CHORUS BEAUTIES IN "THE GIRL, THE MAN AND THE GAME" AT MEDFORD THEATRE TONIGHT

Brimful of new faces, new songs, new costumes, new dances and new music Billy Clifford will open an engagement at the Medford theatre on November 15 for one night in his eminently successful musical feast, "The Girl, The Man and The Game."

Not entirely satisfied with his exit of last season Mr. Clifford at the close of the season immediately hastened to New York to obtain a prima donna and soubrette, superior to those of last season. After many weary weeks he successfully outbid all the New York magnates and for the prima donna role secured Miss Wilhelma Bowman, whose vocal ability of great merit, combined with a fascinating stage presence, have made for her an enviable reputation. For the soubrette role Billy was also very fortunate to secure the services of Petite Mae Collins, a very clever little Titan haired actress of the type of Marguerite Clarke, and who scored a great success the past year in several New York productions the last of which was alternating in the title role of the Pink Lady. These two clever artists are a great improvement in the cast of last season.
