybee Springs last Saturday returning Sunday evening.

Mrs. E. R. Rosser was in Grants Pass Thursday having some dental work done.

The young people of the church here have formed a Christian Endeavor Society in connection with the church. The following officers were elected: President, George Martin; vice president, Mrs. Freda Loeke; secretary, Miss Elda Stolle; treasurer, J. P. Wirt was a Grants Pass visitor last Friday.

Carl Strahan of Medford, visited in Woodville last Sunday.

The commercial club has made arrangements for a lyceum course in Woodville this winter. There will be four numbers and the season tickets will be $1.50. We hope that every person in and around Woodville who can possibly do so, will purchase a season ticket and thereby encourage this class of entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Collins of Jacksonville spent Sunday in Woodville at the home of Prof. Main. Mr. Collins has a number of friends in Woodville who are always glad to see him.

George L. Ford is acting as water superintendent while Supt. Purkypile is absent in the mountains.

and Dr. Anderson, with Dr. Anderson as chairman of the board and city health officer.

The Christian Science people have commenced work on their new church on West Pine street, corner Haskell street and fronting on Pine street. Watkins, Clarke & Wheeler have the contract and the church will be completed before winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Waltmeyer who have been residing here for the past six months left for Portland Wednesday evening where they expect to remain.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

Mrs. Lizzie Beal of Ashland spent Wednesday with friends here.

C. S. Sanderson spent Wednesday in Ashland.

Mrs. McKellog, Mrs. Geo. E. Fox, Mrs. J. W. Myers, Miss Margaret Enslay, Geo. W. Fox, W. R. Newman, Geo. Gregory and Mr. Berlin spent Wednesday in Medford.

Central Point has a new city board of health consisting of Mayor W. C. Loeber, Councilman R. F. Peart

AUSTRALIAN BOYS TO VISIT MEDFORD

The "Boys of Australia", an aggregation of forty-three young Australian boys who are touring America will be in Medford November 19, and while here will be the guests of the student body of the high school.

The boys are returning the visit made by three Columbia Park boys of San Francisco, who toured Australia and later the Pacific coast, including Medford.

The Boys of Australia will give an entertainment, purely Australian in character, while here.

Look at the ads for the chance to buy the property you need at a "right price."

CHARGE AGAINST OTIS DISMISSED

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 19.—Ruling that the stories printed in the Los Angeles Times on the Beattie murder trial were not in violation of the law, Judge Chesbro today dismissed the charges against General Harrison Gray Otis, principal owner of the Times and several of his editors for printing alleged obscene matter.

TACOMA, Wn.—Pleading that they had not seen previously a copy of the indictments against Guy Kelley, supervisors, Roger Watts, his clerk, and E. H. Schaefer, special agent of the last Tacoma census, got two weeks in which to plead.

NO WORD FROM NORA DARLING

Mother Resent Inference That She Has Determined Whereabouts of Her Daughter Who Disappeared Two Weeks Ago From Her Home.

Nothing has been learned by the authorities or Mrs. Darling, as to the whereabouts of Nora Darling, who disappeared from her home in this city several days ago. Mrs. Darling bitterly resents a report that she has learned of her daughter's whereabouts, fearing that the report will cause those who have sought her daughter to give up the search.

Mrs. Darling is spending as much of her time as possible in searching for the girl but to date has found no clue.

NOTED IMPERSONATOR PLEASURES AUDIENCE

At the First M. E. church last evening was given a most excellent entertainment. Paul Clark Blackwell, noted impersonator and reader from the Leland Powers school in Boston, gave the entire play "The Fortune Hunter," in three acts. The audience was delighted. Mr. Blackwell certainly has the ability and brings out the different characters in a most striking manner. Those who were not in the audience last evening missed a rare treat. Mr. Blackwell is one of the best, if not the best impersonator and reader that has ever appeared in Medford, and it is the wish of all who attended last evening that they may have the privilege of hearing Mr. Blackwell again.

CAPTAIN NASH CONSIDERS ERECTION OF NEW HOTEL

Capt. J. C. T. Nash, owner of the Nash hotel building in this city, is again considering the erection of a modern six-story building to supplant the present structure at the corner of Front and Main streets. Captain Nash has had the matter under consideration for the past three years.

While not stating definitely that he will build he is considering the matter. Should he so decide, work will start in the spring.

TACOMA, Wn.—Boasting that he had several wives scattered about the country, William H. Cameron, former soldier, must serve five years in the penitentiary for bigamy. He pleaded guilty.
