EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

(By A. C. Howlett.) George Warmley has put a new floor on the porch in front of the building now occupied by Mr. McDonough for a workshop, and extended the walk out to the entrance to the new suspension bridge. John Smith has added a neat woodshed to his improvements on his lot this fixing up a neat little home for someone. A petition was circulated the first of the week among the property owners along Main street to have a four-foot board sidewalk built so as to accommodate pedestrians along that route, as the soil is quite adhesive, and by the investment of a few dollars it will prove a great blessing to the traveling public. Our deputy sheriff, Roy Ashpole, has been kept quite busy the past week summoning witnesses to appear before the grand jury. The Tedrick Bros. of Medford are here with their wood sawing machine cutting and piling wood for the Haffer company. They have a contract to cut several hundred cords. They put in ten hours every day, and some times more, they are surely hustlers for they will come to their supper about 6:30 p. m. and after supper go back to their work and pile wood until bedtime. The preliminary steps were taken Wednesday night to organize a commercial club here for the purpose of advertising our town and vicinity and the arrangement is already made for Eagle Point to occupy a page in the New Year's edition of the Mail Tribune. A meeting is called for tonight, Saturday, December 9, when everybody is requested to attend. We are looking for big things to be accomplished and have good reasons to believe that there is a bright future for Eagle Point yet. Charley Cineade and wife were doing business among our merchants Thursday. Mrs. Cineade seems to be well pleased with the change from her mountain home to a home in the valley. Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Daily show their appreciation of advertising space to the Eaglets for here they come with another ad. for their notions for Christmas. Christmas, Christmas, Christmas Everything for Christmas at the Model Variety Store. Japanese hand decorated ware and shopping bags, Xmas post cards, etc. Also a nice assortment of doll carriages, Xmas tree decorations and all kinds of toys Xmas handkerchiefs and stationery. —Adv.

JACKSONVILLE

E. T. Sandry, deputy master fish warden, was in Jacksonville the fore part of the week on official business. W. H. Comstock, the pioneer, has been visiting in Jacksonville. Fred Tice of Medford spent a few hours in Jacksonville during the week. Miss Harriet Dolson, who is teaching near Talent, spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. T. J. Kenney. Sam Sandry of Woodville was a business caller at the county seat this week. Rios Chapman left for Arizona the first of the week, where he was called by the sudden death of his father. Miss Lula Prim, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Southern Oregon hospital, was able to be brought home this week. Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Don attended the show in Medford Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Benedict of Applegate were the guests of Mrs. M. Taylor several days this week. Miss Maude Newbury who is attending St. Mary's academy in Medford, spent Saturday and Sunday at home. Invitations are out for a kitchen shower to be given at the home of Mrs. Benj. Collins for her niece, Miss Isabelle Collins. Miss Collins will be married to Mr. Clyde Shaw on the 20th of this month. Mrs. Kate Hoffman and Mrs. Rivers were the guests of Mrs. Will Gore this week at her farm between Jacksonville and Medford. Miss Eva Couch came in from Union town this week, having just completed teaching a successful term of school in that district. Among those from here who attended "Polly of the Circus" last Wednesday evening were: Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Benedict, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, Misses Nellie Collins, Eva Couch and Messrs. Fred Colvig, Abbott and Whampan. Ivan Howard, second baseman of the Los Angeles team and Del Howard, manager of the Louisville, Ky. team, accompanied by their wives, passed through town on their way to Los Angeles Friday. They have been spending the last two months at SquawLake hunting and fishing and were very successful in bagging large game. Miss Mary Wolterer is spending this week in Medford.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

Mrs. Geo. B. Cox and children are visiting relatives in Woodville. Mr. Walsler has returned here from a California trip. T. Jeff is back from a protracted visit at Derby. A. E. La Ponte has returned from a business trip to Riddle and Roseburg. At the school election Saturday a six mill tax levy for the ensuing year was voted on and carried by a unanimous vote. Our school tax last year was twelve mills and to cut same down one-half in one year speaks well for those in charge of our school finances. A good part of our citizens spent Saturday in Medford attending the irrigation meeting, dollar bargaining sales and other attractions, among whom were Mrs. T. D. Ross, Miss Pearl Ross, Mrs. John E. Ross, Mrs. I. J. Purkeyppie, Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, Miss Blackford, Miss O'Young, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Paxton, Mr. Palmer Sr. and M. Palmer, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Trovella, Mrs. George E. TALENT ITEMS.

Fred Erwin has sold his butcher shop to Mr. Thorpe of Medford. V. A. Dunlap, who has been spending the winter at San Diego, Cal., is in town attending to some business matters. Mr. and Mrs. John Graffis of Phoenix were spending the day with J. W. Adams and family Sunday. Mr. Derby, piano tuner, from Ashland, was working in Talent Tuesday. The city charter was adopted by a vote of 62 to 4. Marlon Tryer has been appointed deputy sheriff for this district. F. B. Johnson, representing the Honeyman Hardware company of Portland, was in town Wednesday evening. There were three new aldermen elected at the election Tuesday: Messrs. Adamson, Crawford and Breese. County School Superintendent J. P. Wells was visiting the school Friday afternoon.

KANES CREEK ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis motored to Medford on Saturday and did some Christmas shopping. Messdames Stineburg, Haff and Olson of Gold Hill were pleasant callers at Mrs. Higinbotham's on Sunday. Quite a few from here attended the Galls creek dance Saturday night and all report having had a most delightful time. Mr. Macmayhen returned home from Foothills Sunday, where he went on business. James Taylor and wife were transacting business in Gold Hill on Saturday. Will Higinbotham returned home from Medford one day recently, where he was the guest of his mother for several days. Sam McClendon of Gold Hill was on Kanes creek Saturday looking after his quite extensive mining interests before leaving for southern California for the winter.
