EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

(By A. C. Howlett.) (By A. C. Howlett,)

Mrs. L. R. Galiker and daughter, t daughter of our townsman John Jordan, and sister of Mrs. E. S. Wolfer, who has been visiting her parents here, started for her home in Alita, Iowa, last Wednesday. They were accompanied as far as Medford by her father. Your Eagle Point correspondent went to Medford on business last Wednesday on the P. & E. railroad, and while on the car met Prof. W. E. Buchanan, principal of the Butte Falls school, and one of his assistants. Miss A. W. Barrett. The other assistant, Miss Leta Peelor, had preceded them the day before to Medford, where they were going to attend the institute. I also met the two Misses Culbertson, of Lake Creek, Mand Ames, William and F. J. Brown of Eagle Point, besides quite a number of familiar faces whose names I cannot recall, and on my return met J. W. Grover, who has just returned from a trip to the east. He, or rather they, for he had his family with him, took the trip via Los Angeles, Cal., Mexico, New Orleans, railroad to Scattle, Portland, etc. back home, and after traveling all that distance and being gone several months, about 9000 miles, comes back and makes the statement that Rogue river valley is the best country he has seen, taking everything into the account. He says that things changed considerably since he left there some 17 years ago, the people seem to be more progressive than they were when he left, and times are more lively, and conveyed the idea Charles Reynolds and ner two boys to my mind that they had borrowed with her, they stopping and Mr. Hansome of the progressive spirit of the lay going on up Butte creek, return-Referring again to Professor Buchanan of Butte Falls, while in conversation with him on the car he informed me that they had 75 names and it being the first time Mr. Carey enrolled on the school register and was ever out here, after staying in 10 in the high school grade, with a Medford for four years, and he was good prospect for the roll to be so delighted with our place and sur-
