GIANTS IN DESPERATE NINTH INNING RALLY TIE THE SCORE; WIN IN TENTH

VICTORY FOR NEW YORK AT LAST MOMENT

Three Pitchers Used by Giants Seemingly Without Avail—Oldring in Third Slugs Out Home Run, Making Three Scores.

PHILLIES NEVER IN DANGER UNTIL NINTH

With Score 3 to 1 Crandall Gets a Two-Bagger and Helps to Score.

The score: R. H. E.
Philadelphia 3 7 1
New York 4 8 2

Batteries: New York, Marquard, Ames, Crandall and Meyers. Philadelphia, Coombs, Plank and Lapp.

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Fighting desperately to the last minute, the New York Giants today plucked victory from defeat and prevented the world's champion Athletics from again grabbing the title. The score was 4 to 3. The final run came in the last half of the tenth inning.

Doyle, the Giants' second baseman, was the hitting sensation of the day. After setting three hits in the earlier part of the game he doubled when he was first man up in the tenth. Then Snodgrass, who had shown nothing in the series, bunted and Doyle took third. Murray then tried to Murphy, but Doyle was held so close to third that he could not score on the throw. Another fly by Merkle to Murphy was long enough, and Doyle raced over with the winning run.

Five pitchers in all were used in the game. Marquard, the Giants' prize beauty, lasted only three innings. He got his when Oldring rapped out a home run, scoring Lapp and Coombs. Ames took Marquard's place and held the Athletics hitless until the seventh when Crandall went in. The Athletics got no more runs. Coombs' downfall came in the ninth when Fletcher, Crandall and Devore got hits, both Fletcher and Crandall scoring. Then Plank went in, and he was solved in the tenth by Doyle's sensational swat, starting the rally which saved the day for New York.

For nine innings Coombs pitched wonderful ball, and both teams were upon the ritzes throughout.

Biggest Gathering of Its Kind in History of Rogue River Valley. Will Be Held at Natatorium Tomorrow Evening—Opens at 8.

The annual fall roundup of the Medford commercial club will be held at the Natatorium hall tomorrow evening, opening at 8 o'clock. Colvig, who will complete his third term as president tomorrow night, will probably be re-elected.

A large number of prominent men will address the session. Among the speakers will be W. H. Gore who did such splendid work during the recent road election, and W. R. Coleman, county clerk, who is said to be "there when it comes to delivering a live hooster talk." Porter J. Neff, Professor P. J. O'Gara and Judge Kelly will be among the speakers.

Judge Colvig is counted on to tell of what the club plans to do in the future, what it has done in the past, and why the good work should be kept up.

There will be good things to listen to and good things to eat. Every live wire in Jackson county should be there.

John A. Overdorf, an employee on the new Sacred Heart hospital, fell from a scaffolding this morning and was injured to such an extent as to make his removal to the hospital expedient.

WILL WORK ON GRADE NEAR PEELOR'S PLACE

John Grieve Now at Work Fitting Up Camp for Convicts—Tents With Stoves in Them Are Provided.

County Judge Neil, Road Engineer Harmon, Road Supervisor Grieve, and the Medford Commercial Club special committee, consisting of Messrs. Reddy, Gerig and Putnam, Tuesday selected a site on the T. M. Peelor ranch at Florence Rock as a camp for the convicts to be sent here next month by Governor West to work upon construction of the Crater Lake highway. The site was offered by Mr. Peelor free.

The camp is a 100 years from the present wagon road, in a sheltered grove of big trees. A spring supplies abundant water. The cook house and commissary used by Contractor Natick in constructing the Pumice Hill grade will be moved to the new site and floored tents, each containing a stove, provided for the convicts. The same site was used as a camp by the Prospect power plant pole crew this summer.

The road to be constructed this winter will be the section from the base of the hill at the Higgenbotham ranch to the new Pumice Hill grade constructed by public subscription this year. This is now the worst part of the Crater Lake highway, the road being steep, narrow and so muddy as to be impassible.

John Grieve will have charge of the convict camp and direct the work. He has a force of men erecting the camp and will have everything in readiness for the convicts by the time they are due, November 1.

Ranchers in the upper Rogue are much pleased at the prospect of road construction by convicts and none of them anticipate any trouble resulting therefrom. Nearly all are in sympathy with Governor West's prison operation.

MOTHER-LOVE BRAVES DEATH

When Burglar Threatens to Shoot Boy Mother Battles With Thief—Is Badly Bruised and Beaten in the Affray.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 25.—Roused to fury when a burglar who was looting her home threatened the life of her child, Mrs. Julian Liebes today has the distinction of having given the thief the fight of his life. This partially consoles her for the loss of $9000 in jewels with which the marauder fled.

When Mrs. Liebes, her maid and her little son George entered Mrs. Liebes' room after dinner the burglar, who had been concealed in a closet, sprang out, leveled his revolver at the child, and snarled: "Not a sound, or I'll kill the boy." Her mother-love aroused, Mrs. Liebes grappled with the intruder and while the maid fled for aid, fought desperately. When the maid's screams had summoned Liebes to the scene the burglar broke away and fled.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 25.—Night sessions are probable in the second trial of Dr. B. C. Hyde, the alleged "germ poisoner," charged with the murder of Colonel Thomas Swope and a number of his relatives which is in progress here today. The examination of talesmen for the jury is proceeding at a snail's pace, and unless the case proceeds faster, night sessions will be inaugurated soon.

NEW RULING BY JUDGE IS AID TO THE DEFENSE

Bordwell Says That If Juror Has an Opinion and There is Doubt as to Divesting Self of That Opinion He Will Be Barred.

ONLY FOUR MEN ARE PASSED BY EACH SIDE

Defense Objects to Questions by Judge—Careful Not to Give Offense.

HALL OF RECORDS, LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 25.—That a juror will not be qualified to try James B. McNamara for murder in connection with the destruction of Los Angeles Times merely because he says he is willing to lay aside any preconceived opinion was made plain by Judge Bordwell today. The court stated he would personal ytake into consideration the qualifications of the juror and where there was any doubt of his ability to divest himself of the opinion he would give the defense that benefit and excuse the juror.

In making this ruling, Judge Bordwell sustained the challenge interposed by the defense against F. J. Mullin. The later said he believed McNamara guilty but was willing to lay that opinion aside and give him a fair trial.

The morning session was enlivened by a protest from the defense against the questioning of A. C. Winter by Judge Bordwell. The defense had challenged Winter for cause because he said he believed the Times was destroyed by dynamite. Attorney Davis is objected to questions propounded by the court, saying he believed them unintentionally framed for the purpose of qualifying the juror. He made it very plain that he was not criticizing the court but was suggesting that possibly certain questions were hardly proper.

Judge Bordwell said his questions were designed to elucidate the frame of mind of the juror.

At the end of the morning session the original four jurors passed for cause by both sides—George W. McKee, Seaborn B. Manning, Robert Bain and F. D. Green—still held their lone seats at one end of the jury box.
