

LARGE CROWD HEARS PALMER

Evangelist Preached One of His Most Powerful Sermons Last Evening—Spoke on the Theme "Pillars in God's Temple."

Dr. Ray Palmer preached last night at the Baptist revival one of his most powerful sermons, according to the people who heard him.

Mr. Palmer's theme was "Pillars in God's Temple," Rev., 2:12: "He that overcometh, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God."

From the start the sermon was filled with striking facts and luminous illustrations. Dr. Palmer, in speaking of spiritualism, told the story of a Baptist deacon in Ohio who lost his little boy, and instead of going to God for help, he called in a medium. She called up his boy. After the old gentleman had talked with his boy a while, he said he had an old sweetheart in heaven and he would like to talk to her. She was called up; she came in and sat on the old deacon's lap. Some funny fellow in the room turned on t'lights, and who do you suppose that old deacon was holding in his arms? A grass widow in town.

The old fellow went out and became an infidel.

Dr. Palmer, in speaking of the small college, declared that for a fullyrounded, clear-headed education, the small college beat the university every time.

"Your education," said the preacher, "does not consist in the amount of book learning you got in school, but rather in the uplift of mind and soul you get by coming in daily contact with mighty sun-crowned personalities."

The preacher told the story of a young lady dying in Boston. Her so-called pastor sat by her side. The girl looked up and said: "Oh, pastor, I am dying; tell me is there a life beyond the grave?" The preacher replied: "Oh, don't worry about that; nobody knows."

After a while she said: "My sins, like a black cloud, are over my soul. Oh, how can I be free from them?"

The preacher said: "Tut, tut; there is no such thing as sin."

The shadows grew darker over the sweet face and that preacher arose and left the room. The family doctor, a devout Episcopalian, sat across the room. He came to the dying girl's side, took her cold, clammy hand in his and said: "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." The good doctor waited a moment and then repeated these words: "For this is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners." After which the young lady opened her eyes and said: "Oh, doctor, I thank you a thousand times. I will trust Jesus."

Dr. Palmer will preach tonight on "The Greatest Shipwreck on Earth." You can't afford to miss it.

WOODVILLE IS TOUTING SMITH

Boys Work Out in Good Shape for Friday's Contests at the Natatorium Athletic Club's Monthly Smoker.

Woodville will send up quite a delegation next Friday night to root for the man "Gunboat" Smith, who meets Joe Biff at the Natatorium Athletic club's smoker.

Before a large crowd of spectators last night all the boys who are to participate in contests worked out in good shape.

The Jimmy Smith and Eddie Conley bout is creating equally as much interest as the main event, the two boys being so equally matched.

In the special event the fans will see a miniature of the real champion in Young Wolgast, who meets Jim Driscoll.

The preliminaries between Willie Mack and Eddie Clark at 133 pounds and Freddie Lewis versus Johnny Roche at 110 pounds, making five bouts of four rounds each, will prove to be one of the best cards of boxing ever put on.

Tickets on sale at Nash hotel. Reserve your seats now.

Medford business houses will close all day Thanksgiving, except the groceries, which will remain open until noon. Please bear this in mind and shop early.

MOTHERS AND TEACHERS MEET

District 65, Near Brownsboro, Organizes Teachers' and Parents' Circle in Order to Bring School Work Nearer Home.

About fifteen parents and friends gathered at the school house in district 65, near Brownsboro, last Friday afternoon for the purpose of organizing a Teachers' and Parents' circle. A very pleasing and well-prepared program was given by the school children and their teacher, Miss Louise Henry, after which School Supervisor G. W. Ager made a few remarks in regard to the value of such organizations and of the work of the Oregon Congress of Mothers. C. E. Terrill acted as chairman of the business meeting, during which time the following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. H. L. Young; secretary, Mrs. E. Charley; treasurer, Mrs. D. W. Meyers.

Miss Louise Henry, Miss Mildred Young and Mrs. C. E. Terrill were appointed to serve on a program committee for the remainder of the term. Another committee consisting of C. E. Terrill, Miss Louise Henry and Mrs. E. Charley was appointed to draw up a suitable constitution and by-laws for the organization and present the same at the next meeting. During the short recess that followed the program committee drew up a favorable program. One topic, "Advisability of Organizing a Class in the School for the Purpose of Studying Agriculture and Domestic Science and Art," was chosen for general discussion.

It was decided to join the Oregon Congress of Mothers and thus cooperate with the state and national organizations in an endeavor to bring the school and the home into closer relations.

The next meeting of this club will be held at the school house Friday, December 15, at 2:30 p. m.

LAST FOOT BALL GAME Of The Year TOMORROW

HIGHSCHOOL VS. ALUMNI

Everybody Turn Out and Show the Boys that You Are With Them.

FOOT BALL NUMBER

HORRORS OF THE GAME.

The football game has started, Now hark, the whistle blows; The quarterback has asked for time, He wants to brush his clothes Again the game has started And again the crowd must wait While the fullback asks the umpire, "Say, is my new hat on straight?"

AS THE OFFICE BOY SEES IT.

(By the Office Boy.)

Futbal is a grate game. Termorrer the Alumnigh are going to try to wipe up the grownd with the hi skule and the hi skule is going owt ter slaughter the alumnigh. Otherwise they have friendly feelings toward one another.

Futbal seesun always ends about Thanksgiving time and the boys forgit athleticks for a while and begin to plan for the Sunday evening seesun fer calling on young ladies. Then it is their thoughts turn litely to new clothes and they go down to Toggery Bill's and get fitted out rite. Futbal playurs learn to kick but they don't find anything to kick at at Bill's.

Once again I say futbal is a grate game whethur you stand on the sidelines and wave a flag or whether you are rite in the middle of it sticking your finger in the other fellers eye.
