EAGLE POINT EAGLETS. (By A. C. Howlett.) (By A. C. Howlett.) I see that M. L. Dally, our new telephone operator, has put in a new booth in his store so as to shut off the noise while parties are talking over the phone. Mr. Buchter of Medford was out a few days ago giving instructions to Mr. and Mrs. Dally as to how to operate the switchboard to the best advantage.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS. Geo. Wright of Prospect was in Central Point the first of the week getting supplies. The Misses Deford of Sams valley who are attending school here, have returned from a short visit with home folks.

Miss Rita Andrews of Griffin creek was visiting Miss Colby of Brownsboro last Saturday and Sunday and while passing through town called on Mrs. M. L. Dally. C. T. Brown, a cousin of Mrs. A. J. Flory, was among us last Friday night. He is teaching in what is known as West Prospect district. Also Miss March Kingdall, who is teaching in Prospect, was among us, a guest at the Sunnyside. They both took the train Saturday morning for Durby, where they were to be met by a party with a rig to take them to their homes.

The Hallowe'en social given by the women of the Methodist Episcopal church Monday evening proved a great success both socially and financially. An old-fashioned Dutch supper was served from 5:30 until 7:30 and all there had a taste of things like mother used to make which made them feel young again and once more in the home sweet home of childhood. The hall was beautifully and tastefully decorated with numerous colors of autumn leaves, corn, flowers, pumpkins, etc. Fortune telling was a great amusement of the evening bringing forth great peals of laughter, while the witches, ghosts and merry maids flitting here and there greatly helped to amuse the audience.

W. W. Whitte of Persist came out Friday bringing with him James Ringer, who has been up there painting the schoolhouse in that district. Miss Martha Kochescheldt, who is engaged teaching on Lake creek and has been attending the teachers' convention in Medford, came out Saturday morning, took dinner at the Sunnyside and went on to her home in the afternoon on the Lake creek stage. Mr. McCabe, our apple man, who supplies many of our townsmen with peaches, apples and vegetables, was among us Saturday.

Miss Mamie Wright was greeting friends in Eagle Point Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Cona B. Whitaker, the Durby teacher, was the guest of Mrs. Zimmerman last Friday night. She had been in attending the institute and Miss Mary How, teaching an Elk creek, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Childreth Saturday night and Sunday. Miss Inez H. Willets, Miss Linnie Currier of Persist and Miss Beatrice Spencer of Dudley were guests at the Sunnyside, and Prof. C. E. Johnson, of Trail spent Sunday in our town, and Mr. Johnson, Misses How, Currier and Willets took the E. P. & Prospect stage Monday morning for their respective homes. They all with whom I talked report having had a most enjoyable time at the institute and speak in high terms of the hospitality of the citizens of Medford.

The Bantlats are still continuing their meeting at Eagle Point and on Sunday had an addition of seven to the church organization. The concert given here last Saturday night by Prof. Skovgaard was fairly well attended and highly spoken of. I see that Heath & Diamond are receiving a lot of grain in their warehouse.

appearance of Everett Dally, 18, son of a wealthy Youngstown, Ohio, merchant, has added another mystery to Chinatown's long list. Police today are investigating every Chinese dive and resort on the Barbary coast in an effort to get some trace of the lad who came here with his father and mother from Seattle on a tour of the coast, and vanished during a sightseeing trip.

TELEGRAPHIC TABLOIDS. WHITTIER, Cal.—A Quaker, a Prohibitionist and an Progressive. Mrs. Lydia Sharpless, 101 years old today, became a voter in California. "I think I am old enough to vote," declared the matron primly, as she signed her registration blank. CORDOVA, Alaska—Captain Durkee reports sighting a derelict schooner of unknown identity 20 miles east of Cape Suckling, while en route to Katalla from Yukutat. The vessel is about 100 feet long and is floating bottom side up. No vessels are overdue here. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—The dis-

PENNSYLVANIANS TO MEET SATURDAY

Much interest is being manifested in the gathering of native Pennsylvanians who will meet on Saturday, November 4, in the reading room of the Presbyterian church, Medford. All Pennsylvanians are invited, and every Pennsylvanian is to tell the other Pennsylvanians about it. The meeting is at 11 a. m. Basket dinner at 12. Everybody is to bring enough for himself and one more. Pennsylvania generosity and hospitality must be shown. Some good addresses. Reminiscences by all. Good social time. Everything Pennsylvanian. Wives and husbands of Pennsylvanians are members of this society.

NEGRO BOY NEED NOT BE HANGED

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 31.—Governor Donaghey today announced that he had commuted the sentence of hanging on Earl Gilchrist, a negro boy, to fifteen years in the penitentiary.

Braves Death to Test Boat.

TACOMA, Wn., Oct. 31.—L. E. Geary, inventor of an appliance for cutting loose a boat and dropping it into the water from a swiftly moving stream, took his life in his hands and dropped in the lifeboat from the steamer Indianapolis, en route to this city, from Seattle, off Duwamish Head, where the water is 400 feet deep. The boat dropped with Geary in it, into the wash of the steamer and was lost in spray, but emerged in a moment safely.
