

STEAMBOAT TO BE WORKED AGAIN

A. W. Shearer Puts in Small Sawmill and Starts Renovation of Famous Old Mine—Eastern People Now Own Mine.

A. W. Shearer, who arrived in Medford a few weeks ago from Portland, has put in a small sawmill at the old Steamboat mine, on the Applegate and is preparing to reopen and renew mining operations on this famous old mine.

This mine is now owned mostly by eastern people and Mr. Shearer, who has an interest in the property, has been directed to place it in working shape and to operate it to the greatest possible extent during the coming winter.

Over 2000 feet of pipe line have been ordered and will be put in position for work immediately following its arrival. The company owns two and a half or three miles of the old river channels and these will all be worked over, as will also many cross channels running higher up on the mountainside, all of which are rich in placer gold.

CRESCENT CITY TO BE REPRESENTED

Two Men Will Be Here to Attend Fall Roundup of Medford Commercial Club on Thursday Night—Outlook Bright at Crescent City.

D. G. Donahue, representing the Del Norte County Commercial club, is in the city for the purpose of attending the fall roundup of the Medford Commercial club. He states that H. S. Wooley will also be present at the meeting.

The Crescent City men will have a message regarding the harbor at that place for the Rogue river valley. Mr. Donahue states that everything is bright for a splendid year in 1912 for Crescent City.

COUPLE IN "BRIGHT EYES" ARE SECRETLY MARRIED

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 24.—A "turn" not on the bill was staged at the Helbig theatre last night when the orchestra struck up Mendelssohn's wedding march as a finale, and Jesse Weil, secretary of the "Bright Eyes" company and Miss Lillian Hagar, a member of the company, were dragged before the footlights and showered with congratulations in front of the audience. The couple had secretly married in the afternoon.

Weil is a nephew of Congressman Weil of New York.

"His Absent Boy" at the Medford Tonight

At the Medford Theatre one night only, Tuesday, October 24. Harry Corson Clarke, the well known comedian, who claims he has discovered the secret of combining business with pleasure, will be seen.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke have visited almost every part of the world, but they always carry wigs, wardrobe and manuscripts, and it is seldom they visit an English speaking country without an invitation from the prominent managers to stop and play a short season. Since Mr. Clarke last played here, he has won success in New York and London, taken a walking tour through the south of England, spent one glorious summer in Normandy, enjoyed the gay life of Paris and revelled in the quaint beauties of picturesque Holland.

Finding himself with a few months to spare, the comedian decided he could not put it to better advantage than to make a short tour of the west, the country in which he won his first success.

SENATOR GORE BOOSTS WILSON

Blind Solon From Oklahoma Is Touring Pacific Coast—Thinks Coast Will Be Allowed to Name Vice President.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 24.—United States Senator Thomas P. Gore of Oklahoma is here today on a lecture tour of the coast. He is ardently advocating Woodrow Wilson for president on the democratic ticket and says he thinks the Pacific coast probably will be allowed to name the vice presidential nominee.

Ahrens' Anniversary.
The Ahrens store is celebrating its first anniversary in Medford by offering very special inducements in merchandise. Mr. Ahrens entered the local field with the idea of giving Medford an exclusive coat, suit, waist, and millinery house. That his efforts are appreciated is shown by the generous patronage he has received. To show that he is grateful for this patronage, prices have been marked to a very low figure, quality considered, upon this birthday occasion. All friends of the store are invited to look at the stock even if they do not wish to purchase.

MRS KENNY WAS TRUE PIONEER

Interesting Letter Written to Her in Chinook Brought to Light—Was Proficient Student of Indian Language.

The death of Mrs. Elizabeth T'Vault Kenney, announced last week in The Mail Tribune, has brought out many reminiscences from Oregon pioneers. The following letter, written to her by the secretary of the Oregon Pioneers' association, illustrates her proficiency in translating Chinook and shows the manner in which she corresponded with the association.

Portland, Ore., June 9, 1906.—Mrs. Elizabeth T'Vault Kenney, Jacksonville, Ore.—My Dear Mrs. Kenney: Mica Tickey chahco copah pinh, chick-chick copah poteland? Mica nanich tenass papeh, yass klosha wawa. Hyn ahcutty Boston tihikums, hyn muckamuck, hyn, he-he! Mica cum-tux? Klahowyan Six, GEORGE H. HIMES, Secretary Oregon Pioneer association. Those who haven't the time to translate the above must be content with the information that it is an invitation to a meeting at Portland where there will be much of interest and much laughter, and one which will be attended by many people.

SOON TO CHOOSE STATION SITE

Committee From State Agricultural College Will Arrive in Medford Next Monday to Determine on Experimental Station Site.

Word has been received from F. C. Reimer of the Oregon Agricultural College that the committee from the college could not come last week but that they expect to arrive in the valley on Monday, October 30. They will stop in Medford and then go out to see the various available sites from here. Professor Reimer is now in Medford and expects to visit the various sites this week.

EDMUND VANCE COOKE PLEASURES AUDIENCE

Edmund Vance Cook, the humorist, poet, gave the people of Medford an evening of rare and high class amusement at the Natatorium last night.

The attendance was not large, but it was a really and truly appreciative one. So happy does Mr. Cooke appear in his verse renditions that not one could there be in the audience who was not happy with him. And again when he becomes serious and sympathetic his audience goes with

MEN JURORS TO STOP SMOKING

That Is, if Women Jurors Have Their Way in Washington; Also Ask for Separate Sleeping Quarters if Locked Up Over Night.

SEATTLE, Wn., Oct. 24.—Protesting that they cannot intelligently serve as jurors unless they can see what is going on, local women doing jury duty have appealed to the county commissioners to compel men jurors to desist from smoking.

"The jury room has been so thick with smoke on several occasions that I could not see my nearest neighbor," said one woman juror. The women also ask for separate sleeping quarters, as they must now sleep in their chairs if locked up.

MOVING PICTURES TO AID M'NAMARAS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 24.—The American Federation of Labor, in a statement issued here today, declares the project of exhibit moving pictures to provide funds for the McNamara defense is "humiliating but necessary."

Pictures portraying the arrest of the McNamaras, scenes in the courtroom at Los Angeles and views of prison life are now being prepared for the federation and will be exhibited in Ohio. They will be taken later to Pittsburg, Washington and other eastern cities.

CONFESSION IN RECORDS.

direction of the district attorney Kaiser did no talking. It is understood, however, that he has already testified before the grand jury at Indianapolis that he sold certain dynamite to the McNamaras.

According to W. E. McPherson, who runs a rooming house on Temple street, overlooking the corridor on the second floor of the jail where the McNamaras take their daily exercise, he has been warned by Sheriff Hammel and Jailor Gallagher not to rent rooms on the jail side.
