EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

(By A. C. Howlett.) Since my last Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hoon and Miss Abbie Henderson of Woodward, Iowa, were out in company of A. B. Sayling looking over the country with a view to locating among us. They seemed to be delighted with our country and especially with our quiet little village. They were undecided as to whether they would locate among us or not. There seems to be some real estate changing hands in our town. David Cincade having purchased of J. J. Fryer the lot lying between his lot that he has just built on and the one owned by Mr. Heath, consideration $250. Mr. Cincade knows when he has a good thing. Mr. Wamsley has put in a plank crosswalk on the Main street from the depot, between Brown's store and the Von der Hellen hardware store. Wm. Von der Hellen has had the house occupied by Mr. Bacon, the P. & E. railroad conductor, moved onto a lot, as where it was situated it stood in the center of the street. Miss Josephine Sims, representing the Johnston chocolates, Milwaukee, Wis., was a pleasant caller among our merchants last Saturday and while here interviewed Mrs. Howlett with regard to her line of confectioneries, candies, etc. J. D. Otwell, one of Medford's most efficient real estate dealers, called Saturday for dinner. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Goelert of Gallatin, N. Y., and O. W. Hamill of Medford. They were out looking for a location. They had been out to look at a tract of land southwest of here and simply came in to the Sunnyside for dinner. M. L. Dally is coming out again in this batch of Eaglelets with another statement with regard to the Model Variety store. Here he is: "Christmas! Christmas! Christmas! Everything for Christmas at the Model Variety Store. Japanese hand decorated ware and shopping bags, Xmas tree decorations and all kinds of toys, Xmas handkerchiefs and stationery." (Adv.) On Wednesday the 29th ult Charley Cincade called on your Eagle Point correspondent to go with him up to about the summit of the divide between Butte creek and Antelope to perform the marriage ceremony joining himself and Miss Lillie Grissom in marriage, on Thanksgiving day, and of course I consented to go, and the next day here came Mr. Marian Frank Castor and wanted me to go and say the words that would join himself and Miss Vicky Minter in lawful wedlock, but I had to tell him that I was engaged to go in a different direction. He then said that he would phone over to Medford for a minister, but I suppose that all of the Medford ministers had their eyes and perhaps their hearts on some big fat turkey so could not come, and the result was he phoned to me about 8 o'clock p. m. to inquire if my neighbor John Watkins was not a justice of the peace and being informed that he was, the arrangement was soon made for him to go out and do the work for them and he reported the next day what a fine time they had. There were about forty of their relatives and friends had collected on the occasion at the house of the bride's father, R. R. Minter, and they vied with each other to see who could do the most to make the occasion pleasant. The dinner was up to date and everything passed off pleasantly. In the afternoon they, the members of the family and many of the friends, boarded the train with the bride and groom and came out to Eagle Point, where they gave the newly wedded couple a shower of rice and bade them farewell as they started on

GOLD HILL ITEMS.

(From the News.) Misses Hilma Caesar and Cynthia Tuttle of the staff of the Gold Hill schools were Grants Pass visitors yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Bowers partook of Thanksgiving cheer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson in Ashland. Lynn Smith and family, with their friend, Wm. McKenzie of Hugo, were entertained at H. A. Ensign's Sleepy Hollow farm last Sunday. School Supervisor Henry had a hard trip to Trail, Peyton and Prospect in the snow and rain of two weeks ago. The schools visited were Long Branch, Miss Ruth Ennsley, teacher; Trail, C. E. Johnson; Upper Trail, R. H. Powell; Devenger Gap, Miss Eva Hall. (These schools close soon for the winter.) Payton, Mrs. May Richardson; Nye, C. T. Brown; Laurel Hill, Miss Maude Miller; Table Rock, V. A. Davis. Since this trip Mr. Henry has been to the Dardanelles, Chapparral, Mountain and Meadows schools. Those schools all with one exception show general spirit of progress and have secured, or have ordered, the supplementary readers and sanitary water jars, together with many other needed improvements. The teachers are expressing great delight and amazement with the supplementary readers. The children like to read them so much that the problem of busy work is largely eliminated and, too, they learn to read much more rapidly. their journey for their new home in California. I will give an account of the trip and of the other wedding in my next. (Paid Advertisements.) FOR CITY TREASURER. Inasmuch as Lee L. CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

The most brilliant and perhaps the most entertaining and amusing event that has ever been given by children in our city was that held in the opera house Monday evening, December 4, entitled the "Brownie Band," composed of 60 children beautifully and suitably costumed. Every child did their part to perfection and cheer after cheer rent the air as each selection was presented. These children deserve much credit for delivering their parts in such an able manner and Rev. Aldrich, who has been only a few weeks training the children for this appreciated affair, can never be thanked to the full extent that the public believes is due him. Many ladies, also, who made the beautiful costumes, deserve much credit and praise. An interesting feature of the evening was the noticing that every child got an encore. In connection with this, people who were there last night noticed the vast audience could not nearly all be seated, and if our promising little city wants any more such events it would be well to enlarge or build a more expansive, spacious showhouse. Mrs. Sage, who has been visiting friends here, returned to her home in Butte Falls Tuesday. Died, at the family residence Monday, December 4, Frank W. Newman. Interment was in the Central Point cemetery and services were performed by Rev. Shoun. Mr. Newman had been a sufferer for a long time and death came as a blessed release for now he is in his glorious home beyond the river where all are free from sorrow and pain. MONEY TO LOAN.
