(Continued from Friday.) For once I am in sympathy with Roland, whose tone betrays his desire to bring Tracey's exasperating neck.

Tracey Tanker. Gresham & Jones for some body water strips. "Where'd he get the money?" There's fine scorn in Roland's comment.

CAPTAIN PUTS BOY ASHORE ALONE SEATTLE, Wn., Nov. 11.—Protesting at the action of Captain John Johnson of the steamship Alameda in putting off a 15-year-old boy stowaway on the bleak shores of San Juan Island, miles from habitation, without food or shelter, the passengers of the vessel have presented a petition to the Alaska Steamship company. The boy was found aboard after leaving Valdez. When discovered, the captain flew into a rage. The passengers, learning of his intention to put the boy on the island, offered to pay double the amount of his fare, which was refused. In a lifeboat, without even a coat to wear, the lad was set ashore while the passengers were not looking. His fate is unknown.

"How long was you there, Hitt?" "From 9 o'clock to noon." "What doin'?" "Nuthin'—jes' settin' round." "I seen him today goin' into the bank. Guess he must 've gone to see Lockwood 'bout that note." "Well, I don't envy him his call on Blinky Lockwood none." "Mebbe he went in to deposit his coupons," Watty chuckled. Hiram snorted, and there was silence while he filled and lit his pipe. "I hear'n tell this mornin'," he resumed, "that Josie Lockwood's goin' to give a party next week." "Yes, I hear'n it too. Angie Tutthill was talkin' 'bout it to Mame Garrison up to Leonard & Call's. She said they was goin' to have the biggest time this town ever see—goin' to decorate the grounds with lanterns and have ice cream sent from Philadelphia, and cakes too. Can't make out what's come into Blinky to let that gal of his waste money like that." "I figger," says Hiram after a sapient pause, "she must be gettin' it up for that New York dood." "Duncan?" "Uh-huh." "I didn't know he was 'quainted with the Lockwoods." "I didn't know he was 'quainted with nobody."

Attempt on Judge. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—Drawing a revolver during a crowded extra session of the superior court, Charles Adler of the Union Electric company made a sensational attempt to kill Judge J. J. Trboeco. The judge's life was only saved by the prompt action of bystanders who knocked his arm up as he was about to pull the trigger. Before officers could act, Trboeco rushed Adler out of the court and into a taxicab. He escaped. "I'll get another gun and get him yet," cried Adler as the door of the taxicab was slammed behind, who literally threw him into it to assist his escape.

COOK AND PEARY ROW IS REPEATED

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 11.—Sitting over their vodka at the "North Pole" here, George Vazovloff and Dimetri Dioteheff hurred, Finnish aspersions across the table. "I discovered the place," announced Vazovloff. "I was here before you," cried Dioteheff. A frigid silence. Then the lie. A torrid rise. And Dimetri pulled the "North Pole" sign up and landed one on George's dome. "Repetition of the Cook-Perary controversy," said Police Judge Shortall today. "The North Pole is no better than any other booze emporium. Why argue? Ten dollars or ten days."

The Rayo Lamp The Lamp That Saves The Eyes Children naturally never think of possible strain on their eyesight when poring over a fascinating book. It is up to you to see they do not ruin their young eyes these long evenings by reading under a poor light. The Rayo Lamp is an insurance against eye troubles, alike for young and old. The Rayo is a low-priced lamp, but it is constructed on the soundest scientific principles, and there is not a better lamp made at any price. It is easy on the eye because its light is so soft and white and widely diffused. And a Rayo Lamp never flickers. Easily lighted without removing shade or chimney; easy to clean and retick. Solid brass throughout, with handsome nickel finish; also in many other styles and finishes. Ask your dealer to show you the line of Rayo lamps; or write for descriptive circular to any agency of the Standard Oil Company (Incorporated)
