

SCHOOL OFFICERS TO MEET HERE

Will Be in Session at Same Time Teachers Gather in Medford—Joint Session Will Be Held on Friday, October 27.

J. Perry Wells, county school superintendent, has issued the following open letter to school officers throughout the county: "At the last school officers' convention, held in Medford, October, 1910, it was unanimously voted to have the next convention held in connection with the teachers' annual institute, and in accordance with that vote I am calling a convention of the school officers of Jackson county to meet at Medford, Friday, October 27. The annual teachers' institute for Jackson and Josephine counties will be held in Medford, October 25, 26 and 27.

"I believe that much benefit to our schools will be derived from the meeting of teachers and school officers and I wish to strongly urge the attendance of every school director and clerk in the county. It was decided at the last convention to work for the attendance of 200 school officers at this meeting and I trust that we shall have that number present. Please count yourself among the many present and not among the few absent.

"The state superintendent of public instruction and a number of other prominent educators of the state will be present and it will be a rare opportunity to hear some of the best ideas along educational lines presented. You cannot afford to miss this meeting and the district you represent cannot afford to have you miss it.

"The convention will be held in the auditorium of the high school building. At 9 o'clock a. m. the teachers and school officers will meet together and be addressed on the subject of Oregon school law by State Superintendent of Public Instruction, L. R. Alderman. At 10 o'clock the teachers will take up work in the various departments of the institute and the school officers will take up the discussion of one or more of the topics listed below under the direction of Mr. Alderman. At 2 o'clock p. m. the teachers and school officers will again meet together and listen to an address by President J. H. Ackerman of the Oregon Normal school. The meeting will adjourn at 3:30 p. m. Those who can be in Medford Thursday evening should attend the evening lecture by Superintendent Alderman on the subject, "Educational Tendencies," to be given at the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock p. m.

"The law provides that the chairman of each school board shall be a delegate to this convention, but if he is unable to attend he shall appoint some member of the board or the clerk to represent the district. The delegate who represents the district is entitled to receive from the general fund of the county the sum of $2.00 for his expenses. It is hoped that not only one member, but the several members of each board be present. While attending this convention you will be able to see what the teachers are doing in their institute work.

"The 1911 library books are ready for distribution. Come prepared to take those for your district home with you and thus save express charges.

- Following is a list of topics suggested for discussion: 1. School equipment and supplies. 2. How to employ and keep a teacher. 3. Needed school legislation. 4. Consolidation. 5. School taxation. 6. Wider use of school houses. 7. The school and a social center. 8. School board meetings. 9. Size of school grounds. 10. How can the school be made to serve the district better?

BALL PLAYERS WANT MONEY

Refuse to Pose for Moving Picture Machine Unless They Share in the Receipts—'Who Gets the Money,' Is Their Query.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 21.—An unpleasant mercenary tinge is being added to the world's championship series today by squabble among the players in regard to the motion picture receipts. The players are asking why they should pose for the motion picture men without sharing in their receipts. "Who gets the money?" they are demanding. The Giants have reached an understanding among themselves that they will not pose for any more pictures until an agreement is made whereby they get a share of the proceeds.

DO YOU LIVE CHILDREN BOILED?

Do you like children? Not like Charles Lamb said he liked them "B-b-boiled, madam!"—but children in the raw, children like your're, not like your neighbors. If you do, you ought to hear Edmund Vance Cooke, for M-coke's child verses are said to be the most notable of recent years. The New York American says the are equal to Field's and Stevenson's, when those poets were a hair best. Mr. Cooke's "Impromptu Poems," which ran in the Saturday Evening Post, are also well known.

Besides these, he will give humorous character stories in verse and other things calculated to make a man's heart tickle his ribs. Mr. Cooke has the faculty not only of a rib-ticker, but of making his characters live before the audience.
