WRITE MOTHER THAT THE YARE INNOCENT CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 2.—Mrs. McNamara, mother of James B. and John J. McNamara, today read and re-read a letter just received from John J. which said: "Keep up your spirits, mother; we are innocent and will prove it in time. Be patient, mother."

"Do you think I would believe my boys guilty when they write me like this?" asked Mrs. McNamara, after hearing of their confession. "If they are guilty, they would not lie to me. They are not that kind. They worked for years to provide a home for their sister, their younger brother and me. I'll never believe them guilty until I hear it from their own lips."
