GOOD HOUSEKEEPING NEWS

VOL. I. SATURDAY, NOV. 4. NO. 4

NOTE.—We will give in this column, from time to time, hints on the preparation and use of meat food products that may be used for the betterment of and economy in your cooking.—Union Meat Co.

REGARDING BACON. Bacon, when carefully selected, cured and prepared for the table, is one of the most delicious breakfast dishes that one can eat.

There are many ways to cure bacon, but the best bacon is cured dry with pure sugar and salt. It is in this manner that we cure Columbia Bacon.

The most extreme care is exercised in the selection of the sides and these are cured as above described in dry, tight, sanitary boxes. Dry curing adds to the firmness of the meat and the method employed insures the most delicious, uniform flavor.

Owing to the firm dry cure, Columbia Bacon should be put on a cold skillet and allowed to fry very slowly. A slice or two used in garnishing fish, fowl and even roasts will be found to add richness to their flavor.

All of our products are Government inspected.—Union Meat Co.

LIBRARY DINING ROOM PARLOR BEDROOM. The Famous Rayo Lamp. The Rayo Lamp is the best and most serviceable lamp you can find for any part of your home. It is in use in millions of families. Its strong white light has made it famous. And it never flickers. In the dining-room or the parlor the Rayo gives just the light that is most effective. It is a becoming lamp—in itself and to you. Just the lamp, too, for bedroom or library, where a clear, steady light is needed. The Rayo is made of solid brass, nickel-plated; also in numerous other styles and finishes. Easily lighted without removing shade or chimney; easy to clean and rewick. Ask your dealer to show you his line of Rayo lamps; or write for descriptive circular to any agency of the Standard Oil Company (Incorporated)
