

"CONVICT CAMP" IS MISNOMER 311 MEMBERS OF CLUB ARE ACTIVE

Commercial Club Passes Resolution Rechristening It "Honor Camp No. 1"—Governor West Is Commended by Club.

"Convict Camp No. 1" is no longer to be thus designated. The Medford Commercial Club at its meeting Monday evening passed a resolution rechristening it "Honor Camp No. 1" and requesting all to hereafter call the prisoners at work upon the Crater Lake highway "Honor Men" instead of convicts.

Talks were made commending Governor West for his interest in this section and approving his prison policy, which it is evident, has struck a popular chord.

Monday "Honor Camp" was visited by Dr. J. F. Reddy and Engineer Harmon. They found the men well contented and pleased with their surroundings and enjoying their work. A request for old magazines and literature made to the people of Medford by the honor men. It can be left at the Pacific & Eastern depot addressed to "Honor Camp No. 1," Prospect, Ore., or given to County Engineer Harmon, Dr. J. F. Reddy or to Dr. E. H. Porter, who has volunteered his services as physician to the camp and will visit it weekly.

YOUNG MAN NO LONGER RECOGNIZES FRIENDS

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 7.—Accompanied by an alienist who went with her to Hillsboro to ascertain whether any accident had occurred there to her son, Bernard Marvin, that would cause the strange lapse of memory from which he is suffering, Mrs. C. E. Leiberg returned here today. She investigated the rumor that Marvin was assaulted while working at Hillsboro as a civil engineer and found it to be untrue, and is now at loss to explain his case.

Marvin, who is closely watched here, maintained that his name is Lewis and that he is a logger. He insists he never attended the University of California and is suspicious of Mrs. Leiberg, whom he asserts is not his mother.

Physicians who have examined him are of the opinion that the young man was injured about the head recently, and that an operation will restore his memory.

Before arrangements are concluded it will be necessary to sell sufficient tickets in advance to assure the guarantee and a preliminary canvass will soon be made.

ELECTION GOLD HILL POSTPONED

Fault Is Found in Provisions in New Charter and Election Is Put Off Until It Can Be Changed—New Charter Finds Favor.

As a result of a protest and "get-together" meeting held Friday night at Gold Hill, the special charter election scheduled for Monday was postponed until November 20, when a much altered charter will come up for the approval of the voters.

When the proposed charter was published there were many who found fault with some of the provisions. At the protest meeting Mayor Beeman appointed a committee of five to go over the charter and make necessary changes and amendments and as a result a new charter, which the Gold Hill residents say is the best ever, has been drawn up. There seems to be no doubt as to its passing at the election November 20.

GIRL DISGUISED AS BOY, RIDES THE RODS

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 7.—To stand trial for the theft of a motorcycle on which he and Carmen Wells, a girl who wore men's clothing, rode from Portland to Grants Pass, Oliver Williamson, a chauffeur, is in jail here today. He was brought back from San Francisco, where he and the girl were arrested after they had beaten their way on a freight train from Grants Pass. Williamson sold the machine at Grants Pass for $50, he said. It is reported that the girl avowed her affection for Williamson and said she would ride the brake-beams back to Portland as soon as she was released by the California authorities.

The girl, who came from Montana, was arrested here recently for masquerading as a man. She was released after she explained that she found she could earn more money disguised in male attire. She is an expert machinist.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Miss Anne Morgan, daughter of the money king, ate a "two-bit" meal of corned beef, cabbage, dumplings and coffee, with mechanics at the Brooklyn navy yard workmen's restaurant while a time register on a waiting taxicab sped into the dollars. She founded the restaurant several years ago.

The Power of Personality.

The power of personality was never better illustrated than in the case of the members of the Whitney Brothers Quartette. Most successful musicians win the audience after the audience has had a chance to hear their work, for audiences, generally speaking, are from Missouri.

Such, however, is not true of the Whitneys. The moment this quartette of remarkable brothers appear upon the platform, they capture the audience. The people in front of the footlights see four fine looking, clean, wholesome fellows. Their attitude is one of sincerity, and this fact the audience instinctively recognizes. No matter how large the assemblage, the atmosphere of a Whitney concert is that of a group of friends gathered together to spend a pleasant evening as one might spend into a neighbor's home to spend the evening. DR. KNABE MAY HAVE KILLED SELF

Such Is Opinion Expressed by William J. Burns After a Careful Investigation of the Puzzling Case.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 7.—That Dr. Helen Knabe, the former state pathologist who was found lying dead in her office here, was not the victim of a cunningly planned murder, but took her own life in a fit of despondency over professional reverses, is the opinion expressed here today by William J. Burns, head of the national detective agency, after a careful investigation of the case. Dr. Knabe was found lying almost nude on the floor of her office with her throat cut.
