COMMISSION IS SHORN OF POWER

Think Recent Decision by Commerce Court Will Precipitate Another Legislative Struggle to Clothe Commission With Authority.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 15.—That the interstate commerce commission has been virtually shorn of its powers as a result of the decision of the court of commerce in the long and short haul case is declared today by men who have for years been actively connected with the commission's work. They believe that the court's decision will precipitate another legislative struggle to empower the commission with authority to act.
 Officials say the decision means that the commission cannot fix "blanket rates" but must confine itself to fixing the tariffs in special cases. All attempts on the part of the commission to fix at the country's rates gradually will therefore be impossible.

AGED PIONEER WOMAN SAVES PIONEER CABIN

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Nov. 15.—The famous pioneer log cabin which had been ordered removed from close proximity to the new Carnegie library, was saved from destruction yesterday by Mrs. Mary Crandell, the oldest pioneer woman in the San Bernardino valley.

Weighted with the burden of 90 years, Mrs. Crandell appeared before the city council and with tears streaming down her cheeks, asked that the log cabin be spared. Her appeal went straight to the hearts of the councilmen, and as a result they ordered that the cabin be removed to a site in Lugo park, in the heart of the city.

INJURED WHILE WATCHING CAR WORK; WANTS DAMAGES

SEATTLE, Wa., Nov. 15.—Because he wanted to buy an automobile and was injured while having a machine demonstrated, H. M. Winter has brought $7500 suit against the Winton Motor Carriage company. Winter charges that the chauffeur of the trial machine ran him into a telegraph pole, injuring him so that his eyesight is permanently impaired.

Japs Send Adviser.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Kokichi Mizuno, Japanese consul general here, has been ordered to Pekin, to become adviser to the Japanese ambassador to China.

TELEGRAPHIC TABLOIDS.

PUYALLUP, Wa.—Following the example of the farmers in the neighborhood of the state agricultural school at Pullman, farmers here want to arrange a four weeks' course in agriculture.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—Three hundred pumpkin pies can be made from a single pumpkin, placed on exhibit here by the California Development board. It was grown near Nollister, Cal., and weighs 215 pounds.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—"Nevah do nothin' for nobody, 'cause sure yo' will get in wrong," says dusky Harry Rice, arrested for telling the police that the saloon where he works was robbed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—Some-where east of Reno—about New Orleans—where the best is like the worst, ten budding youths have defied Kipling's warning about the "female of the species" and are preparing to take a honeymoon special to California.

BEEF PACKERS AGAIN ESCAPE

Lawyers Spring Clever Coup and Succeed in Escaping for Another Year the Meshes of Government's Drag-net—Wilkerson Surprised.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—As a result of Federal Judge Kohlsaat's action in granting writs of habeas corpus, the government is today apparently powerless to force progress in the beef packers case, except through another long legal process.

Judge Kohlsaat fixed tomorrow as the date for hearing arguments as to the constitutionality of the bail sentence provided in the Sherman anti-trust law.

In spite of the government's protests, without giving the government notice of its proposed action the court issued the writs.

The trial may now be delayed a year.

Judge Kohlsaat's action in granting the writs has separated the question of fact from the question of law. The question of law will be carried to the supreme court, no matter what Judge Kohlsaat's decision may be. His action has upset all precedent, United States Judge Carpenter having previously overruled the application of the packers directed toward exactly the same end.

Attorney Wilkerson, representing the government in the case, was more surprised than any of the others in court. He only learned of the plan when the packers were brought into court and their attorney, John S. Miller, began arguments on the habeas corpus writ.

MADAME HUGHES-THOMAS' ROYAL WELSH LADIES' CHOIR

Which Will Appear at the Natatorium on Thursday Evening.

The Royal Welsh Ladies' Choir is unique for the following reasons:

- (1) The ability, attainments and personality of Madame Hughes-Thomas, the conductor, are qualities that have seldom been possessed by a lady. Madame Hughes-Thomas is the daughter of one of the most eloquent and popular of Welsh preachers. She is highly educated, and is also a first-class Welsh scholar; she has won honors at the Royal Academy of Music, and at present is Licentiate of the Royal Academy of Music, London, being a virtuosa as a pianist, and an authority in the art of singing. She has attained fame throughout Wales and all the world as a past master in the art of training and conducting a ladies' choir. To meet Madame Hughes-Thomas is to meet a lady of admirable disposition, and a personality that engages even the most fastidious. She is a genius, an artist, and a lady, and above all, she is a true type of the valiant daughters of Gallant Little Wales.
- (2) The organization is an aggregation of the most proficient and talented pupils of Madame Hughes-Thomas; the teacher knows her pupils just as a mother knows her daughter, and vice-versa.
- (3) Each member of the choir is a prize soloist; many of the members are graduates of the Royal Academy of Music.
- (4) The choir has won fame in many lands.
- (5) The choir can sing in six different languages.
- (6) The repertoire of the choir is extensive, having nearly one hundred numbers of the best in music, both popular and classical. Six elaborate programmes are prepared and all committed to memory.
- (7) The Royal Welsh Ladies' Choir is the only "Royal" aggregation of lady vocalists in the whole world.
