SAYS WOMEN SHOULD NOT VOTE

"Its All D—n Nonsense" Declares Fiery Senator From Arkansas Who Is on the Coast Honeymooning—Taft's Heart Good, He Says.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 21.—With old dull care sitting astride his massive brow Jeff Davis, the fiery United States senator from Arkansas, with his bride, is in Los Angeles today honeymooning. "I don't believe in women voting," he said. "Its damn nonsense. I wouldn't stand for no man lecturing around my wife." "But," continued the senator, "I like the recall. Put me down strong on that." "And I like Taft," suddenly switched the Arkansan. "He's a good man but surrounded by the wrong advisers. His heart is good. But Woodrow Wilson can beat Taft, and if Taft runs the democrats are going to win." Roosevelt is still boss of the road.

EASTERN TRAINS ARE LATE STRIKERS ARE JUBILANT

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 21.—Eastern trains are arriving here several hours late today, and the strikers' pickets at Oakland and Sacramento report trains arriving from one to eight hours behind time. They claim the first section of the fast mail is 20 hours late. Strikers deny the Southern Pacific statement that 75 new strikebreakers have been secured from among the strikers' ranks. On the contrary, they claim the company lost 100 strikebreakers yesterday. Labor Commissioner McLaughlin has received a complaint that strikebreakers are being employed in the east under misrepresentation. He will investigate.

Fowler Is on His Way.

PASADENA, Cal., Oct. 21.—Aviator Robert G. Fowler resumed his transcontinental trip shortly after 10 o'clock today. He made a perfect start from Tournament park, and after circling several times over the business section of the city, headed eastward and was soon lost to view. Before giving the word to his assistants Fowler said to the United Press that the conditions for a successful flight could not be improved and that he expected no difficulty on the first portion of his journey.

"My schedule calls for a layover at Yuma tonight," said the aviator. "I will go directly east to Banning, via Colton. From Banning I will follow the tracks of the Southern Pacific to the Arizona line. Tell San Francisco goodbye for me. I'm going to make it this time."

TOLD OF ACCIDENT MANY LONG YEARS AGO

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 21.—Fifteen years ago, Mrs. L. K. Adams, well known astrologer, cast her horoscope which told her that she would sustain a fall in 1911 and die of the injury. The prediction came true shortly before midnight when Mrs. Adams died after suffering several weeks from a fractured spine received in a fall. Mrs. Adams took unusual precautions in an effort to defeat the fates she had foretold, according to her son.

HALF-BREED KILLS HIS SWEETHEART

Two Slain, One Wounded by Indian During Fit of Jealousy When Youthful Sweetheart Leaves Him and Seeks Refuge—Is Caught.

OROVILLE, Cal., Oct. 21.—Inez Brooks, aged 15, and Mrs. Lillie Ann Mullings, 40, are dead and William Mullings, 19, son of the latter, is today seriously shot through the left leg, following a murderous attack last night by Edward Williams, a half-breed Indian at the Mullings home in Mooretown, a hamlet 20 miles from this city. Williams himself was probably fatally shot by D. J. Mullings, husband of Lillie Ann Mullings. The half-breed was found in the brush near the scene of the crime early today and brought to the Oroville jail. There is talk of lynching. The murderer is actuated by insane fury because Inez Brooks, a white girl who had been his sweetheart, forsook him and took refuge at the Mullings home. He and the Brooks girl lived at Cascade, a small mining town near Mooretown. They quarreled and she left him, going to the Mullings home. Last night Williams armed himself with a 30-30 calibre rifle and followed to bring her back.

MODERN LIQUOR LAW PASSED AT DALLAS

DALLAS, Ore., Oct. 21.—Control of the thirst problem for the convivially inclined husbands and fathers of Dallas today was placed in the hands of their wives and families by an ordinance passed by the city council which gave any member of a drunkard's family the right to place his name on the blacklist. This right is also extended to the police authorities.

A fine and imprisonment is provided for a person who sells or gives away liquor to any man blacklisted.

Stocks Are Heavy.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The stock market opened heavy, especially for yesterday's late leaders, which lost part of their opening gains. Steel and copper declined a large fraction. Most of the initial losses were regained before the bears stopped the rally but a fresh attack on steel, which dropped to 59 3/4. C. & O. fell two points. Other active issues were heavy and held about the low level. The market closed weak.

Robinson Has Record.

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., Oct. 21.—Aviator Hugh Robinson has established a new aeroplane record, it is announced today, by flying for a distance of 373 miles with a load of 1,000 pounds of mail matter. Robinson is flying from Minneapolis to New Orleans by hydroplane and making his landings on the river. He will remain here for repairs to his machine until Monday.

Former prosecutor Defends.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 21.—R. M. Faulkner, held for passing bad money, appeared with unusual counsel today in the person of former Deputy Prosecutor Finch, who a year ago secured a conviction and sent Faulkner to jail for a year in default of $1000 bail. Finch asserts he secured an unjust conviction at that time and now wants to make things right by defending Faulkner.

UNION RECOVERING FROM RECENT THIFTS

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Cooks, Waiters and Waitresses union of Medford was held Thursday evening, October 19, at Smith's hall. Several new members were initiated and many applicants for membership considered. From the report of the financial secretary, George Corum, and Business Manager and President Bartlett, it was shown that the union is recovering finely from the recent defalcations of its officers, and today is on a firmer basis than before.

COAST LEAGUE SEASON WILL END TOMORROW

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 21.—What is declared today to be the most prosperous financial season in the history of the Pacific coast baseball league will end tomorrow with the playing of double headers over the entire circuit. Before leaving for the east two weeks ago, J. Cal. Ewing of San Francisco declared that every club in the league made money this year, including Sacramento, the weak sister of the circuit. Chances in the circuit for next year appear unlikely at this time. Any change would be one of expansion, taking in Seattle and some other town of the Northwest league. The resignation of President Thomas F. Graham makes a new executive for next year necessary, and it is believed that Al Baum, a sporting writer, will be elected to the office of president, secretary and treasurer.

Ships Rushed to China.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 21.—Satisfied that there is great danger of the Chinese rebellion developing into a gigantic national convulsion, the navy department today took steps to concentrate the whole of the Asiatic squadron near the scene of the trouble. The cruiser Albany has sailed from Manila for Shanghai and the New Orleans has left Shanghai for Nanking. Two torpedo boat destroyers preceded the New Orleans.

This Toaster makes delicious toast right on your breakfast table. You don't have to finish breakfast with cold toast or ring for Mary to make more—and lose your appetite waiting. Neither do you have to leave the table yourself to make it if there is no "Mary" in the kitchen.

The Radiant Toaster is simply constructed. The solid porcelain base supports a nickel wire grid, inclosing a heating element. Every part is sanitary. The grid holds two slices of bread on each side. Rubber feet prevent injury to the table top.

If you have electric light in your home you will find the Toaster a great convenience.
