Date Muffins (Recipe by Mrs. Helen Armstrong) This recipe has met with considerable favor at Mrs. Helen Armstrong's cooking lectures. Taste these muffins once and you will want more:

Cream three tablespoons of Cottolene with four of sugar and add two beaten eggs, also two-thirds of a cup of milk. Sift two cups of flour with two teaspoons of baking powder, a little salt and nutmeg, and add three-fourths of a cup of dates cut small. Pour first mixture over this, beat thoroughly and bake in greased muffin pans.

Cottolene makes pastry that is light, delicious and digestible.

CATTLE MARKET HAS STEADY TONE

PORTLAND, Dec. 11.—The light receipts in the cattle division gave the packers and butchers an opportunity to cut into their feed lots and gave the cattle market a steady tone. There was little or no difference in the demand, price or quality.

The hog market showed an advance of 15 to 20 per cent for the week. The sheep market developed considerable strength and anything like good quality brought a fair price.

INDIA BOWS IN HOMMAGE

Then Brigadier General Payton, appointed "Delhi Herald of Arms Extraordinary" for the occasion, stepped forward and his glory of heraldic tabard and trappings, and amid dead silence read the king's imperial proclamation. At the conclusion of his task he swung his plumed hat in the air and called for cheers for the king-emperor, a demand which was readily complied with by the complaisant assemblage, and while the troops came to the royal salute, the "Lions and Leopards of England"—the royal standard—was unfurled, and the artillery fired a salute of 101 guns.

King Reads Speech. The king then read a short speech, which was promptly translated into Hindustani by an alert interpreter, and after another fanfare the native rulers advanced to render their homage.

Simultaneously with the reading of the proclamation at Delhi, copies were read in every town and village of India. The Durbar is being observed as a public holiday, and tonight there will be illuminations, fireworks, feasting and junketing on an enormous scale.
