WANT LOVETT TO STOP HERE

Effort Will Be Made to Have Head of Harriman System Stop Over in Medford Long Enough to See "Something of the Valley."

An effort will be made by members of the Medford Commercial club to induce Judge Robert S. Lovett, head of the Harriman systems, to visit the Rogue river within the next few days while he is in the northwest. Judge Lovett will probably pass through Medford on his way south and local business men would have him arrange his itinerary so that he will be able to see something of the valley. Two years ago Lovett expressed a desire to stop here and it is believed that it can now be arranged.

WOOLGROWERS WILL DEMAND NEW LAW

BAKER, Ore., Nov. 16.—Determined to co-operate in the campaign of the Oregon Wool Growers' Association to secure the enactment of legislation that will assure the wool user the same protection as the pure food law does the purchaser of foods, delegates to the Wool Growers' convention left for their homes today.

Shortly before adjournment the convention passed a resolution declaring for government inspection of woolen manufactured goods and the labeling of goods containing shoddy and wool. The next convention will be held at Vale, Ore.

DECLARES THAT CHRIST WAS AN INSURGENT

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 16.—Declaring that Christ was an insurgent, and drawing a graphic parallel between the life work of the Nazarene and the progressives in modern politics, Governor Chester H. Aldrich of Nebraska today addressed the trans-Mississippi Commercial congress in reference to the plan of congress to limit the jurisdiction of the minor federal courts, in order to prevent them from enjoining state officers from enforcing the laws of the states.

SEATTLE, Wa.—After a joy ride last night, Miss Loretta Carey told her escort that she did not want to go home. He took her to a hotel and she swallowed Paris green. Physicians saved her life.

LOCAL PARTY IS NOT LOST

Broas, Walker and Lackour Are Over on the Klamath Lakes After Ducks - Change in Plans Worried Their Friends.

William Broas, G. D. Walker and Charles Lackour, who were reported lost in the Umpqua hills, are over on the Klamath lakes hunting ducks, according to Dr. E. H. Porter who met the men a few days ago at Prospect on their way over the mountains. The men had expected to return to Medford but instead changed their plans, going over to Klamath. This change lent color to the fact that they had been lost.

New Ball Magnate. TACOMA, Wn., Nov. 16.—That Tacoma will have a new baseball magnate next year is practically certain and local fans think that William Nolton who holds the Fremont franchise in the Nebraska State league, will be the man. President Shragder is tired of the worries of the job and Volton is anxious to take them up.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY. Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine Tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. GILBERT'S signature is on each box. 25c.

Medford, Ore., Nov. 7, 1911.—This is to certify that about November my daughter was taken with a severe attack of rheumatism which rendered her left arm useless, in fact it was so near paralyzed that she was not able to move her fingers, but knowing of some of Dr. Chow Young's marvelous cures of long standing cases of rheumatism, we decided to consult him, in which I am pleased to say made no mistake, as his remedies acted as he claimed they would and after the third treatment the rheumatic pain entirely left her and she has had no symptoms of rheumatism since, besides her general health is much improved and I do not hesitate in saying I believe those afflicted with rheumatism or paralysis will do well to consult Dr. Chow Young, whose home is in corner of South and Front streets, Medford, Oregon.
