

Week's Happenings in Medford Society

At noon today, at the bride's charming ranch home near Central Point, was solemnized the marriage of Miss Emily Janney to Mr. Henry Ramsey, of Washington, D. C.

The bride was given to the groom by her brother, Mr. Paul Janney.

The house, outside and within, had been transformed into a bower with pink boughs and laurel branches, with their vivid red berries, and in the living room, the altar of pink boughs, before which the young couple took their places, was most artistically relieved with masses of white cosmos and bride bows of white ribbon.

Mrs. Ramsey is the daughter of Mrs. E. M. Janney, and sister of Messrs. Paul, Edwin and Douglas Janney of Medford, all of whom are well known in the valley, and possess the very genuine esteem and affection of all who know her.

The gifts to the bride were many an exceptionally choice.

The wedding was small, being attended by the immediate family and a very few friends. Those present, besides the bride and groom, were Mrs. E. M. Janney, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Janney, Mr. and Mrs. Kirby S. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Delroy Getchell, Mrs. S. R. Holmes, Mrs. E. S. Parsons, Rev. Shields, Mr. Edwin Janney, Mr. Douglas Janney and Misses Dorothy Parsons and Dorothy Miller.

Mrs. Wm. Budge entertained the Ladies' Sewing Club Friday afternoon. The guests numbered seven.

Mrs. W. J. Warner is spending the week-end with Miss Lula Prim in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. King, former residents of Medford, are now living near Sebastopol, California, where Mr. King has purchased a twenty acre Gravenstein apple orchard.

Mrs. Fred N. Cummings returned to Medford Thursday after a several weeks' visit to Portland and is at her home on West Eleventh street.

Miss Minnie Jackson leaves today for Eugene for a few days' stay at her sorority house. Miss Jackson will return to Eugene in February to continue her studies in the state university.

Wednesday evening, Superintendent U. S. Collins and the teachers of the Medford schools gave a reception for the out-of-town teachers who are attending the annual teachers' institute. A musical program was given in the high school auditorium of members by the mandolin club and the high school glee club, which latter consists of about forty young boys and girls; also a violin solo by Miss Ione Flynn; a reading by Mr. R. V. Dunham, principal of the north school, and a vocal number by Misses Hare and Coffin which was illustrated by colored pictures thrown on the sheet from the high school stereopticon.

Miss Flora Gray held a pupils piano recital Wednesday afternoon in her studio at room 3, St. Mark's building. The 22nd being the centennial of Liszt's birth, a special study was made of various pieces of this famous composer's life. Those who played in the program were: Pauline Johnson, Ansil Davis, Florence Johns, Woodsum McDonald,

BRIGHT EYES

CECIL LEAN

FLORENCE HOLBROOK

Medford society is taking a great deal of interest in the appearance of "Bright Eyes" at the Medford next Tuesday evening. A large number of theater parties have been arranged for the evening, which will be followed with after-theatre suppers in local grills.

Invitations have been sent out announcing the engagement of W. W. Allen of Marshall, Illinois, and Miss Bertha Langley of Medford.

The marriage of Miss Susan Lydia Watson and Emil Frederick Schmidt both of Medford, took place Tuesday evening, October 24, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Weld, 724 West Eleventh street, the Rev. E. O. Eldridge of the M. E. church officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt are at home at 315 North Bartlett.

Mothers' Day was appropriately observed Thursday afternoon at the Baptist church by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The following program was rendered: Song "Precious Promise" Devotional Mrs. Leonard Prayer Mrs. Young Duet Mrs. Baker and Miss Price Reading Mrs. Howell Short talk Dr. Myrtle Lockwood Duet Mrs. Burgess and Quisenberry Reading Mrs. Webster

Mrs. J. D. Cook, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Foster, 235 East Main, has returned to her home in Three Pines.

Mrs. H. H. Hicks was called to Olympia, Washington, Monday, by the death of her mother.

The members of the First Methodist church gave a most pleasing reception Wednesday evening to their recently installed pastor, Rev. O. L. Eldridge, and Mrs. Eldridge. Mr. E. Steep gave a few words of welcome and after a response and short talks by the pastor, a musical program was rendered. The participants of the program were: The Sunday school orchestra, Clarence Meeker, Miss Rose Fielder, Mrs. Van Scoy, Mr. Clarence Hoy, Mrs. Eastman and Miss Coffin.

Miss Flora Gray held a pupils piano recital Wednesday afternoon in her studio at room 3, St. Mark's building. The 22nd being the centennial of Liszt's birth, a special study was made of various pieces of this famous composer's life. Those who played in the program were: Pauline Johnson, Ansil Davis, Florence Johns, Woodsum McDonald,

Margaret Hoy, Dorothy Alexander, Jeannette Patterson and Charlotte Hoy.

The Friday Bridge Club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Harold Lamsden at her home on South Holly street.

Miss Gertrude Treichler is entertaining several young ladies this afternoon. Needlework will occupy most of the time.

Miss Hazel Antle gave a Halloween party Thursday evening to several of her friends. The evening was spent with contests, games, fortune-telling and the usual jollifications connected with this season. The open rooms were decorated with pumpkin vines and autumn leaves, the dining room being especially pretty with a huge pumpkin face on the dining table, the punch-table in one corner decorated in yellow shades, also numerous paper-mache pumpkins on the plate rail. The latter were given to the guests on their departure as favors. The refreshments were sandwiches and pickles, individual pumpkin pies, ice cream and cake, candies and fruit punch.

Miss Hazel's guests were: Laura Page, Jean Budge, Mercedes Barber, Jeannette Patterson, Esther Warner, Annette Wakemau, Ruth Warner, Eva McClatchie, Carter Brandon, Floyd Hart, Kenneth Jerome, Yale Waterman, Farnes Bennett, Charlie Ray, Newell Barber, Charles Carr and Herbert Alford.

The Wednesday Bridge Club met this week with Mrs. R. F. Antle. The ladies in this club are Mesdames Barneburg, McGowan, Boyden, Criswell, Scott Davis, Perry, Hargrave, O'Brien, Shermerhorn, Johnson and Miss Gertrude Weeks. A silver spoon was given Miss Weeks who won the highest score. Mrs. Barneburg entertains the club next week.

Mrs. L. B. Warner has been spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. J. G. Gore at the Gore ranch.

Mr. Samain of Portland has been in Medford this week in the interests of the Women of Woodcraft, which organization is in its fifteenth year in this city. At their meeting this week six new members were received and forty applications for membership sent in.

The members of the Baptist church held their annual banquet Thursday evening in St. Mark's hall. The long tables were loaded with good dishes, fruits and autumn leaves. Mr. H. C. Garnett filled well the office of toastmaster. Responses were given by Mr. DeArmond, Mr. Mears, Mrs. Holmes, Mr. J. Arnell, Sunday School Superintendent, Rev. Holmes, H. H. Tuttle and S. L. Bennett. Mr. Bennett told the story of the founding of this church when there were nine members, of which he was the only man, and followed the growth of the church up to its present flourishing condition.

A programme followed the banquet. The numbers were: Reading Mrs. Webster Vocal Solo Miss Bronckley Piano Solo Miss Vromann Reading Mrs. Webster Vocal Solo Miss Hinman This evening took the place of the October social.

Mrs. E. B. Hanley was a bridge hostess Thursday at her beautiful suburban home on the Jackson-Central Point road. The day marked the fifth birthday anniversary of Mrs. Hanley's small daughter and the center of the decorative feature in the large living room was the birthday table at which little Miss Hanley entertained a number of little girls with lunch. Mrs. Hanley's guests were Mesdames Ray, Manning, Madden, Budge, Stokes, Hafer, Harmon, Ran, Piero and Misses Mabel Ray and Clara Manning. Mrs. Manning was presented with a cutglass nappy with silver deposits as a souvenir of the occasion.

Mrs. Helen Gale entertained last Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. J. D. Cook of Three Pines, who has been the guest of Mrs. H. E. Foster. Cake and coffee were served and the guests were Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Harmon, Mrs. W. J. Warner, and Mrs. M. M. Taylor of Jacksonville.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church meets Tuesday afternoon in the parlors of the church.

Mrs. Roseco Johnson and Mrs. Ellis will serve.

Mrs. Joe Rader of Phoenix has been the guest this week of friends in Grants Pass.

Mrs. Helen Gale assisted by Mrs. Bert Harmon gave a very pretty children's party Wednesday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. Wm. Colvig, in honor of the fourth birthday of her son, Windsor. The little guests were Miss Aileen Crawford, Miss Mary Alice Foster, Miss Rowen Gale and Master Allen Perry.

Mrs. Edgar Hafer was hostess Wednesday evening at an informal dinner after which bridge was played.

The first regular business and social meeting of Reames Chapter, O. E. S. to be held in the newly remodeled hall, took place Wednesday evening. Mrs. E. B. Pickel was chairman of the social committee. The next regular meeting takes place the second Wednesday in November and there will also be a social.

Edmund Vance Cook, the poet, who was presented Monday night by the Brotherhood of the M. E. church as the first attraction on their lecture course, was one of the best attractions of the week. He recites his own poems only and covers a wide field of humor and pathos. The next number of the course is the English Bell Ringers, November 21.

Miss Lila Marshall has arrived in Medford to spend the winter with her aunt, Mrs. Gus Newbury.

Miss Ella Guynaw has returned from a visit to friends in Grants Pass.

Mr. J. O. Richardson and daughter Miss Grace, have returned to their home in Vicksburg, Michigan.

Miss Rosamond Kennedy has had the Misses Hilda and Lydia Giesburg of Montague, Calif, as her guests during the week.

Mrs. Prudence Stokes Brown who gave an educational lecture at the opera house Thursday evening, also gave an address Wednesday afternoon before the county teachers' institute.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Merriman have gone to Tuscan Springs, Calif, for the benefit of Mrs. Merriman's health.

Dr. Henry Hart, 43 North Orange street, has as his guest Dr. L. B. Ashton of Tacoma.

Mrs. Harry Schuler is visiting her mother, Mrs. Potter, in Woodville.

Mrs. Jesse Hanks and Miss Vivian Cardwell, who were called to Jacksonville by the death of their grandmother, Mrs. Kinney, have returned to their home in Canyonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gerig are spending the week in Portland.

The twentieth annual Sunday school convention which is now in session at the Baptist church has brought an enthusiastic crowd of Sunday school workers from all over the county. The program for today and tomorrow appears elsewhere in these columns.

Mrs. H. N. Butler has been the guest of Ashland friends during the week.

Mrs. Frances Haskins has returned from an outing at Klamath Falls.

Mrs. H. E. Morrison is home from an extended visit in Chicago.

Mrs. H. P. Hargrave returned Tuesday morning from a four months visit with relatives in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stoddard have been enjoying a visit from Mr. Stoddard's brother, A. L. Stoddard, of Washington, D. C.

Miss Catherine Curkin who came recently from Hillsboro, N. D., but who is now a resident of the valley, is a house-guest over Sunday of Miss Gertrude Treichler who lives on South Oakdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Newbury returned Thursday from a short business and social visit to Spokane and other Washington points.

The Greater Medford Club gave a reception Wednesday afternoon in St. Mark's Hall to all ladies in and near Medford. The purpose of the reception as presented in a few words of Mrs. E. S. Parsons was to arouse more interest in the business meetings of the club, which are held in St. Mark's Hall the last Monday of every month, and every lady whether living here or visiting is invited to be present.

Under the direction of Mesdames Wm Budge, W. I. Vawter, M. L. Alford, J. T. Sullivan and E. B. Pickel, the large hall was most effectively decorated with the brilliant laurel berries and marigold and the parlors with a profusion of pink and white roses.

An excellent musical programme was given and each participant responded to the applause with an encore.

The young ladies who ushered and also served the light refreshments were Misses Bertha English, Hazel Davis, Madge Riddell, Bess Kentner, Fern Hutchinson, Caroline Smith, Ida Lee Kentner and Everhard.

The success of the occasion was due to the efforts of Mesdames Irvington, Worthington, Wm. Budge, C. M. English and H. C. Kentner.

Following is the programme: Ballade Chopin Miss Fern Hutchinson. Vocal Solo Garden by the Sea Mr. Charles Hoy. Violin Solo Tyrolean Home Sounds Miss Sullivan. Vocal Solo Her Voice Miss Florence Hazelrigg. Rhapsodie Hongroise No. 11. Miss Lila Grigsby.

The Wednesday Sewing Club met this week with Miss Caroline Smith and next week will be entertained by Miss Phoebe Hance. The young ladies of the club are Misses Mary and Lila Grigsby, Jeannette Osgood, Phoebe Hance, Mabel Scantlin and Caroline Smith.

The Greater Medford Club holds a business meeting Monday afternoon at 3 p. m. in the parlors of St. Mark's hall. Mayor Canon will address the ladies on "The Ideal Medford." Every lady in Medford is invited to attend.

Miss Vera Lane gave some of her friends a pleasant evening when she entertained Friday evening at her home on South Holly street. All the fun of fortune hunting and other mystic ceremonies were indulged in. The house was decorated with the usual autumn and Halloween colors. Light refreshments and drinks were served.

LONDON—George Bernard Shaw is reported to be preparing to emerge from retirement and start a socialistic newspaper, with his friend Sidney Webb, of poor law fame.

NEW YORK, Oct.—A bill to tax all professional ball clubs a portion of their gross receipts will be introduced at the New York legislature.

OAKLAND, Cal.—Standing in the doorway of an undertaking establishment today, Mrs. Fred Fass, wife of an Oakland barber, placed a revolver to her heart and ended her life. She is thought to have been temporarily unbalanced.

NEW YORK—Paralleling the case of Dorothy Arnold, the New York heiress who disappeared some months ago, Miss Consuelo Fajardo, 19, a Porto Rican heiress, is missing here today. She left the Hotel Felix-Portland October 18 saying she was going to buy a magazine and has not been seen since.

SEATTLE, Wn.—Seattle Chinese are jubilant over the reports of insurgent victories, particularly the capture of Canton province. The Young China Independence society will hold a big demonstration meeting in Chinatown Sunday.

HEIRESS WEDS MINER. HELENA, Mont., Oct. 28.—Following information that Miss Marie Cruse only a few months divorced from Alva O'Brien of New York, had eloped with Harry Cotton, a Butte miner, Thomas Cruse, her multi-millionaire father, today denied himself to all callers. Friends of the bride and attaches at the Cruse home here say that she will be dishonored by her father, who owns several valuable mines near Helena.