Death of Mrs. Tucker.

Another of Oregon's most noble pioneers has passed through the silently swinging gates of time and crossed the river whose waters lap the shores of eternity.

After a lingering illness of several years with tuberculosis the death of Mrs. Ann M. Tucker occurred on November 5 at the home of her son George on Prairie creek. The burial took place on November 8 in the Prairie creek cemetery and was attended by a large number of sorrowing friends and relatives. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Miller, the Christian minister of Enterprise. The deceased had been a member of this church since 1869.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Ann M. Fletcher, was born in Adair county, Ky., December 28, 1849. On September 11, 1867, she was married there to Landon H. Tucker. After residing in Arkansas nine years they crossed the plains in 1876 and a year later located on a homestead near Joseph. In 1893 the family moved to Medford, where the parents resided until about a month ago. Realizing that she had but a few more days to live, upon her request she was brought back to the old home here, George and his sister, Mrs. Lizzie Hendrickson, going to Medford to assist in bringing their mother up here. All of the nine children were notified to come to the bedside of the dying mother, and the husband and all were present when the end came. All of her wishes had been carefully carried out, even to holding the body three days before burial.

Besides the husband the deceased leaves five sons and four daughters, Dave, George, Ben, Calvin and Mr. Lizzie Hendrickson, of Joseph; Tom of Montana, Mrs. Etta Barneberg of Medford, Mrs. Anna Hartley and Mrs. Elsie Meader of Ashland.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the relatives in their sad affliction.—The Joseph Herald.

Miserable Dyspeptics

All the world looks gloomy to the man with the upset stomach. He sees the world through smoked glasses and never tries to rub off the smoke.

Cheer up, Mr. Dyspeptic, there's bright days ahead of you. Go to Chas. Strang this very day and say I want a box of MI-O-NA tablets. Take them as directed and if the misery doesn't leave your stomach and bring a sunny smile to your gloomy countenance, go and get your 50 cents back.

MI-O-NA stomach tablets will promptly end the distress of indigestion, will stop nervousness, dizziness, biliousness, sick headache and sleeplessness. Fifty cents buys a large box at Chas. Strang.

MORSE AGAIN AFTER PARDON

New Appeal is Made on Ground That Aged Banker is Near Death—President Will Make a Statement Later.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 24.—Another attempt to secure the release of Charles W. Morse, the banker imprisoned at Atlanta, was made today when a new appeal for pardon was presented to President Taft by Attorneys Daugherty and Felder, United States District Attorney West of New York was present when the petition was presented.

An immediate pardon was petitioned for on the ground that the banker is near death. Morse was sent to the Atlanta federal prison for a term of fifteen years on January 3, 1910, for misappropriation of funds of New York banks he controlled.

Attorney General Wickersham said that the president might make a statement later.

Cottolene

The way to healthful cooking is to start right—with Cottolene.

Cottolene-cooked food agrees with one because Cottolene contains not an ounce of hog fat—it is a vegetable instead of an animal product. Its wholesomeness and purity are vouched for by Nature. Cottolene is "the fat from the flover."

All the country's best cooks—Mrs. Mary J. Lincoln, Mrs. Sarah Tyson Rorer, Mrs. Helen Armstrong, Marion Harland, Lida Ames Willis, and a dozen others of national reputation—recommended Cottolene in preference to lard or any other medium for frying and shortening.

Isn't the testimony of such experts worth something to you?

You can afford to pay a few cents more per pound for Cottolene, because it goes one-third farther than butter or lard.
