

PLAY ALUMNI TURKEY DAY

High School Football Team Will Clash With Old Guards Thanksgiving—Great Sport Is Expected to Follow First Whistle.

The high school football team will play against the battle-scarred veterans of old on Thanksgiving day for the championship of the world. The battle-scarred vets are recruited from the rank of the alumni, ranks of Medford citizenship and any other rank, so long as they are rank enough.

It is predicted that the game will be the hardest one of the year for both sides. The high school will run up against a heavy team composed of men who have served their time learning and playing the game and the alumni is expected to have a most difficult time in living up to the new rules.

Considerable interest is shown in the game and a large crowd of the supporters of both sides will be out to offer suggestions and advice from the side lines. It will be a grand old game.

Stocks Firm.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Today's opening stock market showed firmness, with prices about on a level with yesterday's closing, but a few stocks made good gains. Later the tone turned weak under heavy selling and there was a sharp decline. Wabash preferred, Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, Reading, Missouri Pacific, Utah Copper and International Harvester lost a point and Louisville & Nashville 1.3-4. The market closed steady. Bonds were firm.

$500 BIBE PAID.

will try to prove that this was done by persons closely associated with the McNamara.

The $500 paid Lockwood, Browne alleged, was earnest money on a bribe of $4,000 to hang the jury.

Other Arrests Impending.

That there are other arrests impending in the case was the positive assertion emanating from the offices of the district attorney. It was made very plain that Franklin was considered only a "go-between" in the case, and that the men who actually put up the money are being closely watched and will be arrested shortly.

The names of these men are openly mentioned in the rumors, although it is impossible to find out whether or not the rumors are based on facts. Capt. John D. Fredericks, the district attorney, is closely guarded in his offices and has given orders to his men not to talk about the case in any of its phases.

Will Get Evidence.

All that Browne would say, further than to admit the known facts in the case, was that "we have got the men and we will have no trouble getting all of the evidence in the case."

When asked specifically is the most prominent person connected with the McNamara case was under surveillance and that a warrant for his arrest would be asked as soon as the three men now under arrest are arraigned, he merely smiled and said: "Wait and see."

Clarence Darrow, chief counsel for the McNamaras, was seen at his office and stated that first knowledge of the case he had was derived from information given him by the newspaper reporters. He said he could not even comment until he had made a complete investigation, which he has already undertaken. He denied absolutely that the defense was in any way connected with the bribery.

Lockwood Not Served.

The most peculiar development of the case is the fact that Lockwood had not been actually served with a subpoena for jury service. His name was one of those drawn by Judge Bordwell's direction as a member of the eleventh panel of veniremen, and the deputy sheriff who was ordered to serve him reported that he had been absent from the city for more than a year and a half.

How he could be drawn into the case is puzzling all interested, but so far the district attorney has refused to make any statement on the matter. One theory given publicly by persons close to the prosecution was this might not be the George Lockwood who was intended to be served, but this is absolutely impossible of confirmation.

Up to 11 o'clock no formal booking of the trio of accused men had been made, and no statement regarding when they would actually be booked was made.

Some one of these days a man will advertise "for sale" the very thing you so much need and want, but feel that you can't afford to buy "at first hand."

CLUSTER LIGHTS TO OAKDALE

Property Owners on West Main Street Sign for Installation of Lights for Additional Two Blocks—Lights From School to Bridge.

All property owners on West Main street, between Holley street and Oakdale avenue, have signed contracts for the introduction of cluster street lights, and it is expected the lights will be put in this fall. As the posts for these lights are of concrete, there might be some delay should the weather get sufficiently cold to freeze the concrete.

When these lights are in there will be a continuous cluster lighting system from Oakdale avenue, on the west, to Riverside avenue, on the east, a distance of eight blocks, besides the Southern Pacific right of way of 400 feet, which is also cluster lighted. Aside from these lights on Main street, nearly all the intersecting streets are to be similarly lighted for from one to two blocks either way from Main street.

WOMAN WAS INSANE THEN, BUT IS SANE NOW

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Mrs. Frances O'Shaughnessy was acquitted of the charge of having murdered her husband. The jury declared that she was insane when she killed her faithless spouse, although she is now sane. Justice Foster remanded her to the Tombs for examination by alienists to convince the court that she is now mentally responsible.

LODI, N. J., Nov. 28.—Ignappiu Ploppin shot and killed five persons and then committed suicide here today. He used a six-chamber revolver and each bullet claimed a life. The dead are his wife, his mother, his sister, his two children and himself.

TATE CHARGED WITH BIGAMY

Local Man Said to Have Wife Living in Colorado and One in Medford—Hearing in Medford Set for This Afternoon.

Al Tate, formerly one of the proprietors of the West Side livery stable, was arrested today charged with bigamy, and hearing is set for 4 o'clock this afternoon before Judge Glenn O. Taylor.

The warrant of arrest was issued by Prosecuting Attorney Mulkey upon information furnished him by a man named Young, a contractor, who has been in charge of construction work up near Prospect.

A telegram from Fort Collins, Col., to Mr. Mulkey reads: "Agnes Tate still living and wife of Al Tate."

This is signed by C. A. Carlton, sheriff.

Tate is said to have a wife in Medford, although Mr. Mulkey is unable to learn of the date when the second marriage took place.

GOOD BILL AT ISIS.

Grace and Monte Wilkes have won their way to Medford popularity with their rope spinning act at the Isis. In addition to her skill with the rope, Miss Grace is a ragtime singer of the kind that makes the old gentleman in the rear seat feel like doing a buck and wing rance. A musical act by Eggleston and Smith comes straight from the Orpheum at Portland and is very good. Miss Smith is a violinist of more than ordinary skill.
